

Doctor Todd will not preach the remainder of the Donellan lectures until after the long vacation.

The Dublin Wesleyan Methodists commence their watching and prayer at half-past eight, New Year's eve, in the Whitefriar's-street, Abbey-street, and Hendrick-street Chapels. The Methodists of this City will observe the same on Monday night.

The Rev. Mr. Tierney, P. P. of Kiltolla, is nominated Coadjutor to the Rt. Rev. Dr. O'Finan, of Killalla. Dr. O'Finan prefers remaining at Rome to returning to the contentions of his diocese, and placed his resignation in the hands of the Pope.

A young Lady from Tipperary joined the Presentation Convent, Sexton-street, on Christmas eve.

The Rev. R. Greene of St. Canice, Kilkenny, has obtained £90 through the confessional, for restitution to Mrs. Hewetson, of that city.

Alexander Gray, Esq. of Glasgow, is appointed Manager of the Caledonian Bank, Inverness; Primrose W. Kennedy, Esq. is appointed Manager of the Ayrshire Banking Company, in room of his late father.

The Earl of Clare is on a visit to the Duke of Rutland, at Belvoir Castle.

Sir John Ribton, Bart. is, we are glad to hear, recovered from a bite which he received from a vicious horse; and the report of the worthy Baronet having his leg amputated is untrue.

Sir David Roche, Bart. M. P. has subscribed £10 to the O'Connell Fund; Mr. R. Scott, Ennis, £5.

Under the Post Office Act, Gregory Gilfoyle, guard of the Cork and Carrigaline mail coach, was convicted in the penalty of £5, for getting drunk on duty.

Shanagolden, per Rev. M. Collins, has returned seven guineas to the O'Connell Fund; Quin, £16.

Mrs. Waylett commenced an engagement at the Liverpool theatre on Wednesday night.

Lady Dover and family have left Gowran Castle, Kilkenny, for London.

Baron Pennefather and family have arrived at Darling Hill, from Dublin.

Monday last, Mr. Richard Dunne, the Irish Barrister, was committed in default of bail to Tothill-fields prison, by the Bow-street Magistrates, on the depositions of Miss Angela Burdett Coutts, who attended the office with her father, and swore she apprehended violence from his constant persecution of her. Mr. Dunne on this occasion was outrageous, having torn the informations, and assaulted the police officer.

The concern of Messrs. Clarke, flour factors, Brunswick-street, Cork, was robbed by burglars on Wednesday morning, of so large a sum, they say, as £4,500, including 600 sovereigns, and two bank notes of £100 each.

The works of the Dublin and Drogheda railway are in progress.

The Mendicity Asylum, Dublin, received from Lord Normanby for Christmas day dinner, a fat ox with two ton of potatoes.

Lord Lismore's "bucks" at the Clonmel registry sessions, have been rejected.

The ladies and gentlemen attending the House of Industry, on Christmas day, were deeply gratified at the circumstance of beholding 540 paupers supplied with an abundant breakfast of bread and new milk, and subsequently partaking of an excellent dinner of beef and mutton, soup, with porter, &c. provided by their generous benefactors. The Mayor, as guardian of the Charity, enjoyed the gratifying spectacle. Alderman Watson, Treasurer, hopes to give those grateful poor creatures another dinner on New Year's day, and, perhaps, equally good. One hundred and twenty of the most destitute inmates were supplied with new warm clothing on Christmas day.

In our review of the improvements in the City of Limerick, last post, we omitted to state that a new Savings' Bank is about to be erected in Upper Mallow-street, in the vicinity of the new Provincial Bank, who are Treasurers to that establishment. The foundation stone will be laid in March.

The Hon. Richard Fitzgibbon, Lord Lieutenant of this County, has remitted per Stephen Dickson, Esq. the sum of £40 sterling, to the undermentioned Charities, viz.:

House of Industry, ..	£10 0
Mendicity, ..	5 0
Fever Hospital, ..	5 0
Magdalen Asylum, ..	5 0
County Infirmary, ..	5 0
Lying-in-Hospital, ..	5 0
Christian Schools, ..	2 10
Convent Schools, ..	2 10

New Pallas Petty Sessions in our next.

