

...bearing interest at 5 attended the consecration of ...Galway, last week, when
 ...officiated. R. Bodkin,
 ...foundation of a Chapel at
 ...of Dublin have applied
 ...strates, to withdraw the li-
 ...ed three times within six
 ...tta commences on Tuesday
 ...ness is to attend.
 ...yrollen have acknowledged,
 ...the veteran General Archdall,
 ...s and liberality, by erecting
 ...urch.
 ...een Carlow and the Queen's
 ...favor the latter.
 ...y, formerly of Castlecomer,
 ...America in 1798, has left a
 ...es in Kilkenny.
 ...the Dispensary of Quiu,

part of our last impression:
 ...was yesterday received from
 ...e found very useful to those
 ...astle, 3d September, 1838.
 ...r letter of the 1st instant,
 ...ne Schedules, I am directed ...sheet, (like those similarly
 ...eighty ruled lines for the ...ear; and on your informing
 ...ts which, according to that
 ...re, they will be transmitted
 ...to be made out in Duplicate,
 ...on; and as a considerable
 ...carrying the Tithe Act into
 ...esidue of the Million Fund.
 ...no greater number of sheets
 ...n are absolutely necessary.
 ...our obedient servant,
 ...GEORGE MATHEWS."

...ckler, B. A. is instituted to
 ...county of Northampton,
 ...vacant by the cession of the ...e presentation of Stafford
 ...n the Cathedral of Lisburne
 ...e Rev. Ralph Bridge.
 ...lmes, of Kilmore, Nenagh,
 ...he commission of the peace
 ...Fellow and Tutor of Sidney
 ...e, is appointed Professor of ...Philosophy, at the East

