

mitted the head-quarters of their respective required to rejoin without unnecessary delay.
Bombay Courier, August 25. entertained no doubt from the first of of the intelligence which had reached Gazette Extraordinary, we are gratified enabled to confirm, from subsequent total rout of the Persians before ars that the Persians endeavoured to s by storm, but were driven back, and left dead in the field. The rout of the ribed as so complete, that the Sciah is e been left entirely without an army, ons are expressed for the safety of the sy.—Bombay Courier, Sept. 8.

ble to exaggerate the importance to ire of keeping Herat from the Russians. ia will not attempt for the present to r possession, but it is necessary for our ussian influence should not predominate st have the occupancy of Herat friendly a, and that cannot be if we do not from having anything to do with it.— e province of Khorassan, and on the n Persia to Hindostan, or rather to which lies between Hindostan and Per-een 500 and 600 miles in a south-east the southern shore of the Caspian, that ad and Saree, and about the same Teheran. There is a direct road from l to Ghizni and to Cabul, the capital of This road also communicates directly the Indus, and thus the way is opened and the territory of Hindostan. No has long had her eye upon Herat, years been looked upon as the key to through which a European invasion, if place, must come. The possession of Russian army invading British India, early as much importance, as the pos-scow would have been to Napoleon in orthern Russia.

morised to contradict the report that her written an autograph letter requesting to remain in Canada. There was no whatever for this report.—Morning Ve should infer from this statement ham is about to return; but why was t contradicted ere this?]

the Queen Dowager arrived at Gibralt h instant, and left that harbour for Malta bbhouse is about to retire from the Board ency General Alava, Ambassador from numerous suit have arrived in town. His ded at Dover under a guard of honour Regt.

Western is again on her way across the e left Kingroad, Bristol, on Saturday, engers, and a valuable cargo of goods, nd cotton. She carries despatches for , and the usual quantity of letters and The fuel used in the last voyage of the n was obtained from the coal mines of va Scotia, and it answered every purpose. er, Royal William, which sailed from the 20th of September, arrived out at having had an extremely boisterous h occupied 20 days. She would have age in 19 days, but owing to the tempe-the Chancellor in Dublin.

As usual Standish, the eldest son of the Hon. J. Prendergast Vereker, and Hugh, the eldest son of the Hon. John Massy, distinguished themselves at the last Trinity College examination; the former received honors in science and classics, the latter in classics.

We repeat our former assertion that Bridget Connell, under rule of 7 years' transportation, was discharged from the city gaol last week, on the certificate of the Physician to Government that she laboured under a sickness, which longer confinement would soon terminate fatally.

Mr. Kelly of the Education Board, is appointed a Dublin Police Magistrate. Mr. Blacker is recovered and now presides in Henry-street. but will retire on a full pension for life.

The Board of Works, and Paving Board of Dublin, are to consolidate, and General Burgoyne, is to be placed at their head.

The Dublin packets from Liverpool beat the Dublin Post-office packets each day about four hours.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer is in favour of Provincial Colleges for Munster and Connaught.

Mr. John Dwyer of John's-gate, a respectable young man, having been unexpectedly found dead on Thursday morning in an out-house by his parents, the Mayor was called upon to inquire into the circumstances, and accordingly held an inquest. Dr. Franklin satisfied the jury that the young man died of apoplexy, and there was no appearance whatever of violence on his person. Verdict—Died by the visitation of God.

A ruffian named Richard Malony, attacked a carman of John M'Mahon, Esq. of Fir Grove, on Thursday night. Mr. Maher, Excise Officer from Killaloe, was passing at the moment, and requested the fellow to desist, which he did, but immediately after threw a large stone at Mr. Maher, which broke with great force quite near Mr. M. who immediately pursued the fellow and kept him a prisoner until the Police came up. He was sentenced to one month's confinement by the Magistrates.

The case of Dr. Murphy v. O'Neill, in which an application was made last Term for a criminal information, for writing an insulting letter, has been compromised, Dr. O'Neill having sent Dr. Murphy a written apology, and paying the costs of the application. The conditional order was refused last Term, only because the handwriting was not sufficiently proved. The affair arose at an inquest in this county, held by Mr. Charles Bennett, when the professional gentlemen came into collision.

On Thursday, the 1st of November, our winter season really set in, and with the fiercest indications, the morning was stormy, wet, and cold—violent showers of hailstone of uncommon large size, and severe squalls of wind from the North West, which increased towards night, and prevailed throughout the forenoon of yesterday. Several trees were torn up by the roots in the vicinity of the city—The Dublin mail-coach was 45 minutes late in its arrival,

It is stated that the canal boats between this city and Dublin, will shortly be propelled by steam.

Mr. Gahan, whose wife kept a boarding school in Stephen's-green, Dublin, is the person appointed a Judge at the Bahamas.

Dr. Finlay, Assistant Barrister, decided at Kerry Quarter Sessions, that notes passed for payment of tythes are not recoverable!

O'Connell is anxious to have the Marquess of Headford created a Duke.

Dr. W. Smith Malley is appointed Surgeon to the New Fever Hospital of Castlebar, at £100 a year.

be signed by such ma contents. A vote of Donoughmore for hi meeting separated.

On Sunday, three blackened, came to t
of Ballynatten, Tipp Chapel at Clerihan, door, two of them possessed themselves case of detonating p watch over the serv

Tuesday night, se house of Mr. Stephe of Nenagh and fire the slugs passed thr which Mr. and Mrs in the wall over thei four shots outside an give up the land whi

The house of a m at Mayvalley, Coun and robbed of 47l.
dead. Her appeara her face being almos which caused instant

Tuesday night an of Michael Quinlan set it on fire. Quin door, but the monste struction had it firm render escape impos man, seized the door off the hinges, and ing them from the furniture and wearin

Mr. O'Connell att
on Tuesday 13th ins
The Marquess of Lord Dunally is from a severe attack

Government offer
the murderers of Jo

There are several for the murder of M

Fifteen murders v
the month of July.

The chandlers of candles.

There are vacan
twenty supernumer

Three policemen,
ing from Borris-in-C at Glyn, county Car country people, wh house, and commen party. The policem arms, were unable t and in a short time

Galvin, after being precipice into wood mangled in a most fractured in sever lived until the ever period to his suffer to render ultimate was held on Friday when a verdict of w against several pers
The Mayor, Alde
M.P. Francis Sna