

Bishop of Killaloe, at Clarisford, afterwards the 92d Highlanders of Ensign Gordon; and the police Duncan, arrived on the spot to assist in their power to prevent further mischief. They were all inhabitants of the town, who immediately on the scene of danger, and rendered assistance by carrying water, &c. to the most useful. The venerable Prelate, on a tour of visitation, and it was the out offices of Clarisford-house, and it was the first one rick of hay. How it originated arches of Athea bridge, in the away by the great flood last Thursday of that day. All the tillage on either side of the river suffered by the Normanby has refused to reappoint to the Commission of the Peace, although a highly respected by a Deputy Lieutenant of the other freeholders, was presented. Kilfeacle, Esq. a Roman Catholic Grand Juror of Tipperary, went to the estate at Mantle-hill, near Golden property and enforce his right as he was pursued by a large body of his men were severely beaten notices have been sent of late in the neighbourhood of Tipperary to the steward of the Rev. John who investigated the attack on the Macke, Esq, Woodhouse, Waterford, he shot was fired at random, and W. W. Simpson set up for sale, the hotel, Clonmel, the Estate of Kilbrecklackwater, county Waterford. The property was sold at £11,050. The Brown property Kilkenny, sold at £10,350, and the Mustace Estate, county Kildare, were subject to specified reservations the property of Mrs. Finch, of Kilcole the fair of Nenagh on Tuesday last in the savage manner in which it was in forcing it through one of the has been fully committed for trial, of Nenagh Mills, of saddles, other property.

of John How, Esq. of Glenavy, county of Down.
 At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, William Davy, Esq. of Galway, Procollector of Excise, to Catherine Harriett, second daughter of the late Hugh MacDonald, C.C.P.
 In St. James's Church, Rowland Betty, of Aughnacloy, to Jane, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Armstrong, of Laughterush.
 At Toxteth Park, near Liverpool, Horatio Harnett, Esq. of Great St. Helen's, London, to Janet, youngest daughter of Joseph Mondel, Esq.
 By Bishop Luscombe, at the residence of the British ambassador at Paris, Samuel Wheeler, Esq. of Cadogan-place, to Miss Bond, formerly of Notting-hill.
 At St. Mary Abbot's, Kensington, Edw. Smirke, Esq. of the Temple, barrister, to Harriet Amelia, daughter of the late Thomas Neill, Esq.
 At Edinburgh, James Joseph Hamilton Lawson, Esq. to Marion Anne Eliza, daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel David Rattrey, of the 63d Regt.
 At Cheltenham, Lieut. Charles Y. Bazett, of the 9th Bengal Cavalry, to Harriott, relict of the late Lieut. W.T. Garrett, of the Bengal artillery.
 Charles Robert Walsh, Esq. of Halfmoon-street, to Katharine, youngest daughter of John Watson, Esq. of Kew.
 Edward Frederick Leeks, Esq. of James-street, Buckingham Palace, to Anne, only daughter of James Lowry, Esq. M.D.R.N. of Maidstone.

DEATHS.

