DEATHS.

At Firgrove, in this county, William Adamson, Esq. formerly a magistrate for Limerick, Clare, and Tipperary.

On Sunday last, at Thomas-street, Margaret, wife of Doctor Knight Carey. Her memory will be long revered, for benevolence and charity were her characteristics.

In Glentworth-street, on Monday, Margaret, daughter of John Harrison, Esq. who died during his Mayoralty of this City.

At Mount Plummer, in this County, on Friday, the 11th inst.
 Jane Martha, the infant daughter of Brudenell Plummer, Esq.

Charlotte, wife of John Morphy, Esq. Seneschal of Killarney, and sister of Christopher Galwey, Esq. Her naturally strong constitution resisted for some time the malady by which she was assailed, but she yielded at length to its violence. Her children have to lament the loss of a parent who watched over them with earnest anxiety, and her husband one who, in his hours of illness, exhibited the deepest attention and solicitude.

Susan, daughter of the late Henry Baylee, Esq. of Loughgur.
 The Rev. Luke O'Connor, R. C. Curate, Killolla, Galway.

Friday, at her mother's house, in Glentworth-street, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Lieut.-General O'Meara, and grand-daughter of Sir Joseph Peacocke, Bart. deceased. She departed this life, as she lived, "rejoicing in her Lord." Her last words were "to die is gain." We are concerned to hear that this amiable lady's death was hastened by severe cold, taken the night of the late storm.

At Dingle, Mr. Mathew Moriarty.
 In Dingle, Mr. Richard Harris, chief boatman of the Coast Guard on that station.

At Oldtown, county Tipperary, in the 74th year of her age, Elizabeth, wife of Theophilus Bennett, Esq.

At Castlebellingham, aged 80, Lucy, daughter of the late Allan Bellingham, Esq.

The son of Mr. William James Shaw, of Kilnap Glen.
 At Glen Abbey, the Rev. Langer Carey.

At Cove, Mary Ann, daughter of Mr. Thomas Bluett.
 Hannah, widow of the late Thomas S. Roberts, Esq. Waterford.

At Waterford, Sarah, daughter of Mr. John Waters.
 At Ballyshannon, Mr. Michael Cassidy, sen.

James, son of the late Henry George Wyse, of Cork, Esq.
 Suddenly, Lieut.-Colonel James Nicholson, Woolwich division Royal Marines.

At the Isle of Wight, the Rev. D. M. Mitchell, of Litmoy, co.
 Longford, and Rector of Quinton, Northamptonshire.

At Cheltenham, Miss Seward, only daughter of the late Lieut.-
 General Seward.

At Sloane-street, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Doctor Baillie, Deputy Inspector-General of Army Hospitals.

At Norfolk's Clare, Suffolk, R. Territt, Esq. Captain Northamptonshire Militia, and late of 3d Dragoons.

At Birstal House, Leicestershire, John Mansfield, Esq. formerly Representative for the Borough of Leicester.

At St. Andrew's, Ann Julia, only daughter of the late Captain George Keir, of the 22d Dragoons.

At Lisbon, Charles Higgs, Esq. a merchant of that city.
 Agnes, wife of the Rev. Dr. Moore, Vicar of St. Pancras.

In Park-place, Stoke, aged 90, the Rev. John Strode Foot, of Toor, Plymouth, and Vicar of Liskeard, Cornwall.

In George-street, Hanover-squares, Miss Wingfield, aged 66.
 Mr. Ellis, wife of the Rev. William Ellis, late Moravian Minister of Ayr.

At Kirkmichael, Daniel M'Phun, late of the 12th Regt.
 At Kilmarnock, Mr. John Henderson, innkeeper.

At the Mauritius, J. Cressett Pelham, Esq. late M.P. for Salop.
 Washed overboard during the late storm, while on his voyage home from St. Michael's to Bristol, aged 19 years, Edward, only son of the late Captain Edward Butler, 37th Regt.
