

Dunleavy.
ified to learn that upwards of £20 ted to the Rev. Godfrey Massy, thro of the London Record, by several be uals, towards the erection of Br ool house.

O'Brien, of this city, a student on t establishment, was competitor in th ation for the Professorship of Belle French, at Maynooth. The entranc in that College are every day mo

Mr. Ouseley is to preach at Wesley Meth
George's-street, on Sunday.

Mr. M'Gunn was appointed to the off at Maynooth, in place of the Rev. M of Bruff.

Patrick Davern, of Knockany, has a ond long letter to Mr. O'Connell, roduces the following:—The rev. incu parish of Croom, in this county, in t of the church, derived an income from his Catholic parishioners.—The

it into their heads not to pay any mo men Mr. Croker, the incumbent, fou f to all persuasion, he commenced l against them. After failing by process, e courts of law, but had executions issu wealthiest of his parishioners on rish, however, rallied round them, a r the parson appeared on the high roa y Military, horns were sounded fro ring hills, the cattle were housed, a sants enjoyed through their little w ppointment of the advancing party.

after repeated attempts, did he su ing some sheep, which, not bei en in the crowded market of Limeric obliged to send to the house of Indust nderstand, the poor would not eat them courts of law, the rev. gentleman we urt of Exchequer, when he recounte eedings in his bills, and obtained lea ervice by posting notices on the chur rendered the defendants liable to ha ion issued without their knowledge, b ys learned the tactics of defence adopte ne country—they had a watch in Dublin all bills filed regularly sent down to the ly filed their answers. 'The result wa was never since obtained, although the posed, and Mr. Croker, after involvin expense of over a thousand pounds, n rrears, but all chances of ever obtainin

The people of Croom, like most of t county, had virtually freed themselv od-stained impost. But, alas! Sir, the ord John's, and yours, and Sir Robe o far to fix its curse upon them on ter is sadly mistaken. The poor in that Asylu ok of the mutton dinner, with thanks loudly a ed to their worthy benefactor.

lodges attended Mr. M'Donnell's bene eatre, on Thursday night.

of Henry Siree, of Dublin Esq.

At St. George's, Bloomsbury, Henry R. Downman, Esq. of Carmarthen, to Eliza Sarah, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Robert Andrews, Esq. of Upper Bedford-place, Russell-square.

At St. Margaret's, Westminster, Henry Pounsett, Esq. Camberwell, to Amelia, widow of Major-General Sir Sigismund Smith, K.C.H. 3d battalion artillery.

At St. Mary's, Reading, Wm. Bramston, Esq. of Macao, and of her Majesty's consulate, Canton, to Clarissa Sarah, eldest daughter of Francis Reynard, Esq. Reading.

At St. Michael's Church, Highgate, Lewis Pocock, Esq. of Montague-street, to Eliza, daughter of George Bassett, Esq. of the Hill, Highgate.

George Baird, Esq. shipowner, Alloa, to Susanna, daughter of Mr. David Main, Customs, Greenock.

At St. Augustin's Church, Liverpool, T.T. Ryan, Esq. Mexico, to Ann Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Isaac Hawden, Esq. late of Gibraltar.

At the Friends' Meeting-house, Liverpool, John Stevens, tea-dealer, to Hannah, daughter of Joseph Simpson, Homes-house, Lancaster.

At the Abbey, Bath, Townsend Kirkwood, Esq. only son of Col.
Kirkwood, of Castletown, county Sligo, to Eleonara Elizabeth Morrison, only child of J. Hammett, Esq. Lansdowne Crescent.

At Highwarden, Northumberland, Valentine O'Brien O'Connor, Esq. of Dublin, to Monica, only daughter of the late F.
Errington, Esq. of Highwarden.

At Sierra Leone, William Fisher Mends, Esq. Deputy Assistant Commissary General, to Isabella East, youngest daughter of Captain Creighton, late of the 11th Light Dragoons, and granddaughter of the late Admiral Sir Richard Onslow, Bart. G. C. B.

DEATHS.

Sincerely and deservedly regretted, on Tuesday, at Dromcolloher,
Mr. William Meehan, only brother of the Rev. Mr. Meehan, Roman Catholic Chaplain at Mosley Hall, Wolverhampton.