At her house in the Circus, Bath, aged 71, Mrs. Brownlow, widow of the late Charles Brownlow, Esq. of Lurgan, county Armagh.
 Randal William Johnston, Esq. of Glynn, near Larne.
 At Belfast, Mr. Hugh Small, in the 70th year of his age.
 At Kent Terrace, Dalkey, Anne, the wife of W. E. Porter, late of Rathmines.
 Wednesday, at Erina, near this City, the seat of her father, after a few days' illness, Frances, the beloved daughter of George Vincent, Esq.—snatched from the affectionate embrace of her adoring parents, by the decree of an all-wise Providence, at an age when the growing faculties of mind and person had already indicated abundant evidence of a glorious maturity, not alone in the qualifications requisite to adorn this life, but the more lasting impression of the world to come. To seek consolation for the premature loss of this dear and interesting child, her mourning family must look to the supreme Dispenser of all good.
 In Tralee, at an advanced age, Lucy, daughter of Jeremiah Lynch, Esq. and sister of the late Maurice Leyne, Esq. M.D.
 In Castlebar, Mr. Robert Montgomery.
 In Wexford, Mr. James Heron.
 In Galway, Serjeant Mannion, of the Police.
 In Dublin, Stephen Moore, Esq. of Saperton, Waterford.
 Mrs. Lambert, of Mountjoy-square, Dublin, relict of the late Patrick Lambert, Esq. Carnagh, county Wexford.
 At the house of her brother, Mr. George Hodnett, of Ballyduff, Catherine, wife of Mr. Michael Guinan, of Youghal.
 In Lower Dorset-street, Henry Peile, youngest child of John Nolan, Esq. M.D.
 At Upper Camden-street, Miss Eleanor Ashmore.
 In Castleblayney, Mrs. Frain, relict of the late J. Frain, Esq.
 John Glynn, Esq. only son of P.H. Glynn, Esq. of Wicklow.
 At Portstewart, Mary, wife of James Moore, of Moore-Fort, county Antrim, Esq.
 In Bath, Mrs. Bannatyne, widow of Major-General Bannatyne, of the Hon. East India Company's service.
 At the Elms, near Lymington, Hants, aged 8 years, Lewis, youngest son of Lieut.-Colonel Pringle Taylor.
 Anne, wife of William Marshall, Esq. of Penwortham Lodge, Lancashire.
 At Clifton, Juliana, relict of Colonel Yorke, and daughter of the late J. Dodd, Esq. M.P. of Swallowfield, Berks.
 At Lymptone, Devon, Captain Henry Harkness, late of the East India Company's service in Madras, and Secretary to the Royal Asiatic Company.
 At York-row, Mrs. Mary M'Alister, aged 76.
 Suddenly, at Plymouth, Captain Henry Pyne, R.N.
 In the West Indies, Mallicent, wife of Lieut. Edward Lucas.
 At Corfu, Major-General Hassard, K. C. M. G. for many years Commanding Officer of the Royal Engineers in that garrison.
 In Toronto, Samuel Edwin Taylor, Esq.

his Patrons, that he can turn equal to any Establishment in regards the Fashion of the Cut materials, and the permanence. He does not intend to confine to Merchant Tailoring, but sent into him with the same attention moderate rates. No Credit, it is hoped will be List is so regulated as to afford

Important to TRIENNIAL DIVIDEND NORWICH UNION OFFICE

DEAR SIR,—I have the pleasure to inform you, that the Directors have resolved to pay a Dividend to the Insurers at the rate of 10 per cent. Such Dividend will be £10 per cent. paid by them at Michaelmas, and like manner at the three Christmas, 1838, March, and on the Premiums paid to the Company commencing at Christmas, 1834. You will be supplied prior to the forms of Receipts, to be signed by you, in order to receive Dividends, on your previous list of Policies. Such Dividends will be made. They will we trust prove a stimulus to it being apparent by the successful and liberal conduct of the Company, and prompt settlement of claims, that its affairs are conducted prudently. I rely on your zeal to turn this to the best account.

I am, Dear Sir,
 SAMUEL B.

To Mr. P. Hogan, Agent,
 121, George-street, Limerick.

Pawn-Broker

ALL Articles of Plate, Gold, Silver, &c. le Gold Rings, Pins, &c. le OFFICE of EDWARD HOGAN, yet Unsold, and all Articles of Cord, Linen, Table Linen, &c. since the 1st of January, 1838, Months, are yet Unsold. They over Twelve Months, Interest at his AUCTION ROOM, in the Old Market-House, Limerick, next, the 19th Inst. and will be all are Sold.

Money Lent (as usual) to amount from 10 until 4 o'Clock, and can be obtained in this City Articles. MIC

William-street, Sept. 15.