 At Camass, on Sunday night, aged nineteen, Susan, the beloved daughter of Frederick Bevan, Esq. and wife of George Hewson, Esq. The death of this young person, in less than three months after marriage, in the possession of beauty and in the enjoyment of all the happiness this world can communicate, affords an affecting lesson of the instability of earthly good. Her deeply sorrowing friends have their minds brightened by the hope, that thro' the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ she is now a partaker of the immortality of the blessed.
 At Drummin Park, county Longford, the Rev. Richard Thomas Hearn, A. M. Vicar of Rathcline, Diocese of Ardagh. A widow and eight children have to mourn his loss.
 Of puerperal fever, Christina, wife of Dr. Wall, Hanover-st. Cork.
 Of inflammation on the lungs, aged 29, Captain Joseph Lomax, of the 16th Foot, second son of Major-General Lomax, of Clifton. Eliza, wife of Edward Denroche, Esq. of Kilkenny.
 At Bannow Glebe, the Rev. David Thompson, Rector of Kilkivan, and Vicar of Bannow.
 At College-green, Ruth, daughter of the late Joseph Wilson, Esq. of Abbey-street.
 At Townsend-street, James M'Cabe, Esq. Bohernabreena.
 In Westmoreland-street, Samuel Curwen, son of Mr. Oldham.
 At Bowerville, Donnybrook, John Lane, Esq. of the Excise Solicitor's Department.
 At Kingstown, Edwin, son of Edwin Battersby, Esq.
 In Stradbally, Mrs. Sherlock, wife of George Sherlock, Esq.
 At Clonmel, Mrs. Mary Ann Graham.
 At Wimbledon, Surrey, Whitlock Nicholl, Esq. M.D.
 At London, Mrs. Laidlaw, wife of Mr. T.B. Laidlaw, of Lower Abbey-street, Dublin.
