

while in the execution of his duty the body of John Goomy, was found under a decree from the Mayor. Evidence it was apparent the prisoner in a violent manner, for having been struck, kicked, and beaten. common assault; Scanlan, was committed to prison at five o'clock.

Court Dublin, on Saturday, appeared on the part of the crown nulling of the licences of the vessels which had been convicted three times with fines were proceeded with, and the vessels were ordered to be sold, with the exception of two. The vessel was rebuilt from the plans of Mr. Nicholas Riordan, and burnt on that coast. Ships are required by law to pay the surer's Warrants two days at least. A Barrister, who has been made public as the troublesome suitor, has been committed to the custody of Magistrates at Knaresborough, and refusing to find surety until the West Riding Sessions at Knaresborough on the 16th October. Looking young man, of good address. Since the transaction was written a letter to Sir Francis Baring his intentions to be honoured most ardent, concludes by expressing length he will come off with flying colours. He is subjected to the charge of felony, and a "Bampton," which gained a Glasgow, last month, has been unsuccessful candidate for Bampton, was proposed by the Minister of the parish, and produced of character from the Bishop are objected votes between the two candidates. S.M. stationed in Ballyshannon, has removed to Mountmellick. O'Grady, of Adare, acknowledged from Mr. St. Leger, of London, being the only one in distress on the parish of Adare. Leger's charity on this occasion, from him a house and three acres has got no rent for the last year. The worthy agent, Mr. Babington, given within the last year, £3 to such landlords and agents must be by the public, as loved by them they preside.

Elizabeth Warden Dent, eldest daughter of John Dent, Esq. Madras Civil Service.
At Brighton, the Rev. Charles Williams Lloyd, vicar of Gosfield, Essex, to Emily, daughter of J. Rawlinson, Esq. Wimpole-street.
At Kingston Church, Portsmouth, the Rev. T. G. Torry Anderson, of St. Paul's Episcopal Chapel, Edinburgh, to Elizabeth Jane, daughter of Peter Suther, Esq. surgeon, R.N.
At Withcall, Edward Tewart, jun. Esq. of York-place, Portman-square, and Coupland Castle, Northumberland, to Mary, daughter of Richard Dawson, Esq. Withcall House, Lincolnshire.
At Ham, Wilts, Richard Helps, Esq. of Gloucester, to Harriett, daughter of the Rev. Summer Smith, Rector of Ham.
At Secunderabad, Capt. W. Boardman, H. H. the Nizam's service, to Miss Caroline O'Leary.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at his house in Ann-street, Mr. Nicholas Hannan, of Inch St. Lawrence, in this County, a gentleman whose affable manners and upright demeanour, won the esteem of many friends. Agnes, daughter of Mr. John Clelland, of the Thomondgate Distillery.
At Prospect Lodge, Bray, John Martyn, Esq. of Castlemartyn, county Clare.
John Brownrigg, Esq. Magistrate of the King's County, in his 90th year, sincerely regretted by his neighbours, particularly the poor, to whom his aid was always cheerfully extended.
On Saturday, at Russell-place, Upper Mallow-street, of typhus fever, to the inexpressible regret of her family, Eliza Maria, daughter of Richard Harold, Esq. of Penny-well, near this City, a young lady whose amiable disposition, retired and religious habits, have ensured to her the happiness she ever aspired to.
At Western Terrace, Cork, Richard Pennefather Latham, third son of W. H. Latham, Esq. of Hamilton Abbey, Fethard.
Saturday evening, at the house of Robert Morrogh, Esq. South Mall, Cork, Christina Elizabeth, only daughter of the late Philip R. Stubbeman, Esq. of that City.
At Bath, Luke Farrington Nagle, Esq. one of the oldest and most respectable Surgeons in her Majesty's Navy, and a native of Dumanway, county of Cork.
At Lisarow, Co. Waterford, Mrs. Smith, wife of P. Smith, Esq. In Dunmore, at the residence of his uncle, John Kelly, Esq. Mr. Patrick Fury.
In Tuam, Mr. Thomas Lally, the last representative in Ireland of the once powerful Lallys, of Tullinadaly.
At Letterkenny, Sarah, wife of the late Alexander Wallen, sen. Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. James Crawford.
Anna, youngest daughter of the late George Purdon, of Currestown, Westmeath, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.
Hannah, daughter of the late Garrett Tyrrell, Esq. Ballinderry, county Kildare.
At Edenbrook, aged 79, Edward Conlan, Esq.
At Glasgow, Charles Tennant, Esq. of St. Rollox, one of the most active Reformers connected with the West of Scotland.
On the 25th ult. at Courteen Hall, Rectory of Northampton, the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wake, Henrietta Grattan, widow of the late Right Hon. Henry Grattan, M. P. and mother of the Members for Meath and Wicklow, aged 84.
At Cummer-place, in her 92d year, Mary, relict of the late Geo. Smith, Esq.
At Tunbridge Wells, Jane Esther, wife of Major Scoones, late of the 81st Regiment, and daughter of the late Henry Streatfield, Esq. of Chiddingstone, Kent.
At Bayswater, Dr. R. M'Kinnal, R.N.
At Leamington, William Beamish, Esq. of Beaumont, Cork.
In Maryborough, suddenly, M. Dillon, Esq. of Knocknagrove.
At the Firs, Rickmansworth, Sibyl, daughter of the late John Finch, Esq. of Redheath House, Herts.
At Edinburgh, Margaret, wife of Capt. Heath, Royal Engineers.
In Woburn-place, aged 77, William Farquhar, Esq. of Lloyd's Coffee-house.
In Upper Gower-street, Dr. Hare, M.D. in his 80th year.
At Grenada, John Douglas, Esq. Provost Marshal General of the Island, and Ellen Mary, his daughter.
At Grove House, Little Chelsea, Mrs. Harriett Loyd.
At Dundee, Mr. John Langlands, aged 87.
At Edinburgh, John Kerr, Esq. W.S.
At Glenduick, Perthshire, Adam Smith Douglas, Esq. advocate, only son of the late Hon. Lord Reston.
At Demerara, James, second son of Mr. C. Buchanan, teacher, Greenock.
At St. Helena, of lock-jaw, Lieut. Charles Bond M'Murdo, of the 81st Regiment.
At Sydney, New South Wales, Mr. Thomas F. Carroll, of Waterford, a few days after landing from Ireland.
At George Town, Demerara, Ann Constantia, wife of Thomas Baze, Esq. of Plantation Vive-la-Force, daughter of the late Daniel Loucke, LL.D. of Essequibo.
At Meurice's Hotel, Paris, on his way to Italy for the benefit of his health, John Jenkins, Esq. of Swansea.
At Dema River, coast of Africa, Mr. Neild Smith, surgeon, of Glasgow.

