DEDICATED TO GEN. LORD HILL, G.C.B. &c.
Now ready, embellished with a fine Portrait of the Duke, after Sir T. Lawrence, Part I. price 2s. 6d. of THE LIFE OF FIELD MARSHAL HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON, Embracing his Military, Civil, and Political Career to the present time.
EDITED BY SIR JAMES E. ALEXANDER, K. L. S. &c.
To be completed in Twelve Monthly Parts, at 2s. 6d. each, beautifully embellished with Portraits, &c. by Landseer, Watson, Landells, &c.
No period of modern history lays claim to more absorbing interest, or is susceptible of richer illustration, than that of the celebrated wars in which the great Captain of his age has shone with such distinguished lustre. To treat with success the numerous important matters essentially connected with the career of such a man, required combined effort. This plan of co-operation has accordingly been adopted, and the entire work, thus fully prepared, from exclusive as well as from open sources, is now presented to the public; and the publisher trusts that he is not too sanguine in his expectation of its proving one of the most comprehensive, interesting, and popular works of its class.

GRANTED FOR GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND.
INVALUABLE ACQUISITION TO ALL
Families and Invalids.
MAW'S NEWLY INVENTED PATENT DOMESTIC MEDICAL MACHINE for preserving the alimentary canal in a healthy state by means of injections of simple warm water only—of an entirely new and most convenient construction, requiring no preparation beyond the mere act of opening the Instrument, nor are chairs and basins required as in other apparatus. The following is one of the numerous testimonials which are appended to the descriptive particulars. To be obtained of Mr. Stevenson (as a single post letter when required.)
"To Messrs. J. & S. MAW.
"London, 13, Finsbury-Square.
"Gentlemen,—Irrespective of the claims which you have on every individual, and on every head of a family, I feel that as a medical man I am called upon to say how deeply the public stand indebted to you for your recent improvements in the Domestic Glycer Syringe. I have long considered your apparatus as the most simple and efficient one in use, and if any thing were wanting to bring it yet nearer to perfection it has been accomplished in the Instrument now before me, and which displays no ordinary ingenuity, and adaptation to the purpose for which it is designed.
"National prejudice and delicacy (falsely so called) are fast giving way to the general use of the Lament, and the ignorance and stupidity which led to the exhibition of drastic purgatives by the mouth, and which needlessly and injuriously stimulated nine-tenths of the alimentary canal, cannot fail to yield to the universal employment of an Instrument so essential to health and comfort.
"Your's respectfully,
"S. J. CONQUEST, M. D.
"F.L.S. &c. Lecturer on Midwifery at St. Bartholomew's Hospital."
With the view of bringing this invaluable machine into more general use, the price is now only £2. 2s.
J. & S. MAW are also the actual manufacturers of every description of Surgical Instruments, &c. &c. embracing:—
Amputating Instruments, Stethoscopes,
Cupping do. Splints,

WILLIAMSTADT is situated on Lough Derg, opposite Dromineer, which is only 4½ miles from Nenagh, and within two miles of the Post Town of Mountshannon; it commands a most extensive view of the Lake and the Shannon; the Steamer passes close to its shore and from Limerick and Dublin; Public Car runs daily between it and Ennis. THE HOUSE, which is large, consists of Parlour, Drawing Room, and Five Bed Rooms, together with Servants' Apartments—Kitchen, Pantry and Dairy. The Out-offices are extensive, in a well enclosed yard. The Land is of prime quality for Meadow, Dairy, or Tillage. There is a great facility of obtaining Manure, the Shore abounding in Marl, and the Land in Limestone; and from the trifling expense of sending Cattle or any Farm Produce to the Dublin or Limerick markets, by the Steam Company's Boats, (whose landing quay is within ten minutes walk of the House.) this situation and Farm offer advantages seldom to be met with.
Application (if by letter post-paid) to be made to Doctor SAMSON, Williamstadt, Mount Shannon.
