

relative happiness of
unhappiness of the other,
existence of Protestantism,
ple in the former, and the
er.
g were given to the Mayor
d much pleased with the d of the working of the
ions amounted to £10 9s.

LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
rrah Chase, Jan. 24, 1839.
Mr. Monsell's letter to
l, however unintentionally,
d assisted in preparing the vincial College: this, so far inconsistent with the fact,
ty, that he had not seen it
lic prints.
ls upon another point. I l and many others joined vision. My meaning and l had been made, in due
rmal reply from the chair,
o doubt that, as Mr. Mon-
be to convey just impres-
ation will prove generally
y obedient Servant,
A. DE VERE.

at Pera, Constantinople,
e by the Rev. Dr. Bennett,
by the late storm at Cros-
houses fell upon them.
. eldest son of Samuel
as called to the bar at the n inst.
ne Convent, near Ennis,
ring their establishment to ken a large concern. The ofessed, and 25 boarders.
allas, county Galway, is s to us of the bad state of
own road, which compells
to proceed by Cahir.
d the "Medical Press,"
which promises to be a
the profession and the received.

At Wicklow Church, James Edwards, Esq. of Friar's-hill, in that county, eldest son of the late Colonel James Edwards, of Old court, grand nephew of the Marquis of Rockingham, to Frances, youngest daughter of the late Colonel Maingay, and niece of George Carroll, Esq. of Throp-arch, in the county of York.
In Strokestown Church, Godfrey Hogg, Esq. J. P. son of the late James Hogg, Esq. of Gillstown, J. P. to Ellen, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Knox, and niece to Colonel Knox, Prehen, Londonderry.
At Matloek, the Rev. Henry Banks Hall, Incumbent of Risley and Breaston, Derbyshire, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Rev. George Sanders, rector of Wollaton and Trowel, Nottinghamshire.
In Edinburgh, Wm. Todd, Esq. to Margaret, daughter of the late Captain Wm. M'Kenzie, of the 78th Highlanders.
At St. George's Church, Penang, George Waller, Esq. lately Secretary to Rear-Admiral Sir Frederick Maitland, K. C. B. the Naval Commander-in-Chief, to Harriett, daughter of the late Robert Scott, Esq. of Ceylon.
At Weston, Upper Canada, Samuel R. Odell, Esq. late of Odellville, in this County, to Amy, daughter of Samuel Harding, of Rocklodge, Esq.

DEATHS.

At the Mardyke, Cork, Edward William, aged 12 years, son of Mr. Easton, Port Surveyor of Customs.
In the 40th year of his age, on Sunday last, Very Rev. Charles Fahy, P.P. of Newmarket-on-Fergus. It would be difficult here to pourtray his many and solid virtues. He eminently possessed all the attributes of a good ecclesiastic. His innocent and social qualities endeared him to every circle. Pious without affectation, charitable without ostentation, gay without levity—he was exalted, but humble. At the last election for R. C. Bishop of Killaloe, his name was second on the list of three chosen. His parishioners and afflicted family will ever deplore so early a bereavement.
At Tralee, Mr. Anthony Paradine, Printer.
In Tralee, Mr. Henry Morgan, Baker.
At Outerard, Mrs. Lee, wife of Redmond Lee, Esq.
Letitia, daughter of P.H. Fitzgerald, Esq. of Rathmines.
In Grafton-street, Eliza, wife of Mr. Thomas Kelly.
At Larne, county of Antrim, Daniel Lauauze, Esq.
In Clare-street, Mr. William Whitestone. He survived his wife but sixteen days, (whose death was occasioned by the falling of a stack of chimneys during the fatal storm.) By their sudden deaths eight children have been deprived of their parents.
On Friday last, at Strancally Castle, Margaret, the beloved wife of John Kiely, Esq.
At Strokestown, George, son of the late Thomas Walsh, Esq. of Moat Park.
At Drumcondra Hill, Mr. Edward Alexander Carroll.
At Mount Pelier Parade, Mr. Henry Kyle, an eminent broker.
In Gardiner-street, Edward King, Esq. son of the late Sir Robert King, Bart. of Charlestown, Roscommon.
In Cork, Catherine, daughter of the late John Kennedy, Esq.
At Bantry, in the 88th year of her age, Mrs. Sophia M'Carthy.
In Skibberreen, of fever, the Rev. John O'Keeffe, R. C. C. in his 25th year.
At Formy Banks, near Liverpool, from cold and hunger, in the rigging of the brig Harvest Home, bound to St. Thomas's, Henry Parker, College-street, Dublin, Esq.; and William, son of John Magrath, Killough, county Down, Esq.
At Worthing, Acheson, son of the late Alex. J. Montgomery Moor, of Garvey, county of Tyrone, Esq.
In Gateshead, Northumberland, George Vicars, Esq. formerly Assistant-Barrister for the Queen's county.
At Lisburn, the Rev. Alexander Sturgeon, Wesleyan Minister.
P.C. Labouchere, Esq. father of the Master of the Mint, and of the celebrated London banker, in consequence of having broken a blood vessel.
At Kilmarnock, Lieut. Wm. Wyllie.
At Dawlish, Cyril William, son of the Rev. James Webber, Dean of Ripon.

description, compris
Clocks, Musical Boxe
sisting of Dishes and
Baskets, Cruet, Liqu
Reading Lamps, Ca
&c. a variety of G
Rings, Seals, Rings,
A quantity of Bu
lets, &c. which be
Gold; Dressing Cas
Cutlery; a variety o
miscellaneous article
To be Raffled for
of the handsomest
senting a full length
scribers at a Pound e
I. J. particularly to take Tickets for application, as the R
A few Tickets remain
To be disposed of,
Jenstein, of a Feast
William the Conque
square.
Agents for Jean M
Open from 10 till
THE BAND W
No Connexion wit

NEW TEA

Wa

JOSEPH ROBINS

have taken the C
20, PATI
Corner
FOR THE SALE
Wholesale and Retail
persuade themselves
the Public.
The expect to open
In soliciting a trial, t
mence this branch of able circumstances. T
and extensive Stock, t
Importations, and fro
have sold for the last
bined with their faeil
experience in the Tr
a good article at a mo
support they anticipa
ing their business, a
will, they hope, contr