At the College Road, Galway, Miss M'Donnell, daughter of Edward M'Donnell, Esq.

In Tuam, Mr. Robert Fairfoot, late Quarter-Master in the Rifle Brigade.

At Aghadoe, near Killarney, in the 88th year of his age, Mr.
John Powell.

At Sligo, the Very Rev. James Dunleavy, PP. and R.C. Dean of Elphin.

At her residence in the County Waterford, Mrs. Baldwin, mother to the Rev. John Baldwin, P.P. of St. Mary's and Abbey, Clonmel.

At Ballyshannon, Mr. Thomas Soden, of the 8th Hussars.

At Lakeview, county Cavan, John M'Manus, Esq.

At Killarney, William O'Donoghue, Esq. of Cork.

At an advanced age, in Robert-street, Miss Rhoda Armstrong.

In Kilkee, Frances, daughter of the late James Kingsley, Esq.

At Foxhill, Ardcarne, Mr. Thomas Lloyd, aged 82.

At the Moravian settlement, Gracehill, county Antrim, Ellen, wife of the Rev. Christian Frederick Hartie, Minister of the Brethren's Church.

At Waterford, Mr. John Barry, aged 94.

At North Circular-road, R. Dalton, Esq. Upper Ormond-quay.

At Prussia-street, Elizabeth, wife of Robert Jameson, Esq. of Upper Canada.

At Woodlands, Emsworth, Charles Short, Esq. Bencher of the Middle Temple, aged 76.

Of apoplexy, at Harcourt-terrace, Robert Augustus L'Estrange,
Esq. son of the late Francis L'Estrange, Esq. of William-street.

Of typhus-fever, Anne, daughter of John Benn, Esq. Belfast.

George Howe Browne, Esq. F. A. S. aged 75 Secretary of the Westminster Fire-office.

At Doveridge Vicarage, Derbyshire, the Rev. Henry Stokes, aged 77, fifty-five years Vicar of Doveridge.

At Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Jane, last surviving child of the late John Hedley Esq.
P. Fleming, Esq. M. D. Paymaster of the 19th Regiment.
Mrs. Charles Kemble, formerly Miss De Camp, and wife of the celebrated actor.
At Ely, aged 73, Robert Dix, Esq.
In the New Inn-buildings, Esther, only daughter of John P.
Bicham, formerly of Exeter, one of the Society of Friends.
The wife of Mr. Wm. Worrell, officer of the Court of Requests, Liverpool.
At Waterloo, Liverpool, Sophia, daughter of T. Forsyth, Esq.
At New Lodge, Staffordshire, Capt. Harper, late 9th Regt.
At Brussels, Ralph Nicholson, Esq. of Wyndham-place, Bryan-stone-square.

the County of Cork, by the Deeds of the 10th 12th day of September cause mentioned, to co
the 20th day of Octob otherwise they will be said Decree.

Dated this 31st day o

FRANCIS CREED, Plain
Charles-street, Dublin.

AN EX FAMILY

FOR Indigestion, B &c. &c. in every been made, MORTON
invariably given satisf
lief in all cases of Indige Head Ache, Bilious and
and Acidity of the Stom
turbed Sleep, Violent Debility, Costiveness, operation, safe under sands of persons can now to be derived from th
1s. 1½d. 2s. 9d. and 11
Kingdom.

CAUTION. Be sure PILLS," and do not Imitation.

King's
TO BE LET, from the 1st of November
life time of the present
DEMESNE of BALLIN
108 Acres of Prime Fee ther with 90 Acres of
be given for to Let and the centre of a highly being within 8 miles of Cloughjordan, and 2 of
and Post Towns.

Proposals will be re
Esq. Ballintemple, Mon

Auction
JOSEPH & JAMES
to sell by unreserved the 22nd September, in Henry-street, Limerick,
old BREEDING EWES top lot of Mr. French, an primest Tups of Messrs.
at Ballinasloe, in 1835.

Persons anxious to im
now an opportunity sel
will be sold in lots of 10
Seven Superior Thor
FERS, springing to Cal