and Gentry, and he now trusts those patronage he values, and to whom grateful, as well as the Gentry gene to favour his Concern, as he is determined means to merit their support.

Bird

For Sale.

JUST LANDING, from the Schooner William Mathew, Master, of BEST GREYSOUTHEN COAL found in quality equal to best Orre. low rate of 18s. per Ton. Early application is necessary, as discharged in a few days. Apply to MULLOCK & SONS, of Board, at HARVEY'S QUAY.

COUNTY OF CITY OF LIMERICK

A LIST of the Registry Applications of a Clerk of the Peace for the County of Limerick, name and description of the claim, in what right claiming, description and where situate, and yearly value to be heard and determined by the Court for the County of Limerick, on the 24th day of October, 1838, pursuant to Wm. 4th, chap. 88.

- F.
  - 1 Fitzgerald, Windham Magistrate of the City of Limerick.
- H.
  - 2 Hodder, George, of Fountain, Cork, Esq. £20 freeholder, houses parish of St. John, City Limerick.
- M.
  - 3 M'Mahon, Patrick, of the Little Island, gardener, £10 house garden at the Little Island, parish of the City Limerick.
- S.
  - 4 Spaight, William, of the Crescent, of the City of Limerick, Esq. Freeman.
  - 5 Seymour, Edward Wight, Solicitor, Dublin, 20% Freeholder, house in Nicholas, of St. Mary and St. Nicholas, and street, parish of St. Munchin, in the City Limerick.
- W.
  - 6 Watson, Andrew Vincent, Esq. Regt. Tontine Buildings, Limerick City Limerick.
  - 7 Walplate, Joseph, of Castle County of the City of Limerick, Esq. Lands at Rathbane, parish of St. Liberties of the City of Limerick.
  - 8 Wilkinson, Thomas, of Greenhill, of the City of Limerick, Gentleman, houses and land situate at Greenhill, St. Laurence, and County of the City of Limerick.
  - 9 Wilkinson, Thomas, of Greenhill, County of the City of Limerick, Gentleman, and lands at Greenhill, in the parish of the County of the City of Limerick.

WILLIAM

Oct. 9.