

to be sworn; there
 ed and one rejected.
 tered. The Limerick
 urday next.
 this City yesterday eached on Sunday in Parochial School, to a egation. His text was in the evening from The collection in the the evening collection y, the Rev. Gentleman ing House, to persons address was received ause. He dwelt with rs' residence with the steadfast attention to cepts, he illustrated as of this country. Their scriptures had made embers of society, while of Ireland, thro' ignoded, miserable and vici-guire's retreat from the ould be always ready to any question connected enounced Popery as a erty of Ireland, and ad conversed recently Church of Rome, one of essional, betraying the ess, had not changed
 e Priest remonstrated, achree, sure I'm put-
 "—(Great laughter.)— easntry had the good tea, toast, beef, mutton Catholics confided in a worshipped, He told and the Priests were lead-gained many to the true him that a Priest had ex-nach, who flew off with a flash of fire (a laugh.)
 superstitious and absurd ated the congregation to e pure and reformed reli-Roman Catholics. He upholding the ancient eland, and deprecated on, as one of the worst antism. He advocated a stating that a Paper in principles, refused to stand n Father Maguire, advised in journals, which perhaps eel. He invited them to felt happy there was no
 . The meeting broke he Rev. Mr. Gregg pro-sq., Tervoe.

Kirkwall, Orkneys.

William Hobbs, Esq. of Cork, to Mary, daughter of the late Capt. Joseph Martindale.
 At St. James's, Westminster, Rowland Errington, Esq. son of Sir Thomas Stanley, Bart. of Hootan, Cheshire, to Julia, daughter of Lieut.-Gen. Sir John Macdonald, Adjutant-Gen. of the Forces.
 David Thomas, Esq. of Brecon, solicitor, to Julia Sophia, daughter of Thomas Batt, Esq. late Royal Fusiliers.
 At Cheltenham, John Bechler Hyndman, Esq. of Botley's Park, Surrey, to Caroline Seyliard, daughter of the late Henry Adams Mayers, Esq. of Redland, near Bristol.
 George, eldest son of the Rev. George Burrard, of Yarmouth, Hants, and nephew of Admiral Sir Harry Neale, Bart. to Isabella, only daughter of Sir G. Duckett, Bart.
 At Carlisle, Joseph Thauluson, Esq. of Liverpool, to Mary, daughter of Sir James B. Grant, K.H. of the Hill, Cumberland.
 Major Abraham Van Buren, eldest son of the President United States, to Sarah Angelica, daughter of Richard Singleton, Esq.
 North Carolina.
 At Patna, Bengal, Ensign Joseph Greenwood, 31st Regt. to Getherine, daughter of the late John Perroux, Esq. of Calcutta.

DEATHS.

At Milltown, near Charleville, Mr. Wm. Vaughan.
 At the Dyke House, Cork, after a short and severe illness, Isbella Eliza, daughter of the late Major General Sir Robert Travers, K.C.B.
 At Merrion-square, East, FitzPatrick Fitzgerald Fox, third son of the Baron de Robeck.
 Eliza, daughter of Mrs. Cleary, Clonmel.
 On the 9th inst. at Lower Dorset-street, aged nine years, John Daxon, youngest son of the Rev. William Bushe.
 At Dungarvan, George Lyttleton, fourth son of M. Crofton, Esq. of Longford House, county Sligo.
 At Lettybrook, King's County, the residence of her brother, John Head Drought, Esq. in consequence of the chimney having fallen into her bedchamber during the storm, Letitia, relict of James Broadstreet Elliott, Esq. of South Lodge, Tipperary.
 At Dunbar Cottage, Enniskillen, Mrs. Mary Finan, relict of J.
 Finan, Esq. of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment.
 In Nicholas-street, Sarah, widow of the late Mr. Thos. M'Anliffe, of Mary-street, Bookseller and Printer.
 At Palace Ann, Bandon, aged 91, the seat of her son-in-law, Arthur B. Bernard, Esq. Mrs. Elizabeth Beamish.
 At Rathmines, Mr. John Newbold, of Upper Merrion-street.
 Of influenza, Phoebe Ellinor, daughter of Samuel Warren, of Wellington-quay.
 Lieut. and Quarter-Master W. Browne, Londonderry Militia.
 Robert, son of Joseph Stephens, Esq. Lower Gardiner-street.
 At Chelsea, Eliza, daughter of Colonel D'Aguiar.
 In Cork, Sarah, daughter of Capt. Spread, R.N.
 At Tivoli, Cork, Mrs. James Fagan.
 John Rowland, Esq. of the Poor Law Commission Office, Se-merset House.
 At Clifton, John Archer, Esq. late of the 60th Rifles.
 At Swansea, aged 75 years, Mrs. Hatton, only surviving sister of John Philip Kemble, Esq. and Mrs. Siddons. As "Anne of Swansea" she was well known in the literary world.
 At Penzance, Joseph Nicholls, Esq. late Comptroller of Customs there.
 At Sidmouth, in her 92d year, Margaret, relict of the late Rev.
 John Bradford Coplestone, and mother of the Bishop of Islandall.
 At Allan Park, Stirling, Mary, the widow of Lieut.-Col. Ban-of Easter Livelands, Stirlingshire.
 At Barossa-place, Perth, aged 81, Miss Charlotte Knox.
 At Inverness, the Rev. Allan M'Kenzie, Minister, of Knockbain, Ross-shire.
 In Shoreditch, Thomas Wallis Whitaker, Commander R.N.
 At St. Ann's, Barbadoes, on the 19th Nov. last. of fever, Lieut.
 Gough, 52d Light Infantry.
 At Florence, the Rev. Hugh Rose, Principal of King's College.
 By suicide, at Ahmedabad, Mr. E. Gray, of the Bombay Civil Service.
 At Simlah, in Upper India, Jane Anne, wife of Captain Patrick Grant, Assistant-Adjutant-General of the Bengal Army.
 At Nagpoor, Major John Ross, of the 25th Madras Army, son of the late Rev. Dr. Ross, of Kilmanivaig.
 At Alexandria, George, son of the Rev. John Benn, Rector of Farringdon, Hants.

mounted by plate glass hundred rare specimens of superb Chimney Glasses, Javanese and Chinese Tab
 Easy Chairs, Rugs, Fende
 Library, Chimney Orna
 Tables; modern and m
 Drawing-Room and Parlo
 Crimson; Sideboard, S Tables inlaid with Satin W Four-post Bedsteads of t with handsome hangings; Moreen Curtains, Palliass
 Drawers, Wardrobes, Dre
 Carpets, Ottomans, Press Several costly articles of constructed without rega and providing all the e Sofas, Bedsteads, Easy Ch
 solid brass, and fitting int Nursery Furniture of est style; Hall Oil Cloths sites, Recherche Service o
 Several Hundred Ounces
 Plated Wares. Magnific
 Horns, measuring 15 fe Chicken Coops, Scullery, ells of all kinds, Pantry do WINES OF
 The celebrated 13 stone Horse, "Monarch," the w people chase, by Goblet (Ireland) Peeler, and fou some, with rare action, an highly bred and perfectly c several useful Horses and implements; a very powe in goal to Vestris, with a Handsome Open Carri Harness, Double Single Sables of the best make;
 THE Consists of In-calf and number of Pigs of a high well worth the attentio their interest to attend t (of Stock); about
 Potatoes, now invalua
 May; a quantity of pri &c. &c.
 The Sale will commenc day, and with the Hay es, the second day.
 * Approved Bills will Carriages will be om, Rathkeale, Mallov hasers to the Sale (wi JOSEPH & JAS. M
 Farming Repository,
 January 12.