

ed by the parties whose names were heard.) He was induced to adopt that course of preventing the great incon-vention which would result to certain with the case. It was his intention amendment, that the parties be called to use and examined upon oath, and it the house to decide how it should act. abled, if permitted, to show by the respectable professional gentleman in at, at whose desk Tyler signed the signature was genuine. The hon. member concluded by moving as an that the parties who had signed the with called and examined at the bar. thought, in a case of so peculiar a case should not devolve such a duty on the committee. The facts of the case were the petition was to be considered at, and the present petition was presents previous to the ballot. The Hon. member from the petition was presented had as prepared now to prove that one of was not authentic, and that he had ve that the two others also were not in his opinion the present inquiry ought to a close in the course of to-Thursday was the day named Selection Petitions into consideration.
 CH said that Mr. Moffat was not the examine at the Bar. He was the agent against whom the petition complained; tions of the petition were proved, he could come under the censure of the HOUSE. The Hon. Member for Ros-(French) would then have an opportunity to give evidence.
 He had no objection, but they could not do so.

ON THIS DAY—On the Bench the John Watson, and Francis Spaight, Esq. was fined 5s. or 48 hours imprisonment in the street; Margaret Cunning-was sentenced to be confined 48 hours in the Lower Castle Yard; John and Timothy Callaghan, young men charged by Sergeant Riedy, with stealing the house of Mrs. Ryan, Denmark-street.
 On swearing to the key of the door which was one of them, they were discharged. ordered to complete his contract in the city. Michl. Hourigan and wife were the peace to John Robertson and wife. a sailor on board the Eliza, was charged with leaving the vessel and refusing Bolton said that his agreement with to have tea morning and evening, which and therefore thought proper to leave. inquired if he was treated the same hands, and being told so, he was then confined until the vessel sails. Information was ordered against John Kean for assault of Archibald Jamison, Esq. of Farm-hill.

 Francis Woodgate, Esq. of the Ordnance Office, London, to Clare, daughter of the late Henry Woodgate, Esq. of Spring Grove, Kent.
 In Edinburgh, the Rev. Henry Moncreiff, of East Kilbride, Lanarkshire, eldest son of Sir James W. Moncrieff, Bart. to Alexina Mary, daughter of the late George Bell, Esq.
 At St. Pancras Church, B. L. Trimmingham, Esq. of Barbadoes, to Elizabeth Burton, eldest daughter of the late William Walker, Esq.
 At St. George's Church, Peter Young, Esq. merchant, Demerara, to Margaret Blair, eldest daughter of D. Smith, Esq. merchant, London.
 At St. Mary's, Paddington, John Bullar, Esq. barrister-at-law, to Rosa, only daughter of A. T. Follett, Esq. of the Manor-house, Paddington.
 At Kilmarnock, James Brown, Esq. of Kilmaurs, to Margaret, daughter of the late Mr. William Stevenson, merchant of that town.
 At the Manse of Craig, George Ramsay, Esq. to Elizabeth Margaret, daughter of the Rev. James Brewster, D. D.
 At St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Mr. Walter Burke, of Doras-st.
 Lambeth, to Miss Harriet Vaughan, of Berwick-street, Soho.

DEATHS.

