

Hotel, Cork, on Thursday night.
The 25th Regiment at Cork, have not yet received any orders to embark for Chatham, as erroneously reported elsewhere. Nothing is known beyond what we briefly stated on the 2d inst. ;—" The 25th will go from Chatham to New South Wales, before the 96th."

The 27th Regt. have sent a recruiting party to Adare, the 87th Fusiliers to Charleville, and the 19th to Tulla, where the latter have picked up a number of young fellows, amongst whom are four tailors—by no means an incumbrance to the Staff of a Regiment.

The recruiting party of the 40th Regt. left Ennis, yesterday, for Chatham, having been called in to the Depot, after raising 35 recruits.

The entire of the 8th Hussars will be stationed in Dublin next month.

The Master-General of the Ordnance has ordered Capt. Forbes of the Royal Engineers, at present in England, to do duty in this country.

The 22nd have been in Ireland since they landed from Jamaica in the Spring of 1837, and their next move will be to the sister country.

It is in contemplation to light the Royal Barracks, Dublin, with gas.

The first division of the 69th, which landed at Halifax from Barbadoes, were under command of Captain Thomas.

Two companies of the 36th Regt. had left Frederickton for Arestoogh, on the Maine, by order of Sir John Harvey. The New Brunswick Militia were on the march for the same quarter. The remainder of the 36th, and the Royal Artillery, had been ordered up from St. John's to Frederickton.

James M'Donald, a soldier in the 99th regiment, stationed at Shannon Bridge, fell over the battlements of the bridge on Wednesday night, and after struggling for some time was unfortunately drowned.

Major Huey, Captain Gillman, Lieuts. Ouvry, and Wyane, are on the list of Stewards for the Waterford fancy ball.

Mr. Tuckwell, Band-Master of the 12th Regt. has been obliged to return from the Mauritius, in consequence of the climate not agreeing with his health, much to the regret of the Colonel and the whole of the Officers.

Sir Henry Bethune, a Captain in the East India Company service, and a Major-General in Persia, is assisting the Schah in his warlike indications against England. Yet this officer has a salary of £2000 a year from our Government!

The curates of the Right Rev. Dr. Kiernan, of Kilmala, did not attend the funeral of a member of Major Moore's family, late 78th Regt. because that gentleman would not allow a collection under the name of burial offerings, on that occasion.

Edward Jones, Esq. is promoted to a company in the South Gloucester Militia, vice Mason, resigned.

and found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to be transported for seven years each.

Four men were taken this morning, for turning up a ter, in this county, and a man named Carmody.

Chief Constable Clem bank post bill, stolen from shopping last week.

Yesterday, Sub-Const Police, detected a forged £1, number 40,498, dated J. Hutton. The executioners at fairs and markets.

The Stipendiary Magistrate whose salary is limited by Government to place the London functionaries, year, and our Metropolitan considerably more business.

A man of the name of murdered at the late fair, barbarous assailants are.

The Spring Quarter Session commenced at Newcastle, and Fallon, Assistant-Barrister.

A poor woman in a street was taken out of the river into the Lunatic Asylum.

The Orange Protestants met on Tuesday, and read the reading was hailed by the leaders warmly rebuked the repetition of. The society.

Williams & Co. in Dublin to enlarge Ennis gaol.

At a general meeting of the In Hospital, Doctor Dan attendant, in place of Dr.

The partnership of Dr. dissolved.

Mr. Marshall, this week Durrow, the residence of to the best advantage, tending who should have of a nobleman so univocally. Several persons were arrested at an auction was holding, and information to the Authorities.

At the great shew of the prize for best saved Barton, of Straffan, Esq.

The proposals for building in this city, are to be decided on which day the contract advertisement.