

a Commission for at Ennis, on Tuesday, 13 petitions reported into Cork, is the Blanche, for the original vat of nearly 1000 lbs. of tea, by Messrs. Douglas, and J. J. Murphy of Tea in Cork, from Pekoe flavour. The price is about half the market price; and an advance of 10 per cent. has been offered. The Commission has announced a new method of establishing Church. A petition has been filed from Cork this morning, for a parish fetched by auction, the value being £43 over last year. Mr. John Connor was murdered by Francis Clifford in the Dublin theatre last night, and the case is now before the Mayor of Cork in weighing it. The Commission has asked the Britannia Insurance Company to select for their policy, from his known connections, and general interest, procured an agent to be mutually advanced. The principles of the Commission are set out in the Prospectus, and other similar establishments, on a scale of life policies, and a desirable security for himself of. The Commission refer with pride to the confidence, as to capital, and the amount of £150 tythes and the Rev. T. O. B. has been without opposition, and to pay tythes and the Commission, and Dublin city have been the House of Commons. The Commission last Tuesday resolved to judge on the Sabbath daughter of Mr. Douglas, of Ennis. At Hampton-in-Arden, William Douglas, aged 87, to Sarah Hollingsworth, aged 19, after a courtship of one evening. At Madras, John George Turnbull, Esq. Accountant-General, to Caroline, daughter of Sir Peregrine Maitland, Commander-in-Chief of the Forces at that Presidency, and niece of the Duke of Richmond.

DEATHS.

At Charleville, on the 28th inst. in the 79th year of his age, Charles Conyers, Esq. formerly of Castletown-Conyers, in this county.—He was beloved and esteemed through life for inflexible integrity, a mild and benevolent deportment united—an unobtrusive independence, which never provoked any one's hostility. His death is deplored by his tenantry and friends with sincere and unaffected regret.

Monday, near Tralee, James Sackville Grant, Esq. one of the proprietors of the Tralee Distillery, and late of Cork.

Suddenly, Anthony Fitzsimon, Esq. uncle of C. Fitzsimon, Esq. of Glancullen.

Tuesday, in Tralee, of scarletina, Thomas Kempt, eldest son and only remaining child of Thomas O'Connell, Esq, having lost three of his own, besides a step-daughter, within a few days, of that fatal malady.

At Doon, Pallas-Grean, of fever, the Rev. C. O'Sullivan, R.C.C. Mrs. Catherine Ellen Williamson, second daughter of the late Mr. Lawrence Guerin, Inspector of the London Hibernian Society's Schools at Six-mile Bridge, in a few hours after giving birth to two still-born children.

At Bourdeaux, on the 15th inst. in the 93d year of his age, Henry Martin, Esq. second son of Henry Martin, formerly of Cork, Esq. only son of Miles Martin, who was in all King William's Wars in Flanders and Ireland, and commanded at the Battle of the Boyne.

At Sedgemoor, county Tipperary, Colclough, the youngest son of John Kiernan, Esq.

William Butterfield, Esq. aged 71 years.

In Kilkenny, Amy, daughter of Captain Myers, 71st Regt. Isabella, wife of John Wales, Esq. Surgeon, Belfast, daughter of the late Rev. Samuel Maffet, of Monaghan.

At Kilworth, of fever, Mr. Robert Bible, late of Tallow-bridge, county Waterford.

In Castlebar, Margaret, eldest of the late Mr. Robert Young.

In Ballina, Mayo, Mr. Robert L. Slevin.

In Kilkenny, Miss Catherine Dillon.

In Great Britain-street, Dublin, Miss Mary M'Culloch.

In Derry, William Thomas, son of Wm. Armstrong, Esq. M.D.

At Coleraine, in the 25th year of his age, Mr. Francis Lynch.

In Dorset-street, Dublin, Margaret, youngest daughter of the late John Seaton, Esq. of Dublin, merchant.

John Hamilton Weldon, Esq. eldest and only surviving son of the late Wm. Weldon, Esq. of Fravelmount, county Meath.

At Spring-hill Cottage, Cork, John Lindsay Lawton, Esq. M.D.

At Scone Palace, Louisa Viscountess Stormont.

Jane, relict of the late William Rhodes, (architect, engineer, and surveyor to the Crown,) and mother of Louisa Augusta, Baroness Langford.

At Sudbury, Middlesex, Lieutenant-Colonel Sale, late of the 4th Light Dragoons.

At Hastings, Charlotte, only daughter of Mr. Sergeant Adams.

The Rev. William Jones, Vicar of East Witton, Yorkshire.

At Charlton, Captain Lindsay, R. N. in his 81st year.

At Hauteville, in the Island of Guernsey, Mrs. J. Carey.

At Andoain, in Spain, Sept. 14, in battle, Captain William Henry Carnaby, of the 6th Scots, British Auxiliary Legion.

On the 24th June, at Madras, of brain fever, after a few days illness, Captain William Pedder, 63d Regiment.

Of apoplexy, on the 5th of July last, at Bolarum, near Hyderabad, Major John Toeker, of the Madras Army, and commanding the northern division of H. H. the Nizam's troops.

Scariff, having the best of the land in the parishes of Dublin, and all the parishes of Shannon and Grand good Corn Country. dated with any company.

Application to be made to FRANCIS DREW, Esq. GEORGE FETHERSTONEHAUGH, who will close with the offer.

Fee Simple
THE Lands of B. J. Clanwilliam, and 188 Acres Plantation (now Set) on Leases for Life, £272 per annum. Application (if by Mr. WILLIAM SMYTH

Wa
A RESPECTABLE incumberance removed, from whom satisfied who would accept the N.B.—Advertiser Address to the Office Man, (post-paid.)

REV. M.
THIS able and SAINT MICHAEL'S Sunday of Advent, due of PARTEEN Tickets of Admission George-street; Mr. Corbett's, Patrick's Michael's Chapel.

Saturday last, at Bir T. Coke, Esq. (late M. In Blessington street Bell, Esq. of a son. At Fitzwilliam-place a daughter. At the Mall-house, T. Esq. J. P. of Hillsbroo Tuesday, at his house Furnell, Esq. of Bally At Clonmel, the Lady The Lady of T. P. V. At Brighton, the Lady of a son.