

ed in circulation.
 daily expected in Dublin.
 was arrested in Drogheda es, amounting to about £6
 his note-book, containing ies, in a cab near Somerset
 The driver restored the lost was presented with £200.
 amstances of shocking enor-
 the neighbourhood of Bag-uesday evening. The unnaed the horrid act is a farmer,
 a funeral with his unhappy
 n sister-in-law, his brother's short cut through the fields, violate her. Being unable to he strangled her. The murured, and has confessed the ous" as his only excuse! The Patrick Keane.

NOTICES—THIS DAY.

or, Alderman Watson, Alder-
 e, M.P. and M. Gavin, Esqrs.
 r being drunk and riotous in ed, after twenty-four hours
 l Bridget Shields, for stripes in a hall in Mary-street,
 red. John Bethel, a smith, ars imprisonment, for being ous for assault on the police ys imprisonment. Johanna and Mary Ryan, were re-hn Kennedy for intoxication, d was discharged. Daniel e last week for stealing a s own recognizance. Cath-rian, for stealing 8s. from a did not appear to prosecute, d Ryan, a servant in the hotel for the last four days, for not which he found in that con-
 r. Cruise declining to prosemations were ordered against a door belonging to the Rev.
 mey for disturbing the streets,
 use of Industry one month.
 ck Homan, both coffin makers,
 ating himself as the plaintiff,
 the price of a coffin—case dis-
 d. Informations were ordered or assault on Mary Downey;
 for assault on John Bloom-man, for assault on Catherine s fined 2s. 6d. for abusive lan-Denis M'Enirny, Michl. Hayes, Keefe were fined 2s. 6d. each ray on Thomond-Gate road.
 fined 2s. 6d. and Catherine usive language to Ellen Ryan;
 m. Ferguson, T. Sexton, spirit
 h for having their shops open nday morning. Informations ary Beet and three others for rt; against John Daly for of William Barker—Daly was e language. Ann Hogan was on sale after the 12th of place, Kennington, to Mary Ann, only daughter of F. J. Heisch, Esq. of Sampford-street.

 At St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Captain W. Clayton Manesty, 8th
 Bombay N.I. to Sophia, daughter of the late Lieutenant General
 William Millar, Director General of Artillery, Woolwich.

DEATHS.

