The Archbishop of Dublin, Mrs. Whateley, and family have arrived at Redesdale House from Oxford.
 Mr. O'Connell is not expected in Dublin before the 20th of November. He will leave Darrynane Abbey on the 5th, for Kanturk, where the dinner will take place next day. From thence he will proceed to Thurles, where the Tipperary dinner will be given on the 8th. On the 10th he will be at the Youghal dinner, and the 12th at the dinner to be given to him in Waterford.

COLLEGE-STREET POLICE OFFICE.—Mr. Thos. Reynolds, a name not unknown in the political annals of the country, was charged on Sunday morning, before the presiding magistrate, with having been found in the streets drunk, and incapable of taking care of himself. The constable who took him to the station house having proved the case, the accused was fined in the usual penalty of five shillings, and having borrowed the required sum from one of the inspectors on duty he was discharged.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27.

Lord Durham as we announced was to leave Quebec on October 10, and as this is now October the 27th, his return to England may be daily expected.

The Mayor held an inquest yesterday at the County Hospital upon the body of William Aldworth, of Newtown Ellard, in this county, who died of fracture in the head and other wounds inflicted by Thomas, John, and James Magrath, of Barnaclogh, brothers, because the unfortunate Aldworth had complained of their pig trespassing in his garden, when they all attacked him with stones, and left him for dead before his own door. The jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against the Magraths, one of whom is in custody.

At the County Quarter Sessions Court now sitting, 1200 Civil Bills and Processes are entered for trial, and 24 Ejectments. There are none for recovery of tythes, which materially lightens the business of the Court.
 The Grand Jury will be sworn at 12 o'clock on Tuesday next, for Crown trials.

This evening, the City and County Solicitors give a superb dinner to M. Fallon, Esq. the respected Assistant Barrister, presiding at our Sessions.

We are happy to state that the accounts from Caher yesterday announce Lady Glengall to be much better, and this day out of danger.

The journeymen tailors of this city, a numerous body, are still on the turn out, and if they remain out for another week, the masters, it is thought, must submit to their demands.

William Samuel Tracy, Esq. was sworn into office as Stipendiary Magistrate for this county on Thursday, before the Assistant Barrister, and Alderman Watson.
 He is to reside in Bruff district.

The City Sheriffs have received from the Lord Lieutenant a free pardon for Bridget Connell, under rule of transportation for pig stealing.

The High Sheriff has received the Lord Lieutenant's discharge for John Green, who was convicted of riot at the Sessions, Rathkeale, and sentenced to six months imprisonment, beside a fine of £5.