...son of the late Sir Robert Blennerhassett, Bart. to Sarah, second daughter of the late Alexander Eagar, Esq. M.D.
 William Nugent, Esq. jun. of Killester Abbey, county Dublin, to Alicia Ann, youngest surviving daughter of the Rev. George Alley, Maynooth Rectory, county of Meath.
 At Waterford, Mr. Charles Parr, to Sarah, daughter of the late
 Mr. Edward Bowman.
 Mr. Richard Triggs, of Clonmel, to Catherine, daughter of Mr.
 Henry Cutlar, Waterford.
 Doctor Gerard Irvine, of Irvestown, to Rebecca, daughter of the late Mr. Armstrong, of Millvue, county Tyrone.
 Mr. Stephen Eaton, of Grafton-street, to Ellen, daughter of Mr. Timothy Byrne, of same street.
 At Woolwich, Charles Collambeil, Esq. of Canterbury-place, Lambeth, to Henrietta, youngest surviving daughter of the late John M'Coy, Esq. Royal Artillery.
 At Marylebone Church, Edward Hay, Esq. eldest son of Edward Drummond Hay, Esq. to Sarah Laura, youngest daughter of Lieut.
 Colonel Livingston, of York-place, Portman-square.
 At Trinity Church, Chelsea, Frederick Dix, Esq. Surgeon, 94th Regt. to Miss King, daughter of the late James King, Esq. Gates-head, Durham.
 David Fraser, Esq. assistant-staff-surgeon of the East India Company's service, Bombay establishment, to Mary, daughter of Patrick Kelly, Esq. surveyor-general of Excise, London.
 At St. Paul's, Hammersmith, Richard Henry Goolden, Esq.
 M.D. of John-street, Adelphi, to Katherine, daughter of Thomas Naylor, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Longford, after a few hours' illness, Catharine, daughter of the late Richard Cambie, Esq. of Sedgemoor, county Tipperary.
 At Bushy Park, Dublin, of fever, taken in the discharge of his parochial duties, the Rev. George Augustus, fourth son of Sir Robert Shaw, Bart. and curate of Rathfarnham, aged 23 years.
 In Upper Dominick-street, at the advanced age of 82, the Hon.
 Mrs. Southwell, widow of the late Hon. Capt. Wm. Southwell, and great grandaunt to the present Countess of Hillsborough.
 At Penelope Lodge, county Clare, Mrs. Morgan, relict of the late Peter Blake Morgan, Esq. of Monksfield, county Galway.
 At Tralee, Mr. John Reidy, classical teacher.
 Of consumption, at Cove, in his 21st year, George, son of John
 A. Drinan, Esq.
 In Bantry, Miss Catherine Jenkins.
 Jane, daughter of the late Michael Vicary, Esq. of Wexford.
 At Colmelyn, county Meath, Rosa Rowan, daughter of William Arthur D'Arcy, Esq.
 At Weston Super Mare, Somersetshire, in the 79th year of his age, Michael Burke, Esq. of Ballyvaugan, county of Galway.
 At the Friary, Leighlin-bridge, Carlow, Dowling Wall, Esq.
 At Ballymacoll, Mary, wife of the Rev. Henry Hamilton, of Thomastown Glebe, county Kildare.
 In London, Isabella, daughter of the late William Cochran, Esq. Newry.
 At Lyncombe, near Bath, Lieut.-Col. Arthur Chichester W.
 Crookshank, K. H. son of the late Judge Crookshank, Newton Park, Dublin.
 At Douglas Castle, the Hon. Capt. George Douglas, R.N.
 Mr. Farrell Sheridan, of Kilmainham, late of Bride-street, at the patriarchal age of 100 years.
 In Cork, Mary Anne, daughter of Mr. Francis Cronin, Printer.
 At Tremone, near Merville, Jerrard Irvine, of Stanorlar, county Donegal, Esq.
 At the Close, Winchester, Charlotte Sophia, wife of the Hon
 and Rev. Gerard Noel.
 At Cheltenham, Colonel Crowder, K.H. late of 7th Fusiliers.
 At Brighton, Elizabeth, relict of the late William White, Esq.
 of Exminster, Devonshire.
 Capt. Munday, many years manager of the Milwr Mines, near Holywell, Flintshire.
 Mr. Thomas Edwards, vererinary surgeon, of Daresbury, near Warrington.
 At Blackheath, Harriet, daughter of Major Goldie, Bengal Native
 Infantry, aged 14.
 At Paris, John Channon, Esq. Park-street, Grosvenor-square.
 At Hadley, Mrs. Vere, of Berkeley-square, aged 89.
 At Dover, the Rev. William Theophilus Blackburne, M.A.
 Edward, son of John Rose Baker, Esq. of Chalk, Kent.
 At New York, Mr. Lewer, publisher of the American edition of the English magazines and reviews.

Irish Poor Law

JUST Published by the Que octavo, in boards, 714 pag and to be had of GEO. M. B sellers, Limerick, a Full D'ges of the Act 1st and 2d Vic. cap for the more effectual relief Ireland," with an authenticate
 Appendix. The NEW TITHE sale as above.

Queen's Pr
 30

ADDRESS TO
 THE LORD LIEUTENANT OF IRELAND
 To His Excellency Constantine
 Normanby, Lord Lieutenant Governor of Ireland.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY
 WE, the Inhabitants of loyalty to our gracious unbounded as our ocean view, fellow-countrymen in those unitulation, with which your Ex-hailed at every stage of your T
 Your Excellency's visit to t part of your government, is an that there is no portion of our ever so remote, excluded from Your Excellency, in manifest land, has met with impediments laws, and long-standing prejud of your character, the earnest apply the healing enactments of with which you soften down the that time only is wanting to en establish even-handed justice in country.

The confidence with which yo the safety of your person to I humbly hope, be considered by a guarantee that, should she b lovely Isle, the only necessity f be, to repress the over-warm ex her Irish subjects.
 That her Majesty, our gracio long your government of this I you to witness the effects of yo growing prosperity, peace, and is the fervent hope of your attached, and devoted well-wish Miltown Malbay.

[Here follow sign

To which his Excellency retu answer.

In this instance and for the rest of the Court not in charge