"A. B. C." and "T. L. V." in our next.

At Macmurrugh, the Lady of Charles Tottenham, Esq. of a daughter.
At Dundalk, the Lady of James Neale Macneille, Esq. of a daughter.
At Tunbridge Wells, the Lady Sarah Taylor, of a son.
At Cumberland-terrace, Regent's Park, Mrs. Macready, of a son.
At Harborough, the Hon. Mrs. William De Capell Brooke, of a son.
At Adelsthorp House, Lady Eleanor Cathcart, of a son and heir.
At Whittingham House, the Lady of Henry Arthur Herbert, Esq. of a daughter.
At Bargarvie, the Lady of Major-General Webster, E.I.C.S. of a son.
At the residence of her father, D. W. Eager, Esq. Mrs. George Bent, of Cincinnati, Ohio, of a son.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday, at her residence in the Crescent, beloved by her family and esteemed by her friends, Mary, widow of the late Ralph Ouseley, Esq. of this City, and step-mother of Sir R. Gore, and Sir William Ouseley.
At Netley Park, Mayo, of fever, the beloved wife of William Henry Knox, Esq. aged 23 years, sister of Mrs. John O'Grady, of Knockany, in this county.
On Monday, the 24th inst. at Mount Rivers, Newport, the seat of his brother-in-law, Richard Phillips, Esq. after a short illness, Frederick Holland, Esq. Ballyvoreen, near this City, Barrister-at-Law, for some years Chairman of the County Quarter Sessions' Court, during which he also presided under the Insurrection Act, with the Right Hon. Francis Blackburn, Ex-Attorney-General, when this district was declared in a state of disturbance. He was a truly amiable and worthy gentleman, respected and beloved by all ranks. As a husband, father and friend, none could exceed him—as a landlord, most considerate and indulgent. For his public duties in this County, Mr. Holland received the thanks of the Judges of Assize, and shortly after retired from the bar into private life, after filling with honor to himself, and satisfaction to the County, the chair of Assistant-Barrister. The family were totally unprepared for this sad bereavement, as he parted from them in perfect health a very few days before at Monkstown, Dublin, for a short visit to this part of the country, where the all wise hand of Providence arrested his earthly career.
At his residence, in Cork, on Wednesday morning, George R. Pain, Esq. of the high respectable firm of Pain, (Brothers,) Architects, a gentleman of the highest character in his profession, having left behind in the many splendid works he erected, for public and private use, a lasting memorial of his name, and of the eminence which he deservedly attained as a first-rate builder.
On the 24th inst. at Rutland-street, Mrs. Anne Locke, a lady whose life and death offered edifying testimony of all the virtues which religion, as in Christ Jesus, so powerfully illustrates.
At George's-quay, Mary, widow of the late Mr. John Dobbs, of this City, Printer.
Yesterday, at Birdhill, county Tipperary, aged 72, Robert Going, Esq. of Cragg, a very worthy gentleman, whose death is much lamented.
Mr. Thomas Bull, a respectable saddler and harness-maker, in this City, and grandson of the late Captain Bull, Prince of Wales Fencibles.
