

a poor man named Denis rned out of his cabin and small Col. Wyndham, townland of empted in a fit of despair to ence, by hanging himself from e, which he effected by stand-ket, while he was fixing the and then threw himself off.
discovered by his poor wife ad the presence of mind to while another neighbour suc-own, before life was extinct.

RESPONDENCE.
[BERICK CHRONICLE.]

London, May 4.
shed from all parts of England artists, are of the most serious aining, pike making and arms ven in the day time with im-influential men among the es from the different towns in orth of England, assembled der Lyne, in Lancashire, and er—so much so as to find its ers, reported each the state ers of men capable of fight-hich arming had been carried! exhibition has aroused the of the danger, and to the ng from several directions to insurrection. At the Privy roclamation was drawn up and last night, against arming and that both have been carried safety of the peace. Seven en in the act of drilling under and their Serjeant is an e of Edward Riley. On tional Petition," stuffed with the most fierce ultra-radicals he charge of Mr. Attwood, and when he shall name a will be the time for the exersound discretion, for then it hartists have fixed to enforce day next the Chartist have be held in Copenhagen fields, use, and as there will be an e it, which the Chartists say resist, bad work may be Conservative member for g, and will take his seat on
"S. R."

At Clare, the Rev. William Henry, youngest son of the Rev. Barrington Bloomfield Syer, rector of Kedington and Wadingfield, county of Suffolk, to Elizabeth Mary, daughter of the late Samuel Croughton, Esq. of Clare, in the above county.
Mr. J. S. Jones, commercial-traveller for the Ballincollig Royal Gunpowder Mills Company, to Maria, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Jones, Welchpool.
At St. Vincent, on the 12th of March, John Doyle O'Brien, Esq. Captain 70th Regiment. and Deputy Assistant Quarter-master General, in the West Indies, to Helen, second daughter of Alexander Cumming, Esq. of Rabaca.
At New York, the Hon. Arranvanderpole, Member of Congress for the State of New York, to Ellen, daughter of James M'Bride, Esq. of Dublin.

DEATHS.

In Charleville, on Monday last, of fever, in the 30th year of his age, John Wallis, Esq. M.D. universally and deservedly regretted. His patriotic disposition, and his energetic labours to remove existing abuses where he saw medical reform necessary, in addition to a successful practice, and untiring attention to the poor of that district for six years, caused his premature death to be a source of deep affliction to his family, and unfeigned regret to his numerous friends.
At Kinsale, on the 3d instant, Launcelot Kelly, Esq. Barrack-Master of Kinsale and Charles Fort, aged 69 years.
In Henry-street, aged 19 years, Robert, son of Mr. Richard Barry, Inspector of butter.
In John's-square, Mrs. Kent.
In the Lunatic Asylum, Mrs. Ann Carey, wife of Mr. Patrick Carey, of Cornwallis-street.
Tuesday, at Thomondgate, in her seventh year, Gertrude Matilda, the beloved child of Mr. P. Kenyon.
Ellen Amelia, second daughter of Thomas Kirwan, Esq. Well Park, Drumcondra, county Dublin.
At Lissglassick, county of Longford, John Robinson Robinson, Esq. aged 73 years.
In Marlborough-street, Mr. George Gonne.
At Sandybrook, near Ballyconnel, at an advanced age, Mrs. Patterson.
Archibald Johnstone, Quarter-master Sergeant, Londonderry Militia, aged 75 years; he served in the Regt. 36 years as a non-commissioned officer.
At Old Park, county of Antrim, Henry Lyons, Esq.
Mr. John Coyle, aged 18 years.
At Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. John Leader.
In Molesworth-street, Elizabeth Shewbridge, wife of William F. Montgomery, Esq. M.D.
The Rev. John Maguire, for many years P. P. of Ards.
At the house of her brother-in-law, James Langley Bankes, Esq. Upper Bedford-place, Russell-square, London, Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late Robert Lloyd, Esq. formerly collector of Excise in Liverpool.
Aged 86, Mr. Maurice William Keating Dowling, father of the Commissioner of Police, Liverpool.
Rachel, eldest daughter of the late James Arthur Mayne, Esq. late of Hardwicke-place.
At Whichmore Hill, David Todd, Esq. late superintending Surgeon of the East India Company's Bengal military service.
The Marquis de Semonville, Honorary Referendary of the Chamber of Peers, France. In coming down the stairs at Mrs. Ellice's, in Paris, he fell with such force that he fractured his skull, and died instantly.
At Malta, Richard Wellesley Barlow, Esq. Bengal Civil Service, son of Sir George H. Barlow, Bart. G. C. B.
At Cheltenham, the Rev. Robert Harkness, Rector of East Brent, Somersetshire, and son of the late William Harkness, Esq. of Dublin.
On the 22d January, at St. James's Barracks, Barbadoes, Dr. Orr, of the 89th Regiment, aged 46 years. leaving a widow and family to deplore his loss.

10th May.
Mr. Freeman app
ou Saturday last, f
of 100 Rate Payers, the last Assizes for rick, together with selected by the Gra associated with the M Mr. Freeman's appl davit of Mr. James Jury of said city, i Rate-payers, witho
prescribed by law,
sections of the Act o perative on Grand J payers from the re
defeating the objec
those persons unre
amount of taxes.
passing the Present
sence of the Forema objection was made self a Rate-payer.)
Jury, on which Bar
were bound to selec
list of 100—and afte
of two gentlemen
the Jury to arrange
ing to their room;
and promised to do.
with the Grand Jury
twenty highest on th were to nominate t asserted had been e direction—but on re tained that said Jury formity with their o mand of the Judge, names struck off by that said Jury placed name of one gentlem on the list, and to
"That the Judge w
the subject but havi
that he had then no
The Court of Que importance of this u
siderable discussion, in the Term, they co remain over till the consideration."
Will any one after porate Reform" or t
unnecessary instituti
in our City, at least