

certain journals, which perhaps would feel. He invited them to and felt happy there was noerrick. The meeting broke up to the Rev. Mr. Gregg pro-ell, Esq., Tervoe.

before Counsellor Shaugh-ordered to find securities in Henry R. Orpen, to fight a to John Falvey, an attorney's notes of Counsellor Shee Labor-ation!

customs board there is but one d that is a son of the Chancel-out of seventeen.

eat Coach Proprietor, has re- Society, in consequence of ing lodged in the Tralee branch to the credit of Daniel O'Con-on which he repeatedly re-ator.

son, late Rector of Ennis, sermon, on Sunday, at the Excellency was present. The Archdeacon of Ardfert, preaches n Sunday next.

r of Divinity was conferred by the Rev. P. E. Moriarty, late Connor was installed Bishop at eptember.

s started a newspaper at Man-thern Star."

sheep stealer lately sentenced given by Lord Normanby has le, and is this week fully com-ery.

yan, of Gurtdrum, near Shan-s entered by nine armed men, some wearing apparel, and eat-supper previously to their partook of sans ceremonie.

ne inhabitants of Cork, on Sa-orial the Lord Lieutenant to y in the liberties. A vote of he sheriffs, for refusing the use he meeting.

stealing, were sentenced by eman, at Galway, to 7 years hough in type, must give way an urgent character.

Richard Murray Magee, Esq. son of the late Captain Thomas Magee, 48th Regt. to Elizabeth Barton, daughter of the late John Morton, Esq. of Glasgow.

At Marylebone Church, H. Richardson, Esq. to Lady Emily Kerr, sixth daughter of Lord Mark Kerr.

At Brecon, David Thomas, Esq. to Julia, daughter of the late Surgeon Batt, Royal Fusileers.

Counsellor John Macqueen, to the daughter of the late Rev. George Dealtry.

At St. James's, London, Peter Burrell, Esq. to Fanny, daughter of William Jones Burdett, Esq.

In Glasgow, James Thompson, Esq. to Agnes, daughter of the late Archibald Constable, Esq.

W. H. Bessy, Esq. of Yarmouth, Norfolk, to Jane Frances, daughter of Lieutenant de Montmorency, of Greenwich Hospital, and grand niece of the late Lord Frankford de Montmorency.

DEATHS.

In Nicholas-street, Sarah, widow of the late Mr. Thos. M'Auliffe, of Mary-street, Bookseller and Printer.

At Palace Ann, Bandon, aged 91, the seat of her son-in-law, Arthur B. Bernard, Esq. Mrs. Elizabeth Beamish.

In Cork, aged 76, John Caesar, Esq.

The wife of Edward Barry Downing, Esq.

The daughter of Chief Constable Somerville, of Cork.

On Saturday night, at Goulburn Lodge, near Abbeyfeale, Wm. Harnett, Esq. Medical Student, and brother to Patt Harnett, Esq. M.D. of Sydney, N.S.W. The premature death of this amiable young man, who, in the 21st year of his age, has been torn away by a rapid consumption from his fond and admiring family circle, has plunged his relatives and friends into the deepest affliction. His manners were conciliating, his moral principles pure, and with these recommendations he did not fail to win and secure the good opinion and esteem of all who knew him.

Yesterday, at the Ordnance House, William-street, much regretted, Thos. Lloyd, Esq. acting store-keeper of this City.

Mary, daughter of Mr. Thomas Bluett, of Cork.

In Cork, John Daunt Goold, Esq.

At Chelsea, Eliza, daughter of Colonel D'Aguilar.

In Cork, Samuel, son to Mr. James Gummins.

At Gurteen, Kilkenny, E. John Cody, Esq.

In Cork, Sarah, daughter of Capt. Spread, R.N.

At the residence of his father, in Kildare, Peter Wilkinson Led-wich, Esq.

Mr. John Todd, of Newry.

At Fivoli, Cork, Mrs. James Fagan.

Captain Gibbons, late 23d Light Dragoons.

The Hon. Mrs. Bridgman Simpson.

At Dreually, Maria, daughter of Sir W. Parke, of the county Sligo.

Aged 80, General John Maclean.

At Strabane, after a long and painful illness, Miss Galbraith.

In Dominick-street, of apoplexy, in his 72d year, Gustavus Meredith Warner, Esq.

John Adair, Esq. Commercial Buildings, and Bellegrave, in the Queen's County.

At Lower Mount-street, Hannah, relict of the late Thomas Santelle Roberts, Esq. of Dublin.

Fanny, wife of George Howell, Esq. of Dublin.

By a fall from his horse, Stratton Marsham, Esq.

At Ammondel, the Countess of Buchan.

Doctor Landon, Dean of Exeter, brother of the lamented L.E.L.

The Earl of Carnwath, Major-General.

In Liverpool, Mr. Thomas Kelly.

At Hastings, Rose, wife of Robert Blake Byass, Esq.

Elizabeth, daughter of John Cooper, Esq. Ordnance Tower.

At Brighton, Catherine Constancia, wife of J. C. Michell, Esq.

At Brighton, Mary, relict of the late Samuel Marshal, Esq.

Resolved—"That of Ireland, sufficient afforded to persons of instruction in many cially in the natur sciences, it is the dut this part of the Ki Collegiate Institution ed in other countrie the various branches and economical term

Proposed by John by Samuel Dickson,

Resolved—That the Collegiate Institution State and of the Dist existence, appears to provided the amount taxation be limited to nance, and that a due controul be reserved to represent the local such institutions."

Proposed by Vered by William Howly

Resolved—"That establishing such a to be made a fundam should be adopted, fo its administration an to any denomination whilst strict attention their own communio Students, as a part College, no interfere tenets by persons of permitted."

Proposed by Sir L seconded by Caleb P

Resolved—"That most central point th to the Province of M Province of Connaug become an eligible sit

Proposed by Sir D conded by William I

Resolved—"That Petitions to both Ho been read, be approv

Proposed by Josep by John M'Mahon, I