elegant new livery, and followed by a concourse of persons who evinced the utmost gratification throug-hout the day.

The Corporate uniform was prepared by Mr. George O'Connell, opposite the Club House, George's-street, and the outfit does credit to his taste. The uniform of the Mayor's Sergeants is superb, full dress coats of royal blue, faced with brilliant scarlet collars and cuffs, which with the lappels are braided with rich gold lace, gold buttons engraved with the arms of Limerick, scarlet velvet waistcoats, and small clothes of same material, cocked hats, splendid gold borders, and cockades, of orange and blue silk. The Sheriff's liveries are of blue scarlet and silver, which has a light and elegant effect.

Lionel John Westropp, Esq. was sworn in Mayor, Thomas Exham and Nicholas Cummins, Esq. Sheriffs of Cork, on Monday last. The Court of D'Oyer Hundred were so pleased with the conduct of the late civic officers, that £100 was voted their ex-Mayor, Alderman Bagnell, and £50 each to the ex-Sheriffs, Vincent and Sadlier.

Saturday last, William Denny, Esq. was sworn in Provost of Tralee for the ensuing year, vice the Rev.
Mr. Rowan, who retires.

Matthew Pettit, Esq. was sworn into office as mayor of Wexford on Saturday.

On Saturday Alderman Thomas North, mayor elect, and Thomas Brodigan and Ralph Smith, Esqrs. sheriffs elect, were sworn into office at Drogheda.

About one o'clock last morning, William and Nancy Ryan, who were minding an orchard at Courtbrack, unfortunately laid themselves down to sleep on some dry reeds, which happened to come in contact with the flame of a candle, and blazed up at once, so that before the poor couple could extricate themselves they were burnt in a deplorable manner. The sufferers were immediately taken to Barrington's Hospital, where the poor woman died last evening, but her husband still lingers in exquisite pain, with but faint hope of recovery.

On Friday evening, John O'Brien, employed as watchman on board the Kingstown steam-packet, while passing from the quay into the vessel, fell off the gang way and had his left leg severely fractured.

Monday morning, John Carthy, employed as a labourer, had some difference with a fellow workman, when Carthy was struck either by a stone or a hammer, and suffered a severe compound fracture of his left leg.

Mr. Buck, Civil Engineer, who is conducting the Boundary Survey in the Counties of Clare and Kerry, and in part of the County Limerick, has removed from Galway to Limerick, where he has opened an office in one of Mr. Newsom's houses at Courtbrack.
