

was voted from the Chair, on the motion of Mr. Jackson, Esq., seconded by Alderman Wat- Earl of Clare moved thereto, when a re- hanks was, on the motion of Dr. Frank- l by William Roche, Esq., M.P., passed for his dignified and upright conduct in s in our next.)

appeared in part of our last impression:
William steamer, Captain Swainson, left on the 20th October, and arrived in Liver- day last, having performed the voyage in ten days. The intelligence received is tant. The resignation of the Earl of placed beyond all doubt. It is officially a proclamation, dated October 9, pub- Quebec Gazette Extraordinary. Lord es no pains to disguise his deep mortifi- e treatment received from her Majesty's Captain Conroy, Coldstream Guards, despatches from Lord Durham to the retay, arrived in the Royal William, and afternoon for London.
am states it was at the particular request olbourne he appointed Mr. Turton his that he has his approval for sending the muda. What will the Ministry say to this? olborne, has appointed Major Pritchard or at head-quarters, Montreal, in the or Sir James Hamilton, Bart. who has returned to England.

to announce the dismissal of Captain T. o-Inspector of Mayo, from the Police esta- The many respectable friends of Captain hail this as an act of tardy but retributive

's Enterprize won the Handicap this day e, after three admirably contested heats. Ball, at Swinburn's, last night, was most attended. The Officers of the 92d were land costume. The band of the 25th quadrille band attended.

3 years was brought from the Racecourse to hospital, but died immediately, having senseless in the corner of a tent, from r of spirits, to which he had got access by e the owner of the tent lay asleep.

g man of the name M'Grath, fell into at night and was drowned.

azill, a farmer, was murdered in the town on Monday evening.

ention of Government considerably to navy, with the view of reinforcing the s on the Mediterranean, the Indian, and s.

pool, steamer, sailed from Cork for New day.

broke down in taking a sweat near e will now, we believe, return to "Ould ere his respectable owner will, doubtless, with becoming honors.—Bell's Life.— ts for Harkaway's not going for the te at Carlisle, for which he was entered.]

guards, son of General Sir Henry Campbell, to Louisa, daughter of Richard Henry Cox, Esq.

Thomas H. Harding, son of J. Harding, Esq. of Ponty Pandy, Glamorganshire, to Mary Anne, daughter of Mr. Gosling, of Ivy House, Richmond.

Grenville Pigott, Esq. of Doddershall Park, Bucks, to Charlotte, daughter of William Lloyd, Esq. of Aston-hall, Salop.

At Calcutta, Philip d'Ormeux Von Streng, 13th Light Infantry, to Mary Catharine, daughter of the late Major-General Carnegie, Bengal Artillery.

At Guelph, Upper Canada, John C. Wilson, Esq. son of the late Rev. George Wilson, of Kirby, Essex, and nephew of Lord Berners, to Henrietta, daughter of Robert Alling, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Thursday last, at his house in Leeson-street, Dublin, after a few days' illness, in the prime of life, Richard Gabbett, Esq. solicitor, son of Daniel Gabbett, of this City, Esq. a young gentleman of deservedly high rank in his profession, and in private life possessed of the most endearing qualities. His friends have to lament one whose natural goodness of heart, and sincerity of disposition, were untarnished by intercourse with the world—his numerous clients are deprived of the advocate upon whose truth and integrity they placed implicit reliance; but beyond all, his truly afflicted family have in him lost the father, husband, and son, whose fond affection and confiding attachment rendered his domestic circle a source of joy and happiness to all.

The Rev. Edmund O'Halloran, P. P. of Killeedy and Ashfort, in this county.

In Sexton-street, after a lingering illness, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Lieut. John Bennett, late Chief Constable of Police.

On Thursday, in George-street, aged 61 years, Mary, relict of the late Garrett O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of this City. She died with all the consolation, and in all the peace, which charity and religion could impart to the confiding christian.

