

was held in the large lecture-room; the Archbishop of Canterbury in a large number of students amounted to a hostile meeting took place near Algernon Hullsingham, Esq. and late an officer in the East India Company. At the second discharge of shots, the antagonist's ball in the fleshy part of the hand. The hostile meeting arose from a common for the Church Missionary Society at St. Bride's yesterday evening by a good deal, produced £150.

of the sudden and severe illness of a premature accouchment, the programme of Talfourd's new tragedy, 'The Victim of the Gallies', is delayed. We fear the lady's illness will be postponed for several weeks, and it is not clear where it can be supplied.

that should the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, one of the coronation Peers, his name be Re-trenchard, not Mount Trenchard, and it.

Essex is indisposed at his mansion, and Matrimony does not agree with order of the Minister of the interior, and are now allowed freely to practice among their fellow countrymen, and qualified, on presenting their petitions, when they make their applications to the police or municipal authorities, on the part of the French Government, given great satisfaction.

in contemplation between Lord Melbourne and the Duke of Wellington, and Maria Cadogan, youngest daughter of the late Duchess of Cadogan.

the course of his last lecture against the Dissenters, dwelt at considerable length on the course of his last lecture against the Dissenters find in maintaining present instructor of her Majesty several influential gentlemen, conferring on different branches of trade and manufactures, held at the London Coffee House, and was resolved that a public meeting should be held for the purpose of considering what steps should be taken to prevent any diminution of the splendour of the Coronation of the Queen.

the distribution of prizes to the Students of Medicine took place in the Lecture Hall of the London University College, the Rev. Mr. Quain, in the Chair. Richard Quain, Esq. received the certificate and gold medal for his services in the study of Zoology.

given 4,000*l.* for the copyright of the late Mr. Quain's life.

hats have just come out in the market, and the Agricultural Bank was first established, and made to it by a Scotch House for the sum of a thousand pounds, to start a lace manufactory at Limerick. This sum, after proper arrangements, the manufactory commenced and it is gratifying to know that 4,000 l. would otherwise be idle and starving, and that the Bank of Ireland could not have granted such a loan; and the success of a Joint Stock Bank, it is

FATHER TOM'S WHISKEY PUNCH.—Put in the spirits first," say his Reverence, "and then put in the sugar; and, remember, any drop of water you put in after that spoils the punch."

QUEEN'S BENCH—THURSDAY.

THE QUEEN v. COOTE.

The Defendant was brought up for judgment, but the Court postponed passing sentence.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

SATURDAY, MAY 5.

The following letter was received by Doctor Knight Carey, of this City, from W. S. O'Brien, Esq. M.P.—

"London, April 30, 1838.

"DEAR SIR—I have had the pleasure of receiving your letter of the 27th, accompanying a petition from the British Graduates of the County and City of Limerick, relative to the Medical Bill. I beg of you to assure the Gentlemen whom you represent as the Chairman of this Meeting, that I shall not fail to take an early opportunity of presenting it to the House, and that my best attention will be given, as it has already been, to the progress of Mr. French's Bill.

"I am, dear Sir, faithfully yours,

"WILLIAM S. O'BRIEN.

"J. Knight Carey, Esq. M.D. Limerick."

Among the 311 representatives who have sent in their names to entertain Sir Robert Peel, at a grand banquet on the 12th May, are Lord Adare, Sir R. Bateson, A. Blennerhassett, Sir Charles Coote, Col. Damer, Mr. Sergeant Jackson, T. Lefroy, E. Litton, T. P. Maunsell, Capt. Mathew, Lord Powerscourt, Sir F. Shaw, Lord Stanley, Col. Thomas 20th Foot, and S. Trench.

Thomas P. Vokes, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Police, has left this city, by order of Government, for the scene of the lamented Mr. Cooper's murder, in Tipperary.

On Sunday, a man of the name of Patrick Connors, going home from Shanagolden, was met by a party of fellows, who beat him so severely that he died of the wounds. The deceased's son is lying down from a beating he received on the same night. An inquest was held upon the body of Connors, and two men, named Patrick Callaghan and Jeremiah Maher, are committed for the murder.

An aged poor man perished of cold and want at Gallows-green hill on Monday night, having been refused a lodging at different houses in that neighbourhood.

Mr. Tarleton is appointed Manager of the Agricultural Bank at Tralee; Mr. Wilson, Manager of the branch at Enniscorthy; and Mr. Kelly Manager of the branch at Cork.

The rapid progress of vegetation for the last three days has surpassed all experience, and it is gratifying to know that the favourable change of weather is quite general.

Fat cows brought 45*s.* per cwt. at the fair of Croom on Thursday; sheep, 40*s.* to 45*s.*; strippers, 3*s.* to 10*s.*; lambs, 12*s.* to 15*s.*; and pigs, 38*s.* per cwt.

LIMERICK RACES—NEWCASTLE COURSE.

WEDNESDAY, FIRST DAY.

Weight for age plate, £5 stakes, p.p. £20 added by the Stewards, two mile heats.

Mr. Canny's Gipsej, Mr. Peel, 25th Regt. 1 1

Mr. Jameson's Spolasco, Mr. Fitzgerald. 2 2

60th, Liverpool, to Dublin; 69th, Dover, to Cork; 72d, Dublin, to Glasgow; Dublin; 82d, Cork, to Sligo.

The 33d depot under having received the route on-Shannon for that station.

The 77th depot having companies under Brevet yesterday for that town.

We have reason to suppose are in contemplation relative length of service and reward are not yet certain whether in the shape of a subsidy or be introduced in any form from the proposed Commutation.

The 11th Light Dragoons expected home.

The 8th Depot at Galway Baynes, has received the order for Guernsey, and marched.

Sir Edward Blakeney has the state of the weather shall not be worn by the troops until further orders.

On Tuesday the 10th Lieut.-Colonel H. Custance, General L'Estrange, in France.

The 19th, at Templemore exchanged quarters this week.

Major Broom, has joined from leave in London.

The Company of the 9th aid of the civil power, and to join Head Quarters at . . .

Ensigns Dore and Mercer Regiment in Dublin on approval has gone on leave of absence returned from leave.

The Sergeant-Major 94th Quarter Master of that Regiment.

Ensign Hope has joined leave of absence.

We perceive from the Service Gazette and Naval these prints have taken off without acknowledgment.

Captain Hartley, 8th Regiment on leave.

Lieutenant Heard, of the same Regiment, has obtained on account of his health.

Captains Brooke and B. the 32d, have received orders now going out to the Serjeant to embark on board the other corps, for North America.

Lieut. Brady, of the 17th at Chatham, and on the . . .

The 94th are certainly in Wales; and the 95th follow.

The 47th Depot exchanged 60th, at Jersey.

The 67th Depot moves to Manchester; nor is the 9th as reported in the U. S.

Captain Waddington, to retire on half-pay; and a troop by purchase.