At Adelaide Place, Cork, on Saturday last, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Lionel J. Westropp, Esq.
 At Castle Connell, Catherine, eldest daughter of the late St.
 Leger John Watkins, Esq. of Old Court, county Cork.
 At Vicksburgh, America, on the 1st July last, of bilious fever, Richard, younger son of the late Henry C. Heacock, Esq. of Ballynacourty, in this County. The intelligence of this young gentleman's demise is sincerely and bitterly felt by his friends in this country.
 In Patrick-street, on Sunday morning, after a short illness, Frances, wife of Mr. Joseph Darrac. Through her whole career in life she unalterably kept in view the only end for which we are sent into this mortal pilgrimage, and the conduct in her different relations of society was regulated by a constant exercise of those virtues which distinguish the affectionate wife, the kind and indulgent parent, the disinterested friend, and sincere christian. With fervent and pious aspirations to be relieved from this body of death, she yielded up her soul into the hands of her Creator.
 Samuel Upton, Esq. of Glenstal, in this county, at a very advanced age.
 Henrietta, eldest daughter of the late Hovendon Stapleton, Esq.
 of Towlerton, Queen's County.
 In Dublin, Captain Samuel White, half-pay unattached, formerly of the 12th Regt.
 At the residence of her brother, Francis Ogle, Esq. Miss Charlotte Ogle, of Newry.
 At Stanhope-place, Kingstown, of puerperal fever, Jane Hume, wife of William C. Knox, Esq.
 At St. Owen's Glebe House, Ballymore, county Westmeath, Frances Gould Talloon, fifth daughter of the Rev. John Talloon.
 At Kingstown, Eliza Jane, youngest daughter of the late Richard Sisson Darling, Esq.
 At Summer-hill Parade, Catherine, wife of Mr. John Douglas, of Abbey-street.
 At Hendrick-street, Mr. Charles Armstrong Gibbs, for many years Master of St. Paul's School.
 At Waterford, Mary, relict of the late Alderman Simon Newport.
 At Cove, the Rev. David Hare, curate of Kilworth.
 At York-street, Dublin, Henry David, son of the late William Scott, Esq. Fisherstown, Queen's County.
 At Moorefield, Boebuck, Ellen, wife of William Haughton, Esq.
 In Waterford, Miss Anne Carroll.
 Arabella, daughter of Robert Grimshaw, Esq. of Belfast.
 In the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, Major-General Stephen Galway Adye, C.B. Director of the Royal Laboratory.
 At General Gore Browne's, at the Belvidere, Mary, wife of Col.
 Melville Browne.
 At Terrington, Norfolk, Anne Lady Hamond.
 At Norwood, Francis C. Aberdein, Esq. of Lloyd's.
 At Brighton, Thos. Pearson Croasdaile, Esq. Commander R. N.
 At Wickhill house, Berks, Lady Sewell, widow of Sir John Sewell, Judge of the Admiralty Court at Malta.
 In Derry, Mr. Gabriel Cather.
 Suddenly, aged 26 years, George Herbert, Esq. of the Coldstream Guards, only son of the late Hon. and Rev. G. Herbert.
 Charles Middleton, Esq. merchant, of the firm of Midleton, Gray, and Co.
 Mr. Wm. Kvffin, of Eglwysfach.
 Eliza, daughter of Mr. Vincent T. Higgins, iron-merchant, Wesley-place, Toxteth-park.
 At Mavis-grove, near Dumfries, Lieut.-Col Bryce M'Murdo.
 At West Derby, James Dickson Thornton, Esq.
 At Brighton, the Lady of John Charritie, Esq. a Commander in the H.E.I.C.'s late Maritime Service.
 At Laverock Bank, Lady Jardine, wife of Sir Henry Jardine, of Harwood.
 At Bishop's Down, Tunbridge Wells, Mrs. Abercromby.
 R. T. Abbott, Esq. of Ivy-place, Lewisham, aged 66.
 At Brompton, Mrs. Ferrier, relict of S. Ferrier, Esq. of Rochester, aged 34.
 At Calcutta, Louise, wife of Captain John Bracken, 22d Regt.
 B.N.I. and daughter of the Hon. Sir Herbert Compton, Chief Justice of Bombay.
 At Glasgow, Capt. Alex. Macdonald, late of the 34th Regiment.
 At Glasgow, Lieut. James Taylor, aged 65 years.
 At Boyle Cottage, Guernsey, the Lady of J. M. Gray, Esq. late 7th W.I. Regt. of a son and heir.
 Mrs. Andrew Watt, jun. Glasgow.
 At Bath, aged 83 years, Jeremiah Ryan of Danganmore, county Kilkenny, Esq.
 By a fall from his gig, at Stirling races, Mr. Peter Mein of the Commercial Inn, Glasgow.
 Grace, wife of Mr. David Main, customs, Greenock.
 At Newhaven, Captain Nicholas Massy, master of the Sophia schooner from Cork to London.

Coote.
 Eyre Evans, Ash Hill
 Towers.
 Gerrard Hutchins, Cre-
 gane Castle.
 Standish Harrison, Castle
 Harrison.
 Robert Maxwell, Islan-
 more.
 Rich. Gibbings, C
 grove.
 Jonathan Bruce, K.,
 Spring-fort.
 Freeman Wills Crofts, Clk.
 Churchtown House.
 Joseph R. Cotter, Clk.
 Charleville House.
 Thomas Gibbings, Clk.
 Charleville.
 William Bunbury, Clk.
 Curriglass.
 William Willis, Clk. Charleville.
 Joseph Gabbett, Clk. Kil-mallock.
 Richard Thomas Oliver,
 Rockmill Lodge.
 Samuel Hutchins, Cregane
 Castle.
 Daniel Clanchy, Charleville.
 Jonathan Bruce, Prohurst,
 Charles Conyers, Castle-
 town.

ANSWERS

Charleville,

MY LORD AND GENTLEMEN
 feelings of gratitude and re-give adequate expression, the
 of your esteem with which yo value of which has been muc racter, purity and independe forced me so distinguished a During the period of Twen been connected with you by ties, I can with perfect sinc ever found your dispositions construction of all my actions,
 of mourning or of joy, I hav
 with confidence and affection.
 Many of you are now the whose grey hairs within that honor to the grave, many ha period from infancy to adolesc
 the young or the old, I have ment to walk in the straight which alone can lead to virtuo fessional success. Another fi me, but I can never hope to r regard I have experienced without pain that I break thos connected me with those w honor on the possessor, with Professional life were cheer
 most endearing and affection
 I have the honor
 With este
 Your obliged