DEATHS.

On Monday night, in Upper Cecil-street, John O'Grady, Esq. All who were acquainted with Mr. O'Grady, could have no doubt but that he possessed, in an emiment degree, the first rate principles of honor and integrity that he was most sealously devoted to the interests and observances of the religion he professed, and to the cause of charity, without distinction of creed or country. In him his family were blessed with a fine instructor and model of those virtues that form the most illustrious ornaments and useful qualities of man.

Monday night, in Rutland-street, after a few days illness, Catherine,, widow of the late P. Ryan, Esq. of this city, original Surgeon-Apothecary to the Limerick Dispensary. Many will have cause to regret the loss of this excellent woman, whose death was evidently induced by a succession of domestic calamities, which her temper and constitution were unequal to support, though few were blessed with the Christian patience and fortitude, which to the last moment of her existence shed an edifying lustre upon the bed of sickness and suffering. In her person the great moral duties of life never failed to exhibit the well-marked characteristics of their heir origin. of their holy origin—exemplary in every relation, whether as wife, parent, and friend, tender, affectionate, and charitable, it must be consoling to reflect, that her sejourn here gave ample hope of that glorious resurrection in the world to come, which is promised to the good and faithful servants of the Lord.

INVALUABLE ACQUISITION TO

N all cases of Irregular or Insufficient Action of the BOWELS, MAW'S NEW MEDICAL MACHINE has decided advantages over every other invention for a similar purpose, it requiring no preparation beyond the mere act of opening the case, by which all that preliminary screwing and fixing the parts, and the hitherto indispensable assistance of basins, chairs, &c. is rendered unnecessary.

The very serious objection to the ordinary Enema Syringe, leakage, separation of its parts, admission of air into the bowels, &c. is completely and effectually obviated in the NEW MDICAL MACHINE.

This Instrument is accompanied by the unqualified testimonials of the most eminent Medical Practitioners in the Kingdom. Copies of these testimonials, with an Engraving and description of the Machine, may be had (gratis,) of Mr. STEVENSON, Sole Agent in Limerick; or they will be sent as a single letter whenever desired.

J. & S. Messrs. Maw have now confided the sale of their articles in Limerick to Mr. Stevenson, these, therefore, favouring him with their orders, will be supplied at the prices charged by them in London. Mr. Stevenson is largely supplied with the Newly Invented which is particularly recommended to the attention of Medical Practitioners and others, as decidedly the best Bandage yet tried for Varicose Veins, and other cases requiring a regular and equitable pressure; in those respects it will be found to possess decided advantages over the Laced Stocking generally used.
