

...in torrents, with the impetuosity of
 ...the flashes of lightning large and
 ...like sheets of liquid flame—the thunder
 ...loud, and rapid: varying in effect from the
 ...continuous discharge of musketry to the peal of the ...richest ordnance. During this dread visitation, we
 ...remembered to have seen the city enveloped
 ...such profound darkness at noon tide.

The first stone of the new Savings Bank House was
 ...laid this day at one o'clock, by the Mayor, upon
 ...which occasion the workmen were regaled with a
 ...cup of porter, and immediately after the wor-
 ...Secretary entertained the Mayor, Trustees and
 ...to luncheon. This excellent institution has
 ...of material benefit to the industrious classes
 ...its establishment in Limerick, and the amount
 ...deposits now averages £105,000, a degree of pros-
 ...perity which reflects the highest honor on the revered
 ...memory of the truly benevolent founder and patron of
 ...charity, the late Robert Maunsell, Esq. of Bank-

 ...ve member, out of the county Armagh.

...Thomas Fennessy, a farmer, 60
 ...years of age, returning from the fair of Caher, was
 ...brutally and barbarously murdered at Rochestown,
 ...a ferocious miscreant of the name of Devereux,
 ...attacked the poor man with a shovel or spade,
 ...nearly severed his head from the body. The
 ...murderer was pursued by two young men of the name
 ...of the Police.

...Major-General Ellice, accompanied by his Staff,
 ...left the 25th Regt. on the 28th, at Devonport,
 ...in new order, and expressed himself highly pleased
 ...with the appearance of this fine corps under arms;
 ...performed a number of evolutions with great
 ...precision, and the firing was admirable, and elicited
 ...praise from the gallant General.

...The troops in Plymouth and Devonport garrison,
 ...consisting of the 25th Regt. and Depots of the 1st, or
 ...the 15th, 46th, and 85th, together with the Marine
 ...battalion, paraded in front of the General's quarters,
 ...on the Queen's birth-day, and fired a feu de joie in
 ...honor of the same. Several thousand people were
 ...present on the occasion; the guns on the batteries
 ...of war in harbour also fired. The scene alto-
 ...gether was truly magnificent. At two o'clock all the
 ...of town and country attended the spring flower
 ...and ladies' bazaar, where two splendid military
 ...bands were in attendance to enliven the gay scene.
 ...In the evening there was a public ball, which went off
 ...with great eclat.
