answering this inquiry in the aminathe proposed measure an end would t to all collision between the Clergy nioners, landfords as well as tenants, ers of the Established Church, or tithe composition would be commuted ege, and the rent-charge, when ree the property of the State. An end t once and for ever, to the heartontentions, and still more frightful which have so long been found

British capital would find its way to s is all that is wanted to turn the vast country to good account. perty of the Church rendered secure, to sacrifice this for the attainment of lestion may be answered by asking er is property vested in land, or titles, ? By the proposed plan, the tithes be converted into rents. But it has nat confiscation could be more easily e future period, in the case of land, large; and yet the same parties who on, when animadverting upon the suginted of leaving the titles to the Prond giving the Glebes to the Roman y assert the advantages of property

c. Some take alarm at the plan of the present system. Thus the peace would be promoted by the measure rosperity would be the consequence of property of the Church, and leaving t thereof to a Board, to whom the to look for their incomes. But this is tem of the Universities, and other great both countries; and the Fellows and of such societies are certainly not the g the estates of the Colleges to which ed under the management of a Board, eir income from the Bursar. the efficiency of the Church.—It must if the peace of the country be prostability of church property secured, f the church will be increased. The men, at the best; and if they be depenmost part they are, upon their Clerical support of their families, it is imat their minds must be disturbed, their cted, and their energies paralized, under f pecuniary difficulties, the uncertainty heir wants, and all the evils of embardebt. On the other hand, an income rly paid, will relieve them from all the pecuniary difficulties bring in their igh the income be small, every practical t it is rendered more valuable by reguent. In another point of view, the ne will tend to the increased efficiency It will facilitate the better arrangesion of parishes, and the more equiton of Clerical income. The present r ever oppose great difficulties in the able a practical reform in the Church;

ed with effect, would put an end to non-residence, now often rendered une inadequacy of the benefice; while all is on the supposition that the measure denied, let it be shewn either that my accurate, or my conclusions fallacious.

y views of this measure be erroneous, ant inquiry yet remains, to which I beg, at the same time be swept away.

will tend to these good results.

we doubt not but a good lodgment has been made in the hearts of the Kenry people for the poor Protestant orphan and the widow. The deputation contained their united efforts all the week; and whether we consider the sum received, about 70%, or the general good feeling excited throughout their tour, we hearth congratulate them on the success of their labours. We understand that the same Gentlemen have promised to attend the anniversary meeting of the Chie Protestant Orphan Society on Tuesday next, the 200 instant, at Ennis. A large assemblage is expected. The Wellesley Bridge Commissioners have by the decided whether to construct at the ferry, shower.

Cecil-street, a flight of stone steps on the site of the present wharf, "which is being filled up for the men line of quays, or to form an arched tunnel, where cattle may water, as at present. One of the most useff appendages to the portant harbour of Limciek (that splendid modern invention, a Patent Slip), for reading vessels, may now be seen near the Ferry what the Forth Strand, where all necessary arrangements are made to facilitate in motion.

Pierce Ryan, a countryman, was beaten to deah with stones at Cappamore, within the last few days his assailants having brutally fractured his head with those destructive missiles. The Mayor held an inquest upon his remains .- Verdict of wilful murder against two men of the name of Minahan from that neighbourhood, who are since committed to prison by M. Singleton, Esq. Police Magistrate. Saturday night a party of men called at the Mailcoach office in Kilmastulla, and threatened the agent, Mr. Goulding, if he did not dismiss certain helpers in the establishment, or they would have his life before 24 hours, and that he should not escape like Mr. M'Dermott-who, it appears, had become obnoxious to these 'pacificators,' as he never recovered the murderous beating he got while agent at that I ation, having died of his wounds. Mr. Goulding, hoverer, did not quail, but, with the assistance of Mr.

O'Meara, Veterinary Surgeon, seized one of those audacious fellows, and kept him a prisoner until the Police arrived from Birdhill, who conveyed him to Mr.

Going, a magistrate, by whom he is fully committed. At the fair of Emly, on Monday, all kinds of stock were in great demand, and cattle sold higher than usual, particularly yearlings which rated dearer than many previous years. Mr. Barry's lot sold for over £6, and Mr. Ryan sold a prime lot for £7 each There is a large field of Rye near the Lunatic Asylum in full ear.

ration of a new western entrance. The only members present were Alfred Furlong, Esq. and Alderman Da F.-G. Mahony. Sub-Constable William Ryan, convicted of infraice tion before the Magistrates at Bruff, is, by command the Lord Lieutenant, dismissed the constabulary force made his way into Cork last week, and inquired at the office of one of the ship agents for a passage to America, stating that he would return the following day and pay his fare. The police obtained some intimation of his presence, and were immediately on the alert, but he has hitherto eluded their vigilance, and it is supposed he has gone to Waterford to take passage for Liverpool. A vessel went down on Friday night off Crookhaven.

a house belonging to ctory girls, apprentices, prisonment each, for thr e Inspectors. Informati illiam, Ellen, and Mary eping possession of a l ulcahy.

sault on Michael Dickson d. James Quin for ke ont and hind seats and light as any Chaise, a

T WILLIAM PHAYE

rine Place, an excelle

der.

TO BE

American ED AND WHITE CL AND TIMOTHY GRAS

GRASS SEEDS, &c. I JOHN Al

ER THE SHIP " A

lately received a large n sell CLOVERS, &c. an can now be purcha Wholesale Price, his Cash, and before any His Stores are well suf angell Worzell, Broad axseed, &c. all of which

LISSEN HA COUNTY

Next the

xtensive unreserved A Bullocks, Thorough B Farming Implements, Jaunting Cars, Gig, O

OSEPH and JAMES with the instructions ell by Public unreserve all, within two miles o ach road to Limerick, May instant—sale at ry Prime Stock, In-Ca ster Heifers and Bullo ed Bulls; a quantity plements of the most erior working Thresh

D Jaunting Cars, a ne

Hay, Oats, Straw, &

Further particulars w

At Askeaton, on Monday

At Parsonstown, on the 1

On Sunday morning, at R

q. Constabulary, of a son.

turday next.

a. of a daughter.

g. of a son.

The Limerick Turnpike Board Trustees yesterlay adjourned to the 2d June next, on the further consider on the complaint of the Head-Constable at Bruff. The principal in the murder of Austin Cooper, Lag.

in Talbot-street, Dublin, or, of a daughter. On the 17th inst. in Co gt. of a son.

The Lady of Yelverton O' In Upper Sackville-street

anstone, Esq. of a daugh At Kildare-street, Dublin

At Greenville, Belfast, the ughter. On the 8th inst. at Car Diain Humphreys of a d