DEATHS.

At her son's house, on the Shelbourn Road, Ann, widow of the late Thomas Seymour, Esq. of this City, one of the Society of Friends, a lady universally esteemed and respected throughout a long life. On Monday last, at his residence, Manister House, in this county, John Cantillon Heffernan, Esq. aged 74 years, the senior Magistrate of the County of Limerick, the commission having been three times renewed to him under three successive Sovereigns. He was a kind and indulgent landlord, and he is very deservedly regretted by his tenantry and numerous friends. His remains were interred at Enid this day. At Cullen Hsue, county Tipperary, at the advanced age of 100 years, Elizabeth Shehan, a tried and faithful servant. During a severe and painful illness she displayed much of that original strength of mind for which, throughout so long a life, she was distinguished amongst her class, and retained the use of her faculties to the last moment. Sunday evening last, at Caher, Maria, only daughter of Mr. Michael Burke, of that town, a young lady much regretted. At the house of Peter Thompson, Esq. On the voyage from Calcutta, for the recovery of his health, Lieut. James Forbes, 13th Light Infantry.

THIS Company, Established by Act of Parliame- And 2, Charlotte-row, affords the most perfect security, from an am- Capital, and only requires, when an Insurance is the whole period of life, one-half of the very moder- Premiums to be paid, for the first five years after t- date of the Policy, the other half may remain, subj- to the payment of interest at 5 per cent. annually to- deducted at death, or may previously be paid off- convenience. It obviously becomes easy for a person of very mo- rate income to secure, by this arrangement, a provis- for his family; and should he at any time after- defecting the insurance succeed to, or acquire, a fortu- he may relinquish his policy, having only paid o- half the premiums for the first five years, instead- the whole as in all other Companies. Thus a man of 25 years old may, by an annual p- ment of £26 16s. 3d. for the first five years, secure- his widow and children at his death payment of- less than £3,000, subject only to the deduction of- £144 1s. 3d. being the amount of premium unpaid. This Company holds out, in various other respe- great inducements to the public. When such fac- ties are afforded, it is clearly a moral duty in ev- parent who is not possessed of a fortune, but of- income, however moderate, to insure his life fo- sum which may yield a comfortable provision for- family.

Annuitants are granted on very Liberal Terms.
