COUNTY OF CLARE,

TO BE LET, from the 1st day of May next, for such term as may be agreed upon, the Lands of BINEANA, containing three hundred and ten Acres. These Lands lie along the River Shannon, in the Barony of Bunratty, all in Grass, and are as good as any in Ireland for fattening, meadow, or dairy. Application to JOHN McMAHON, Esq. Fitzroy, Bunratty. N. B.—The above will be let together or in two, or three divisions. February 16.

Important to the Public.

RADICAL CURE FOR CORNS,

Without Cutting, or the least Pain. DR. J. EISENBERGH, from Vienna, has the honour to announce to the Nobility, Gentry, and inhabitants of Limerick and its vicinity, that he understands the TOTAL ERADICATION OF CORNS, BUNIONS, NAILS, and every hard or soft substance on or between the toes, without cutting, by means of an Elixir of his own composition. The operation is performed in the short space of two minutes, without the least pain, and the patient may resume his dress and occupation, with the satisfaction of carrying the corn or root in his hand. Dr. J. E. is in possession of a great number of flattering testimonials granted to him in foreign parts, and by distinguished physicians and surgeons. He has also received several testimonials from respectable gentlemen in Sheffield, Leeds, Bristol, Bath, and other cities in England, whom he has perfectly cured, and which can be seen at his residence.

Dr. EISENBERGH engages if any person suffers pain in extracting his corn, to return the fee. Dr. E. respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of Limerick, and the public generally, that Corns once eradicated by him never grow again, as usually when operated upon by unskillful practitioners.

The Doctor will give attendance daily, from ten to one in the morning, and from two until seven in the evening, at his residence.

Dr. EISENBERGH begs to announce to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Limerick and its vicinity, that owing to numerous engagements in London, an early application to him is desirable. Dr. E. would also give this public advice to Ladies and Gentlemen labouring under corns, that on no account should they be cut; J. E. having had several cases where by being cut in the hopes of relief, they have really become more troublesome and difficult of extraction.

All letters post-paid will be instantly attended to. 18, PATRICK-STREET, ONE DOOR OFF DENMARK-STREET. February 16.

BY AUCTION.

ELECTION OF GUARDIANS OF THE POOR.

I DO hereby Certify, that I caused an Advertisement to be inserted in the LIMERICK CHRONICLE and Standard Newspapers of the 22d, 23d, 25th, and 26th days of January last, for Voters for Registration of Statements and Appointment of Proxies, as required by the 34th Section of the Poor Law Act for Ireland, and that on the 23d day of January aforesaid I caused Notices of the day of nomination to be affixed on the principal doors of the several Churches and Chapels, and other places of public worship throughout the said Union; and that I held a Meeting pursuant to said Advertisement and Notice at the Court-house, BRUFF, on the 30th day of January, at the hour of 10 o'Clock, for the purpose of declaring the lists of Candidates for the office of Guardian in the said several Divisions; that the Election was conducted in conformity to the order of the Poor Law Commissioners, and that the entries contained in the Schedule hereunder written are true.

Dated this 13th day of February, 1839. WM. N. RIGGS, Returning Officer.

TO THE VENERABLE ARCHDEACON HOARE. Reverend and Very Dear Sir—We cannot allow you to leave the City in which you have laboured with so much zeal and faithfulness, as a Minister of the Gospel, without expressing our feelings in reference to your departure from that sphere of duty, which you have so efficiently occupied amongst us. On your coming to this your native place, eight years since, we hailed the arrival of a representative of a family who had rendered themselves deservedly popular, by their unwearied benevolence and activity in the service of religion and charity, and various members of which had adorned, by their exemplary conduct, the doctrine which from the pulpit they so faithfully and ably delivered. Various charitable institutions, founded amongst us, continue to this day, monuments of the benevolent energy of character which distinguished your honored relatives, and you, likewise, leave behind you a lasting memorial of what may be achieved, under the divine blessing, by ardent zeal and unremitting perseverance, in the Asylum for Blind Females, and Episcopal Chapel, erected in this City.

We desire to record our debt of affectionate gratitude (under God) to you, for the means of grace supplied to us by the erection of that Chapel, from the pulpit of which you have been faithfully preaching the everlasting Gospel yourself, and have afforded to the congregation opportunities of hearing many able Ministers, and distinguished ornaments of the Established Church, proclaim the same truths. We cannot conclude, without offering you our warmest congratulations on your preferment, and in the new sphere of duty to which you are about to be removed, we trust that your ministerial labours may prove useful, under the divine blessing, in turning many from darkness to light, and in the edification and comfort of believers.

Wishing that every happiness, temporal and spiritual, may attend you wherever you go, We remain, Rev. and Dear Sir, YOUR FAITHFUL AND AFFECTIONATE FRIENDS (Here follow the Signatures.)

To the Committee of the Limerick Asylum Episcopal Chapel.

My dear Friends—I have been much gratified by receiving your kind Address, for which I beg you will accept my sincere thanks. During the period of my ministry, in my native City, it was always my desire to keep in remembrance the example of those revered relatives to whom you allude in such flattering terms, and to follow them, as they followed CHRIST. I preached amongst you the same truths, and I endeavoured to advance the same objects, being those which the christian Minister should ever keep in view—the promotion of the glory of God, and the spiritual and temporal welfare of his fellow-men. In the pursuit of these objects I am conscious of manifold shortcomings, but I trust, I can with truth say, I earnestly desired the spiritual welfare of the congregation committed to my charge.

You allude to the Episcopal Chapel, and Asylum for the Blind, which I was the humble, but honored, instrument of erecting in the City of Limerick—we have, indeed, abundant cause for thankfulness for the success with which it has pleased God to crown our united efforts for this object. I trust, that with the divine blessing on the means of grace provided in that Chapel, it will afford cause for gratitude at all times, that we have built that House of Prayer; and I pray that the blessing of God may ever rest upon the present, and each successive, Minister and Congregation, who shall therein meet to unite in the service of God—that the Minister may ever be enabled, faithfully, to preach the truth, as it is in JESUS, and that the people may, in all humility of mind, receive with meekness the ingrafted Word, which is able to save the soul.

With many thanks for your good wishes, and earnest prayer for your spiritual and temporal welfare, and for that of the Congregation at large, I remain, my dear friends, Ever your faithful and affectionate Friend, EDWARD N. HOARE. Vicar's Hall, Clane, Jan. 24.
