DEATHS.

At Trinidad, on the 4th ult. of fever, Captain William Lloyd Peacocke, Chief Special Justice of the Port of Spain, and second son of the late Thomas Goodricke Peacocke, Esq. of Fort Etna, in this county, a gentleman beloved by his family, and respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance; and eight days previous, of the same fever, Ellen Louisa, the beloved wife of Capt. Peacocke. On Tuesday, at her father's seat, Hazlewood, county Clare, Ellen, eldest daughter of Hugh Brady Singleton, Esq. an interesting child, deeply regretted. On Sunday, near Blennerville, Tralee, at the advanced age of 94 years, Jane, relict of the late Robert Stephens, Esq. The Rev. Deane Hoare Nash, Rector of Temple-o'-Malus, diocese of Ross. Zealous, diligent, unwearied in the discharge of his Ministerial functions—though retiring and unobtrusive—pious and exemplary in his deportment-kind, friendly, charitable, sincerethe affectionate brother-the tender husband-the fond parent. would be deplored with immitable grief, were it not that in his humble self-abasement-his steady and unwavering faith in the Father's mercy and truth, and his assured confidence in the Blessed Redeemer's all-sufficient and finished Work of Salvation they who are bereaved of his presence have a sure pledge that he is passed from death unto life, and is entered into glory. At Park House, near this City, the residence of the Right Rev. Dr. Ryan, the Very Rev. Patrick M'Namara, R. C. Dean of this diocese. This venerable and highly gifted dignitary, after a few days' illness, resigned his spirit on Wednesday morning. The urbanity of his manners, his arduous zeal in watching over the spiritual interests of the people committed to his trust, and his powerful and eloquent advocacy of the cause of the widow and the orphan, have merited for him the affectionate regret of all classes in the community. By his brethren, in the ministry his death is sincerely mourned. His remains were interred at Bruff

Chapel. John Carroll, Esq. of Millgrove, near Caher.