At Smyrna, aged twelve months, the daughter of the Rev. Wm. Bucknar Lewis, British Chaplain at that Port.
At the North Strand, Mr. John Malone, late of Mungret-street, grocer.
At Cottage, near Bruff, Thomas O'Grady, Esq.
At Brookdale, county Cork, the seat of his son-in-law, Arthur Ormsby, Esq. Robert Atkins, sen. Esq. late of Firville, Mallow. In Nenagh, Mr. William Frith.
At Clonakilty, Lucinda, relict of the late Wm. Norcott, Esq. In Trinity College, Louis Alexander Filgate, Esq.
In Carlow, Mary, relict of the late Richard Conway, Esq. many years Surveyor of Excise in that district.
At Ballinasloe, Frederick, the son of Doctor Heisse.
Mr. Nicholas Scollard, of Mallow-lane, Cork.
Mary, relict of Wm. Nunan, late of Keale, county Cork, Esq.
At Athlone, Edward Burne, Esq.
At an advanced age, Timothy Richard Janns, Esq. son of the late Rev. James Janns, Rector of Moor and Drum, and Incumbent of St. Peter's, Athlone.
In Galway, aged 7, Mathew, son of M. Langlands, Esq.
In Clonmel, Mrs. William King.
At Carrick-on-Suir, James O'Neill, Esq. an eminent painter.
In Cork, Frederick, son of William White, Esq.
At Newton Lodge, near Middlewich, Lieut. Banastre Henry Tarleton, 96th Regiment.
At an advanced age, at his residence, Caroline-row, Dublin, Robert Holmes, Esq.
At Eden-quay, Mr. Matthew Eaton.
Sophia, only daughter of Mr. Peter Labilliere, late of Drumcondra Terrace.
At Duncannon Fort, Dacre Hamilton, gunner in the Royal Invalid Artillery, aged 76 years.
In Baggot-street, Mary Anne, wife of R.F. Sargent, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.
At North Great George's-street, at an advanced age, Edward Coker, Esq. many years an eminent merchant in Dublin.
At Winston, Gloucestershire, the Rev. Sir Edwin Windsor Bayntun Sandys, Rector of Winston parish, only surviving son of Sir Edwin B. Sandys, of Miserden Park, Gloucester, Bart.
On the 22d inst. at Oxford-terrace, Hyde Park, aged 8 months, Maria Frances, the infant daughter of F.W. Russell, Esq.
At Maidenhead, Berks, in his 94th year, Sir William Herne. The Hon. Captain William Waldegrave, R.N. brother and heir presumptive to Lord Radstock.
At Cheltenham, the Hon. Catherine E. Pelham, widow of the Hon. Henry Pelham, uncle to the Earl of Chichester.
Capt. Johnson, of Sands.
At Lisson-grove, Edward Frederick Prendergass, Esq.
At Plymouth, Elizabeth, widow of Capt. John Blewitt.
Capt. Thomas Coe, R.N.
At Sidmouth, Anna, daughter of Lieut.-General Walker, late Royal Irish Artillery.
At Brighton, Mrs. Bevan, aged 91.
At St. John's-wood, Sarah, wife of Captain Richard Drew.
At Irvine-street, Edge-hill, John Cummins, Esq.
At Ayr, Quintin Kennedy, Esq. of Drumellan.
At Port Louis, Mauritius, senior Captain and Brevet Major Delhoste, 25th Regt. son of the late Major-General Delhoste.
At Hayti, St. Domingo, Patrick Bingham, Esq. M.D. formerly of Belfast.
At Ellingen, in his 72d year, Field Marshal Prince Wrede, the most distinguished officer in the Bavarian army, and a member of the Council of State.

