

they do not think they could so immediately as is necessary, Sir, I shall propose a Bill to bring in a Bill to Commissioners of her Majesty's power to provide the sum of £100,000 for the payment of a police force in London by rate to be levied on that purpose, or leave to bring in a Bill to authorize to establish a Consistories, or districts of counties, for the peace and protection of such

On the 19th June, Jamaica to the 1st June, were received this OFFICE. All the Islands harvested on the 1st August; a loss in the coffee crops. Capt.
Artilletry, died at Barbadoes, a few days after landing from the R.N. and Mr. Philip, both died at Jamaica. Major Lord of England. The brig Medora at Jamaica, on the 8th June—crew of the greatest fears were entertained by Robert Hughes and the Grenadiers of the West India Regt. (120 men) at Demerara, on the 24th April, and on the 12th June no account of Lt. Luxmore, Royal Engineers, by a fall from his horse, at St.
John's, 15th May.

From Cork, will replace the 7th of the 29th Regiment have left to replace the 1st Royals at London. The 1st Regt. has arrived in London on the 15th. The 1st battalion Royal Artillery left on Saturday afternoon, to replace the 5th battalion, which left on the 15th. Major Fogo, Lieut. Gardner, and Brandling, went with the regiment. The Jury have protested against the Bill which if passed into law will increase of taxation, and they say that a Surgeon is a useless expense of money.

a son.
At Jamaica, the Lady of J. T. Hunt, Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

On Tuesday last, at King William's Town, county Cork, by the Rev. D. Leahy, Mr. Thomas Healy, of Askeaton, to Anne, second daughter of the late Mr. Patrick Ives.
At Lucan, Michael Lardner Burke, Esq. Trinity College, to Catherine, daughter of the late T. Kelly, of Kilcock, Kildare, Esq.
Richard P. O'Reilly, Esq. Sackville-street, to Olivia, daughter of Nicholas Wm. Kenny, Esq. of Rocksavage, Monaghan.
At St. Mary's Church, Archibald M'Donald, Esq. of Upper Ormond-quay, to Henrietta, fourth daughter of the late Thomas Walshe, of Old Dominick-street, Esq.
At St. Mary's Church, Joseph Henry, Esq. of Dominick-street, Solicitor, to Eliza, fifth daughter of the late Thomas Walshe, of Old Dominick-street, Esq.
Sir Robert Hugh Kennedy, K. C. H. to Anna Maria, widow of Robert Hillingsford, Esq.
At New Ross, by the Rev. John Corbett, A.M. Anthony Walsh, Esq. Lieut. 19th Regt. to Jane Catherine, daughter of the Rev.
George W. Carr, of Ardross.
In St. Peter's Church, Sir Thomas Finlay, county of Cavan, to Catharine Maria, only child of Frederick Howard, Esq. Rathmines Terrace, county Dublin.
In York, the Hon. John Jocelyn, to Emily, second daughter of Henry Thompson, Esq. of Holdgate.
At Cheltenham, Henry Stockley Grimes, Esq. Bengal army, to Frances Matilda, daughter of General Podmore.
At Kingston, Capt. Gold, 65th Regt. to Eleanor, daughter of the late Staff Assistant Surgeon Geddes, of that town.
At Edinburgh, Mr. William Maxwell, to Robina, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Craig.
At Berbice, Lieut. Pilsworth, 67th Regt. to Jane, daughter of Lieut. Preston, Quarter-master 76th Regt.

DEATHS.

At Mitchell's Fort, Cork, aged 15 months, Brooke Henry Brasier Mitchell, only child of Henry Brasier Mitchell, Esq.
On Wednesday evening, at Castle Connell, after a short illness, much lamented, Mr. William Wheeler, of this City, Butcher Inspector.
April 4, at New Orleans, of fever, Henry M'Ardell, aged 19, son of John M'Ardell, Esq. This young gentleman, who was thus cut off in the beginning of his career, had proceeded to New Orleans on a mercantile speculation, and was but ten days in that city when he fell a victim to the pestilential disease.
Thomas, only son of Mr. John Booth, Morrison's Island, Cork.
At Broomlands, county Wexford, James Downes, Esq.
In Clones, Henry Edwards, A.B. eldest son of the late William Edwards, Esq. of Upper Camden-street.
At his residence, Kildres, the Rev. J. Duffy, P. P.
Ellen, relict of Adam Duffin, Esq. Oakland, county Dublin.
Aged 82 years, Elizabeth, relict of Dr. Young, of Portglenone, county Antrim.
In Dublin, the wife of Hugh M'Mahon, Esq.
In York-street, Dublin, Doctor Samuel Halahan, formerly Assistant-Surgeon Rifle Brigade.
At Kingstown, the Rev. Henry Hickman Massey Mitchell, aged 29, son of the late John Mitchell, Esq. Coolmeen, Roscommon.
At Roscrea, Frances, daughter of the late James Sheane, Esq.
At Melun, France, Lady Blount, widow of Sir Charles Blount.
At Cornwall Estate, Jamaica, Matthew Lushington, Esq. third son of Sir Henry Lushington, Bart.
At N. S. Wales, James Thomas Roche, Esq. to Miss North, daughter of Major North, late 68th Light Infantry.
At Boulogne, Captain Anderson, late Paymaster 4th Regt.
At Jamaica, the Hon. Mr. Rowe—Jacques Massy, Esq.
At Quebec, Catherine, wife of Mr. William Bowles.
Robert Horne, Esq. formerly 7th Dragoon Guards.

ments effected by hi CONDUCTORS, o Deafness, which are convenient form, as requiring to be held relations of sound, en pate in all the uses the sense of hearing inasmuch as an atte and entire acquainta and all its visual fun fully to the advanc science appertainin series of improve matured experience means of accommo perfections and faili of the human sense
Mr. E. SOLOMO for the last 14 or 15 necessary to descan defective vision der superlative excellen in their very superi tive lightness—their a single pair being of years—their pec and strong light, wh through the vario render vision most a sense of coolness the additional equ
being FREE from th Glasses, thereby af the visual organs, v ble injury have fre effects resulting fro improper Spectacle sanction and unqu ing and many othe
LIMERICK.—Sur
J. K. Carey, M. D.
CORK.—Drs. W
E. Townsend, D.
Cantillon.
LONDON.—Sir A
of the Royal Colleg Anderson, M. D. i jamin C. Brodie, I
the Queen; Dr. Ja
King; Bransby B.
tal, C. Aston Key,