by omitted this day shall and City Directory, for mestly recommended to f considerable merit and rompt payment of claims.

en a list of 192 persons r the city of Limerick at for this division.

l house in Rathkeale, adis just completed, capable ls, with apartments for a , which must be a great ood. The Rev, Mr. Kirwan his powerful advocacy to s we refer our readers to

Prebendary of Kilpeacon, on Sunday next, at Bruff ial School, sy gratefully acknowledges Rev. Wm. Young, Clare, Esq. for the family of the e of Kilkee.

inmates of the House of plied with bread and new ef, mutton, soup, potatoes was a most gratifying specnumber of poor creatures festival, and to hear their se affluent benefactors who ting their comforts. It is enabled to provide them Year's Day, for which purthankfully received at the and. Acknowledged 2s. 6d.

SCHOOL.—Rev. J. Elmes e following additional donal, Esq. £2; Mrs. Gubbins Mrs. James C. Fitzgerald, 2s. 6d.—Total, £3 12s. 6d. nowledged in our last post, mounts to £47 12s. 6d. with thanks, acknowledges of the Rathkeale National Esq. Castle-Matrix, £1 1s.; keale, £1.

bbon, M.P. has contributed Stephen Dickson, Esq. to s, viz.:-

£10 2 10

£35 0 0

At St. Marylevone, Ramon de Bertodano Lopex, Esq. to Henrietta, eldest daughter of James Pattison, Esq. M. P.

At St. Petersburgh, Captain de Balck. to Annabella Cope, daughter of Vice Admiral Sir Thomas Candler, Russian Navy.

DEATHS.

At his lodgings, Patrick's-hill, Cork, on Saturday night, after a short illness, Brevet Major Banner, of the 93d Highlanders.

At Mary's Abbey, in the 85th year of his age, Owen Begnall, Esq late of Celbridge, county Kildare.

At Port Nassau, Ballyshannon, Simon Sheil, Esq, a Magistrate of Donegal. At Killua Castle, Sir Thomas Chapman, Bart. aged 82 years. At Kinsale, in the 77th year of her age, the Hon. Elizabeth de Courcy, last survivor of the large family of her father John, twenty-fifth Baron Kinsale, &c.

At San Fernando, Trinidad, Robert Morgan, Esq. youngest son of the late James Morgan, Esq. of Lakeville. Mr. Thomas Holmes, of Roches-street, after a short illness.

At Dove Hall, Mayo, Frances, wife of Samuel Strogen, Esq. late Captain and Adjutant North Mayo Militia.

Mrs. Phillips, wife of Rohert Phillips, Esq. Milfall, Kilkenny. At Blackrock, Thomas Hunt, of the firm of Terry and Hunt.

At Wilson's-quay, Mrs. Ellen Mulcahy.

At Dungarvan, Mrs. Christian, wife of Doctor Christian, of that town, Her premature demise was occasioned by the small pox. In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Lady Riddall.

Thomas, son of John Church, of Listowel, Esq.

Thomas Finlay, Esq. late Lieutenant Colonel County Dublin Militia.

In Derry, Jane, wife of Frances Horner, Esq.

At Kilflyn, Kerry, Mr. Michael Shanahan

At Youghal, Miss Green, sister of the late James Ellis Green, Esq.

At Blackrock, Cork, Boyle Hill, Esq. late Lieutenant 32d Rgt. On the Grand Parade, Cork, Sarah, daughter of the late Anthony Armstrong, Esq. Royal Navy.

At Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, James E. Heyland, Esq. At Caroline-row, of fever, Olivia, youngest daughter of M. Griffin, Esq. formerly of Elm-park, Roscommon.

At Ballyshannon, Margaret, wife of Michael L, Dorwin, Esq. of the Excise.

In Cork, William Gosnell, jun. Esq.

At Somerset, Wexford, Hugh, son of J. Baker Graves, Esq.

At Ballintogher, the Rev. M. Magovern, P. P.

Of fever, the Rev. Edward Power, R. C. Curate of Trinity Without and Butlerstown, Waterford.

Michael Bentley, Esq. of the Middle Temple, aged 82. Bridget Maria, wife of Daniel Nolan, Esq. of Stafford-street, Dublin.

At the Military Road, Mrs. John Powell.

At Tarbert, Mr. John Benson, 27 years of the Methodist connexion.

At Arbutus Cottage, Serpentine Avenue, John M'Aillister, Esq. At South Sea-house, the Rev. A.E. Henshaw, A. M. Librarian of Trinity College, Cambridge.

At Cheapside, Sarah, wife of J. Kennedy, Esq. late M. P. for Tiverton.

Thomas Oliver, Esq. at his residence in St. George's-place, Knightsbridge, aged 84. At Twickenham, Julia, wife of George B. Cole, Esq. and daughter of Colonel and the late Hon, Mrs, Espinasse.

At Glasgow, of fever, Mrs. Young, and her son, Mr. George M. Young, brother of the late Professor Young, of Belfast.

At Torquay. Devonshire, Robert Johnston, of Magheramena, Fermanagh, Esq.

At Headley, Hants, Christina Matilda, eldest daughter of the late Rey. John Purdon.

At the Rectory, Angmering, Sussex, the wife of the Rev, J. Usborne.

At Blackheath, Daniel Augustus, son of Mr. and Lady Barbara Newdigate.

Cardinal Nembrine, aged 69.

At Washington, Mr. D. Herlihy, late of Dingle, Kerry.

At St. Sebastian, Mr. James Tinsley, of the British Legion. At Constantina, of wounds at the siege. Captain Theodore Le Blanc, of the French Engineers. Mrs. Muller, wife of Brevet Captain Muller, 6th Regiment. Bombay.

At Nusserabad, Bengal, Lieut. Colonel O'Donnel, 13th N. I,

HAVE received yo Allow me to than your kindness, and addition to the unin which marked my too convince me, that m duly esteemed.

As to myself I have connected with a review is a fountain opene wherein the deficience things may be effectua

But shall I not re have gone preaching t of Him who hides from and only regards in t I thank God, that you sort, like-minded; cherish the spirit in y

Gladly would I ha exhortation from the with my weakness, bu so. Bear with me whilst I very briefly a

It was my constan whilst amongst you, between us. I would in all-your friendfollow Christ. In yo prosperity and adversi Him, you will find h upon him, " He car without him--keep n unconfessed to him.

We live in a world We are heirs of man will bear them all agai pass our path; but " tempted, he is able to In a word, honour C honour you.

I choose rather t than to dwell on matt be between us, our he flowing out to such a joy to think, that th constantly meet at the our spirits shall blend our respective wants mutual blessing. W privilege of personal

Prayer shall On whose b Whose sum And join us

Farewell, dear fri God's heart, united v hand, be your portion

Your affectionate fr

December 28, 1832