At Nenagh, on the evening of the 5th inst. aged 27 years, Maria, the beloved wife of George Lee, Esq. solicitor, only child of the late John O'Hea, Esq. of Cork, and grand niece to the late Charles Creed, Esq. of Ballynanty, in this County, leaving a disconsolate husband and young family to deplore her loss.

The Rev. Richard Clarke, thirty-seven years Chaplain of St. Michael's, Portarlinton, and twenty years Sovereign of that borough.

At Kiltanon Nursery Ground, Mr. Mathias Glyn, aged 78.

In Killarney, Mary, relict of the late Hugh Falvey, Esq. of Faha, Kerry, Barrister-at-Law.

At Hearnestbrook, county Galway, Mary Anne, relict of the late Edmond Hearne, Esq.

At Lurgan, near Loughrea, Henry De Burgh Daly, Esq.

John M'Kay, Esq. First Clerk of the Privy Council in Ireland. Wednesday morning, Mr. William Cardiff, Shannon-street.

Henry, son of Henry Ogle, Esq. of Ashton, Newry.

At Banbridge, Jane, relict of the late George Crozier, Esq.

Charles Fisher Butler, son of Charles Butler, Esq., M.D. Sackville-street, Dublin.

At Barbadoes, William May, Esq. senior Ensign, 70th Regt., son of the Rev. Edward May, of Belfast.

Alexander M'Carthy, Esq. M.D. of Skibberreen.

Mary, wife of Edward M. Fitzgerald, Esq. of Carlow.

At Kiltubride, William, son of the Rev. G. D. Mansfield.

In North Earl-street, Mary, relict of the late John Wogan, Esq.

John, youngest son of the Rev. Dr. Hanna, of Belfast.

Adam, only surviving son of the late Rev. Adam Hayes, of Edge Hill.

The Rev. Dr. Carstairs, of West Anstruther, brother-in-law of Capt. Gray, of Spike Island, Cove.

At West Hill, Wandsworth, of apoplexy, Hugh M. Bunbury, Esq. of Demerara.

In London, Mrs. Forde, mother of Miss Forde, the actress.

William, son of the late William Quirk, Esq. of Liverpool.

In St. James's-street, Lieutenant-Colonel John Gillespie, of the East India Company's service, in his 86th year.

At Hastings, in her 14th year, Mary Allan, eldest daughter of the late Sir George Francis Hampson, Bart.

Mary, wife of Capt. William Brett, of the Bombay Artillery.

At Tarbolton, North Britain, William Main, pensioner from the 53d Regt. in which he served 22 years, and was in receipt of his pension 49 years.

At Brighton, Dorothy, Countess of Newburgh, widow of Francis, fifth Earl of Newburgh.

At Madras, Lieut. John Ramsay, of her Majesty's thip Favourite, son of Thomas Ramsay, Esq. late of Derry.

At Newtown House, by St. Boswell's, Scotland, John Smith, Esq. late of the 17th Lancers.

In India, Mr. Judge Garrow.

o'Clock in the Fo day of October,

John Beasley Esq. and others Plaintiffs. Charles Fitzgerald Charles Fitzgerald Defendants.

charges, or incur Rev. James Cha pleadings named, on the Inn's-quay of November, inst otherwise they w Decree.—Dated th

TERRY, SEYMOUR No. 25, College-

Physi
ROYAL GYMNASIUM

Pr
MONS

BEGS leave to the Public i Gymnasium contin Wednesdays, and the morning, the o'Clock in the aft quest of several C day time, he has half-past Eight un Class for young L Saturdays, at Thre

From the very enthusiastic patrona his arrival in this call him home, an winter that he wil advantages of thes his gratitude for th proved by his anxi ment fitted up on ever have been, a ment; for, as Wal tics is one of the g the science of Edu spicuous improve age." As the wor exercises are alrea both from report s only to add, that practised them tha mental energy are beauty of the form sion of an eminen but give power to s

MONSIE
Tutor at Lord Ch
and Italian to priv