DEATHS.

Tuesday night, the Rev. Horace Townsend, Rector of Car-rigaline, universally and most deservedly regretted. He had been but a few months past appointed to the Incumbency of the Parish in which, while acting for several years as Curate to his late father, he had been the honoured, and efficient, and zealous instrument of extensive good.
 At Kilflyn Rectory, in this county, John Strang, second son of the Rev. Edmond D. H. Knox, aged two years.
 At the advanced age of 87, Mr. Patrick Coffee, of Knuckna-gun, county Clare, during 56 years of which he acted as Agent to the family of Carrigoran, and had the good fortune of pleasing his employers and their tenantry.
 At Castlemain, Kerry, at an advanced age, John Giles, Esq. In Nicholas-street, Mary, wife of Mr. Francis M'Mahon, herald and coach painter. She was a sincere wife, a tender parent, and regretted by her acquaintance.
 At her lodgings, in Cove, Helena, daughter of the late Mrs. Edward Gallwey, of Clonakilty.
 The Rev. Michael Hore, of the Wexford Convent.
 At Doo Castle, Mayo, of small pox, Eleanor, youngest daughter of Joseph McDonnell, Esq.
 Eliza, wife of George Cutler, Esq. of Stephen's-green, Dublin. In Marlboro'-street, Dublin, Eleanor Blaquire, in the flower of youth.
 At Stephen's-green, Dublin, Lieutenant-General Overington Blunden.
 Mr. Thomas M'Donald, of the North Circular Road, Phibs-borough.
 Mr. John White, High-street, Waterford.
 Aged 76, on Monday, Jane, relict of Jonathan Monsell, Esq. and sister of General Rumley, a Lady sincerely regretted.
 Monday, at the apartments of his brother, General Post Office, Colonel C. H. Godby, Royal Artillery, aged 58 years.
 In Derry, Mrs. Mary Gardner.
 At Aghadoy, John Hunter, Esq. linen merchant.
 Mr. John Callahan, Blackpool Bridge, Cork.
 At Brighton, of apoplexy, John Tower, Esq. Rear Admiral of the Blue, C. B. in the 60th year of her age.
 At the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Gildea, Mountpelier-hill, Major Dawson. The Major was for many years Captain of the Royal Hospital, and a Magistrate of the County of Dublin.
 At Twickenham, Julia Mary, wife of G. B. Cole, Esq.
 At Lochmalony, Fifeshire, Major Boyd Horsburgh, late 39th Regt.
 Thomas Smith Phillips, Esq. comptroller of customs at Mil-ford.
 Francis Conyngham, youngest son of the late Benjamin Burton, Esq. of Gloucester-place, Portman-square;—and Ann Grace, widow of the above Benjamin Burton, Esq.
 At Southampton, in her 17th year, Miss Anne O'Reilly, daughter of Dominick O'Reilly, of Kildangan Castle, county Kildare, Esq.
 At Brompton, Rear Admiral John Fowler, C. B.
 At Guernsey, Lieut. Colonel Harpur, of the Royal Engineers. His remains were consigned to the tomb, with the usual military honours. The funeral procession was headed by the depot of the 70th Regt. His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor Sir James Douglas, was one of the pall-bearers.
 At Toronto, Upper Canada, after a short illness, Captain P. Higgins, late of Westport, and many years Adjutant of the South Mayo Militia,
