

In the late meeting in Cork, held for the annual meeting of the National College in Munster, had an Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, on the 1st of December, at the Castle, by appointment. The name of Mr. Wyse, Sir W. Chatterton, and Mr. Ford. His Excellency assured the candidates intended to submit the subject to the consideration of Government on the other side in other countries, as well as at present, the most important interests dependant on education.

A pedestrian, has completed his unparalled feat of walking 1,750 miles in 1000 days, being one mile and three quarters a day on Sunday night.

A reward of £50. reward for the incendiaries who destroyed two stacks of oats belonging to the late Oulah, in this County, a few days ago.

The abolition of wages according to servitude, and the employment of coach guards, in lieu of fees from the poor, to be carried into effect at present, is the subject of the appointments.

Mr. Beresford, and the three daughters of the late George Beresford, have arrived at the residence of Mr. Beresford, to pass the Christmas.

On Tuesday, 21 insolvent debtors were examined, and three petitions dismissed.

There was a large accession of property by the late man Ivie, of Waterford.

Mr. Milward is elected President of the National Bazaar, Waterford; G. Courtenay, Esq. is Treasurer, for 1839. The late meeting, of Garranlea, has received the peace for Tipperary.

BEVOLENT SOCIETY OF ST. ANDREW.

A number of this Society dined together at the residence of the Patron Saint of Scotland, Mr. Esq. of O'Brien's Bridge, in the city, on Friday, the 30th ultimo, being the anniversary of the death of the late Mr. Esq., Vice President.

Announced by the band in attendance at the gathering of the MacGregors." and on the 1st of December the Society mustered so strong a number of members having been invited by the band.

The dinner was furnished by Mr. Esq. of the style of excellence, every delicacy being supplied in ample profusion, not only in the most savory and choicest of Old Scotia's wines, but in the most choice of Old Scotia's wines, which was only surpassed by their Burgundy, Champagne, choicest Hock, and various other wines, which were provided.

After the dinner, the Claret they ply, and the cork is a new spring of joy; and the old friendship and kindred to set, and the ties grew the tighter the more they were wet."

Having called for a bumper of Burgundy, the health of

Her Gracious Majesty,"

and with enthusiastic shouts of "Long live the King," evincing that fervid loyalty which has distinguished the sons of the North. Air,— been."

The Bishop of Vermont has arrived from New-York at Liverpool.

Edward M. Beauchamp, son of the late Robert Beauchamp, of this city, Solicitor, was on Wednesday last admitted an Attorney of the Court of Exchequer.

Sharman Crawford cautions the men of Ulster against the insidious effort of O'Connell to enlist them as Precursors, to forward his own aggrandisement, without regard to the great principle of either civil or religious liberty.

The Tralee and Ballyheigue mail-car was lost in the flood on Sunday, the horse, driver, and passengers having escaped with great difficulty.

By the last half-yearly account of the Hibernian Bank, their paid up capital of £250,000 has netted £34,794 in favour of the Company, since the formation.

The friends of Mr. Balfe, the singer and composer, have subscribed to present him a piece of plate.

Friday night, an attempt was made to murder Mr. Gouldsbury, of Clondra, county Longford, by two assassins, who entered the room and fired at him while sitting to table. The ball struck his hand, which he had raised to his head, and lodged in the wall.

The sum total received by Lord Plunkett, his family, and immediate connexions, from the various public situations they hold, is £26,563 per annum.

Mr. Edward Kelly, of the Abbey, Galway, was drowned on a shooting party this week.

Dr. J. Agar is elected Superintendent of the new Dispensary at Firies, Kerry.

There was a meeting at Listowel this day, to establish a Fever Hospital in that town.

Wheat sowing is greatly impeded by the floods which cover the country in many places.

Three persons were fined £12 10s. by the Magistrates of Fenagh this week, for selling spirits, tea and tobacco, without license.

Upwards of £200 compensation for malicious burning and destruction of property, was applied for at Nenagh Special Sessions on Tuesday.

Opinion is divided at Nenagh as to the propriety of cutting a canal to Dromineer, Garrykennedy or Youghal.

A publican of the name of Tucker, from Bridgetown, fell out of a boat at O'Brien's Bridge, on Monday, and was drowned.

Our communications this day include new correspondence of D. J. Wilson, of Belvoir, Esq. with Lord Morpeth—Explanation and defence of John Carroll, of Merville, Esq.—Vindication of Dr. Todd's sermon, &c.

The communication from Kilrush will answer the better on Wednesday.

Anonymous remitted £100 to the O'Connell Annuity through the post-office of Dublin, on Friday.

Saturday night last, in the Glebe of Donagh, the house of Arthur Delady, who holds a freestone quarry, under the Rev. W. H. Pratt, was wantonly set on fire in two places in the thatch, and totally consumed.

The following appeared in part of our last impression.

A SECOND REVOLUTION IN CANADA.

"Beauharnois, 10th November.

"SIR—I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander of the Forces, that in conjunction with Col. Philpotts, a de-

ORDIN
THE LORD BISHOP
an Ordination at the
on FRIDAY, the 21st DECEMBER.
Candidates from other Dioceses lodge with the Registrar, on 18th, Letters Dimissory, of Qualification, and Candidates
Diocese must be prepared v

LIMERICK
WANTED immediately
TANT. He must be of England, and will be rec
satisfactory testimonials
character.

A Liberal Salary will be
Application (if by letter)
Messrs. BRYCE and BROWN

AUC
AT THE NURSER
NEAR THE NEW BARRACKS, PROVISION

FRUIT TREES of fine s
and other celebrated
EVERGREENS, with oth
KAIL, CAULIFLOWER,
GUS Plants, some fine
HEDGES, from Five to T

other articles too numerous
JOHN ABRAHAM, ha
of the previous sale of N
long term of years for his
about to make many imp
removal of the above Stock
tion without any Reserve
ember, 1838. The FRUIT
well worth the attention o
chards, or wanting choice
dens, &c.

Sale will commence
JOSEPH & JAM

On the same premises a
TO B

A Large STORE and Tw
for either a Provision, Co
Factory, by the year; or a
Application to be mad
SEED WAREHOUSE, 8, Geo
Mail-coach Hotel.

AUC
A CLONBOY, O'BR
December 28th, 183
nitire, Farming Implemen
Potatoes, Manure, Carria
Car, Gig.

JOSEPH &

Full particulars of the Saturday's Chronicle