

The races ball at Swinburn's, on Wednesday night, was attended. The company were received by the Stewards and Lady Patronesses; and though rain fell very heavily all the night, it could not damp the ardour of the many Ladies and Gentlemen who repaired to the scene of amusement, the profits of the ball being for charity. The superior band of the 25th Regiment occupied the orchestra, and dancing was kept up to a late hour.

The fullest house yet known, to greet the laudable efforts of our garrison amateurs, was probably that of Thursday night, when several families who had arrived from the Counties of Clare and Limerick, to attend the races, gladly availed themselves of the opportunity to visit our Theatre and the dramatic muse. Lieut. MacDonald, 25th, and Lieut. Ede, the Bays, were quite au fait in the haughty Lancers, and furious for a hostile demonstration before their bewildered host. Lieut. Johnston, 93d, did not appear as Admiral Etiquette, but the part was well sustained at a short notice by Mr. Gibney. Mr. Jameson as Premier, in Popping the Question, admirably supported his well known fame in light comedy. Major-General Sir Wm. Macbean was in the box circle.

John Manogue and Wm. Gleeson were fined 10s. each, for assault on Mary Walsh. Informations against Mary Creamour and Eliza Dyas for stealing two pieces of green cloth out of the shop of Mr. Thomas Devitt. Mrs. A. Fawl v. Andrew Fawl and Patrick Naughten for assaulting, and turning her out of her house without provocation. As Mr. Fawl happened to be ill the case was postponed to next court day.

METEOROLOGICAL LECTURES.—In a late number of the Dublin Journal of Medical Science, is a very interesting paper on the above subject, containing a detailed report of three years' continued observations at Cove by Dr. Scott, on the temperature, moisture, and prevailing winds at that place. We trust his example may lead to the establishing of like observations in many other parts of our island.