Singing, (in class) Four Guineas.
and Harp, Six Guineas.
Harp, (only) Three Guineas.
Private Lessons in Singing, or Harp, Three Lessons for One Guinea.

A Prospectus may be had on application at the Academy, Newenham-street. Dec. 29.

Equity Exchequer.

James Worrall, Gent. Plaintiff.
Thomas Darby O'Grady, Administrator of Joseph Gubbins, Esq. deceased; and Robert Kerr D'Esterre, Defendants.
Bolton and Others, against Pigott and Others.
PURSUANT to order of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, made in this cause, on the 21st day of November 1838, I hereby require all persons having liens on the funds in Court to the credit of these causes, or having any right or claim in respect thereto, to come before me at my Chambers on the Inn's Quay, in the City of Dublin, on or before the first day of February next, and prove their respective demands, otherwise they will be precluded from any benefit arising from said order.
Dated this 22d Day of December, 1838.
ACHESON LYLE, S. R.
WILLIAM WORRALL, Attorney for the Plaintiff.
Dec. 29. No. 9, William-street, Dublin.

Charity Sermon.

THE ANNUAL CHARITY SERMON in aid of the MAGDALEN ASYLUM, will be Preached on SUNDAY, the 30th of December Inst. by the Rev. Mr. MURRANE, of St. Patrick's, in St. MICHAEL'S CHAPEL, at Half-past Two o'Clock.
The Ladies' Committee, in making this, their annual appeal, in behalf of the above Institution, refer its claims to public patronage on the interesting fact that it has, for a number of years, afforded religious and moral instruction, shelter, support and raiment to innumerable unhappy females, whom it has sent back to society, imbued with habits of virtuous industry.
Owing to the limited state of its Funds, it has resorted but for forty at a time, even these Funds being now exhausted, it rests with the Public to prolong its further blessings.
Were it necessary to add another word, it would be the melancholy fact, that, during the last year, many females, and some of a painfully tender age, have sought, and for want of room were denied its shelter, and were thus exposed to the further endurance of those evils which they sought to shun.
Donations from such as cannot attend, will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Right Rev. Dr. Ryan, the Very Rev. Drs. Hogan and Harrahan, the Preacher, Rev. Mr. Quaid, and the other Clergymen of the City.
December 22.

MARRIAGES.

In Donnybrook, William John Neligan, Esq. of Tralee, to Mary Hamilton, daughter of Joseph Abbott, Esq. Gloucester-street.
Robert M. Jeffrey, Esq. R. N. to Mary, daughter of the late John Brown, Esq. of Cork.
In Belfast, William, eldest son of James Shields, Esq. of House, Meath, to Eleanor, only daughter of the late Wm. Waring, Esq. Surgeon R.N.
Henry O'gan, Esq. to the daughter of the late John Turner, Esq. of Cork.
In Maheraculmony Church, the Rev. Richard Stainforth, Pontefract, grandson of the late Sir Francis Baring, Bart. nephew of Lord Ashburton, to Henrietta Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. William Atthill, of Ardess, Fermanagh, Prebendary Clogher, &c.
At Brinny Church, William Connor Sullivan, Esq. of Bandon to Dora, daughter of Richard Cresilian, Esq. of Bandon.
James M'Entire, Esq. of Eary, county Tyrone, to Eliza, second daughter of Robert M'Entire, Esq. of Dublin.
In St. Andrew's Church, Harrison Nason, M. D. of Newtown Lodge, county of Cork, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Simpson, Esq. of College-green.
At St. Peter's Church, Warner W. Gray, Esq. late of the 1st Light Infantry, son of William W. Gray, Esq. J.P. late of Rye Brook House, Queen's County, to Meliora, daughter of the late William Thompson, Esq. of Roscommon.
At Ann's Church, Thos. A. Bailey, of Esker, Queen's County, Esq. to Frances Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Capt. Whelan, of Shamrock Lodge, county Kildare.
At St. Marylebone, Count Gloyanni Salomos, of Zante, to Elizabeth, daughter of Sir George Tuite, Bart.
At St. George's, Hanover-square, Robert Lloyd, Esq. Liverpool, to Catherine Georgiana, daughter of William Tenison, Esq. of Lough Bawn, county Monaghan.
At Kingston Church, Portsmouth, Monsieur Edmond Jean to Louisa Ann Murray, daughter of the late Lord Crumlin.
At Daventry, Henry Lipscomb, Esq. of Bath, brother of the Bishop of Jamaica, to Frances Mary, daughter of the late Rattray, Esq. M.D.
Lieut. Wm. Jervis, 42d Regt. Bengal N.I. to Mary, daughter of the late Captain Dobbie, R.N. of Saling Hall, Essex.