

an it was ever in before. Independent jurors, who, ed for an act of strict promptly entered their two murderers, though, hat the diabolical instiga- ould have himself evaded in becoming the principal f his two nefarious instru- der, and he set the blood- s: but this odious wretch himself from the scene of all was right and sure. n this murder, and easily d to execute the deed of ave received judgment at em is dead, the last and the run" as his wicked ac- rial occupied three days, a most unusual circum- and important inquiry, at e court, the jury were gings for the night! What- alt, if one of these twelve y an unforeseen accident k?—and this might have the county Tipperary—we oceeding against both pri- nought! What a dilemma wn Lawyers, who absolutely rovidentially we are spared and disappointment, but cted to three days might o.

closure was made in course cannot omit noticing, as us with amazement when A countryman overheard e murder at a public-house of the 1st April last, when ned. Returning home he ith whom he was intimate, road communicated to him hich he became possessed of. s importance, reported the , to his superior officer, and is duty, How far that re- rmed, or if any precautions e, but, in three days after, perpetrated, and the two a conspiracy, which might birth, and thus would two d to their families, and to acts which came out on the hich arises from a considera- s, is obvious to all. It is Royse, Carrol Naish, Lieut.-Col. John Dickson, Thos. Davenport, Burke White, Thomas Royse, George Mears Maunsell, and George Fosbery, Esqrs.

The Metropolitan Conservative Society—Hon. T. Butler in the chair—has passed a deserved vote of thanks to Lords Charleville and Oxmantown, for their exposition before the King's County Magistrates, on the murder of Lord Norbury.

The late Earl of Norbury was married in 1808 to Elizabeth, daughter of William Brabazon, and first cousin of Sir Wm. Brabazon, Bart, M.P. for Mayo, and Lady Teynham.

Crofton M. Vandeleur, Esq., has put down his name for £100, in the list of rewards for the discovery of the murder of his father-in-law, Lord Norbury; Major Drought, 15th Regt. £5.

John Carthy died in hospital yesterday of the effects of a compound fracture in the leg, which injury he sustained in a quarrel with one Michael Shannahan of this City, from the blow of a stone-hammer on the Long Dock.

Mr. James Patterson, of Kilrush, in the discharge of his duty as agent for Lloyds, having frequently opposed frivolous and exorbitant claims of salvage upon the underwriters, has excited the animosity of some individuals, who have maliciously and industriously circulated a false report of his being superseded, which we are requested to contradict, and to state that he continues to hold the appointment of Lloyd's agent at the port of Kilrush.

James Allan, a Protestant, was murdered at Gorey, on Tuesday.

The Court of Common Pleas refused this week to appoint an Attorney, Commissioner of Affidavits.

The Agricultural and Commercial Bank have not agreed to advance the necessary funds to construct a canal to the Shannon from Nenagh; but the Directors, from their great desire to benefit that rising Town by facilitating so desirable an object, on the application of the leading Gentlemen of the Committee stated their willingness to discount the bills of the Subscribers to a moderate amount, if the Board approved of their solvency.

Our readers will be glad to find, on referring to the advertising columns, that the Bankruptcy issued against our fellow-citizen, Francis Philip Russell, Esq. has been superseded, and his Honour the Commissioner, expressed great pleasure in being able to do so.

The friends of Mr. O'Connell, in Cork, assembled on Monday, and passed a vote of confidence in their patron, after the letter of Mr. Peter Purcell, arraigning the disposal of the Precursor fund. Mr. William Crawford was Chairman.

M. Ryan, Collector to the Mendicity, acknowledges £3 from the Right Worshipful the Mayor, which he handed to the Treasurer for that Institution.

prisoner; I saw the other was arrested by my com- prisoners); only two were

Cross-examined by great number of persons them on the road, even knew any charge against not extraordinary that saw the police with five were on a bad intent.

Roger Fogarty, policeman of Murphy, and found with him a tached to the handle of pistol and reaping-hook.

Chief-Constable Cox stated that at the time several outrages had been where they resided. had been stopped on the men, and an unlawful the 9th July, the house of Murphy, was surrounded month of August, a house of Kennedy, was burnt down reported; also, the house was attacked, several notices served.

The Jury immediately against both prisoners

John Hackett and V for appearing in arms, unlawful oath to John Cross, on the 17th July

The Solicitor-General observing that the offence so serious in prompt interposition transgressors. It was of "white boy offence" previously committed character, as that of it was in the next day had engaged the at length of time, as it was the landlord exercising property, to which learned gentlemen the which are detailed in

John Scully, Esq. this county, and res named Judith Cody her with notice to qu way from Cashel on ten o'clock in the morning pathway, two men le