At her house, on the North Mall, Cork, Mrs. Sanders, relict of the late Robert Stevelly Sanders, Esq. barrister-at-law, and daughter of the late Alderman Sir Christopher Knight, of this city. She was a Lady eminently distinguished for all the virtues which adorn humanity, and prepare the way to eternal life.
 At Clonlara Glebe, Doonas, the residence of her son, the Rev.
 Thomas Westropp, on Monday evening, aged 87, Mrs. Westropp, widow of the late Thomas Westropp, of this City, Esq. a matron venerable in years, whose declining life was cheered by the affection of her family, the esteem of her friends, and the prospect of enjoying that kingdom where the elect shall find peace everlasting in the beatified vision of God.
 Thursday, at his residence, Annsfort, Tipperary, William Penne-father, Esq. aged 80 years.
 At Clarence-street, Cork, John, only son of James Hanning, Esq.
 late of Cashel.
 In Skibbereen, of typhus fever, the Rev. Richard F. Starkie, in the 29th year of his age.
 At Yew-hill, county Cork, John Williams, Esq. aged 72 years.
 Saturday, at Ballinacurra, near Kinsale, William Bleazby, Esq. in the 76th year of his age.
 John Langan, Esq. aged 80.
 At Boherbuoy, Mr. James Sparling.
 At Ardanafin, Roscommon, Edward Simpson, Esq.
 In Newry, John Quinn, Esq. aged 73 years.
 Wednesday, at an advanced age, Mrs. Jane Stark, house-keeper at Curraghmore, Waterford.
 John, son of Mr. John Glanville, of Waterford.
 At the King's Terrace, Waterford, Mr. George Smith.
 At Maguiresbridge, aged 82 years, Miss Chartres, sister of the late Rev. Mark Chartres, Rector of Ferns.
 Jane, wife of Patrick Byrne, of Glashare Castle, county, Kilkenny, Esq.
 In the 78th year of his age, Patrick Whelan, Esq. of Mount-Tallant, Harold's-cross.
 In Nicholas-street, on Friday, Mr. Francis McMahon, an eminent herald painter.
 In Grenville-street, Dublin, Miss Elizabeth Murray.
 Of hooping cough, Arabella, daughter of George Mathews, Esq.
 Lower Castle Yard.
 At Mountmelick, on Sunday, Margaret, wife of Mr. Thomas Beale.
 In Athy, on Saturday, at the house of Mrs. Studdert, Miss Mary Parker, at the advanced age of 82 years.
 Of fever, the Rev. Robert Gray, Rector of Sunderland, known as the great Northern Apostle of the Established Church.
 Lieut. Col. William Balfour, late of the 82d Regt.
 At Torquay, Devonshire, where he retired for the benefit of his health, Doctor Thomas Donohoo, aged 69, late Physician to the Forces.
 In Bond-street, Frederick Holland, Esq.
 At Fort George, near Inverness, Captain Lionel Tollemache, of the 76th Regt. aged 31, third surviving son of the Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Tollemache.
 Sarah Mary, eldest daughter of the Rev. John Smalley, Vicar of Cwm, Flintshire.
 Richard Dawson, Esq. solicitor, St. Asaph.
 Eliza, widow of the late Mr. John Stordy, Liverpool.
 At Phillimore-place, Kensington, Mrs. Sarah Deane.
 At the Establishment of the Brazillian Mining Company, Minas Geraes, Brazil, Bartholomew MacDonnell, Esq. son of the late Randall MacDonnell, Esq. Dublin.
 At Calais, the Rev. William Agate, of consumption.

citers.—Messrs. Glyn, Ha Claude Scott, Bart. and C
THE large proportion to distribute, at peri Assured for the whole ter vantages nearly equal to Society, without any of such associations.

A general statement of will be submitted every fi ascertained to have accru and the necessary expen tioned among the Assured of one or more years star amount of premiums paid (at the option of the Assu Bonus payable when the its value applied to the r miums, in such manner just and equitable to the

The Company's Policie valuation, whenever the effected be accomplished.

The Tables of premium have been in use during t are calculated upon such ciples as entirely to se Public.

Persons assured to this reside any where within t by Sea from one part of the and to and from the Char peace, to pass and repass boat, to or from any For Hamburgh, both inclusiv and without obtaining pe for that purpose.

Should a person assured one month after a renew the Company will be liab provided the Premium stipulated.

No extra premium wil
 Naval or Military Men, u into actual service.

The Lives of persons b Seas for Mercantile or of on terms comensurate wi

In the event of disput (where no fraud is susp thereof to arbitration.

No entrance-money or quired by the Company, Policy beyond the cost of admitted, upon the same

Tables of Rates, and to insurance business, wi

JAMES MO

No.
 And he begs to and Traders who have MARINE RISKS, wh
 promptly and securely