

arrant for his apprehension, for inflammatory expressions in some of his letters to the "ladies of Bath," and Mr. V. had thought proper to make eccentric Lady Hester Lucy Stanhope, Syria, on the 23d ult. She was the late Earl Stanhope, and sister of ward, eldest daughter of the Earl of Wicklow, is to be united to Mr. Marquis of Londonderry. The dowry, and very rich.

An accident occurred at Kirkcudbright. A young gentleman having come ashore for the purpose of being present, was drowned in consequence of a boat in which he and three other gentlemen were out.

Who was accidentally wounded in the leg for the Earl of Eglinton's tourney in the Wood, is convalescent; the amputation of his arm, which he is obliged to wear, is complete.

Editor of the Manchester Courier to answer the charge of having libelled the Editor of the Manchester Guardian. A quarrel arose from the latter having written to his opponent the words "crawl." Satisfaction had been demanded.

Joseph Orgill, a man of most respectable appearance, was found guilty of having seduced a respectable young woman, at the age of 17, his former wife being alive. The marriage was solemnized at Burton on Trent, to buy off the girl, who was a Roman Catholic, though being in this the conviction, which otherwise would not have taken place, was established.

At the trial of the Rev. Robert Craswell, charged upon Ann Brown, aged 15 years, for seducing her, the prosecutrix had been in the habit of being seduced by the defendant, who is a married man, with the pastor of a Presbyterian Chapel at Brighton, in accordance with a licence granted from the use of all exciseable liquors, and commenced drinking herb tea and smoking.

which had broken out among the Indians, in Upper Canada, have been the Russian who so cruelly murdered his wife in the West-Indies, has been found guilty, and is to be executed.

which King John signed Magna Carta, and was signed by Mr. Harcourt, M.P. for Bucks.

Mr. Harcourt, of Newport, was induced last week to sign a blank recommendation, which was immediately filled with a draft upon the Bank of England for £150 on the clergyman's account, who absconded with the money, and is now on his passage to America.

Browne, of Mount-Southwell, had 40 acres of meadow destroyed. The Maige overflowed its banks, and did infinite damage to the surrounding country, the waters having risen a foot higher than was known for the last century. It is hoped the absentee landlords will consider for the heavy losses sustained by their tenants on this occasion. All the lowlands of Clare, at either side of the Fergus, are flooded by the rain, and at Cratloe there are sheets of water, as also at Groody, on the Dublin road, near this City, where the meadows are completely inundated.

By the amendment of the Lords in the Irish Municipal Bill the Sheriffs in cities and towns, are to be chosen exactly as they are in counties, by the Judges.

David Tierney, returning home from town a few nights since, was waylaid near Patrick's well, by one Jeremiah Frawley, who fractured the poor man's head, by striking him with stones, and left him for dead upon the road. The offender was arrested by Constable Slattery, and fully committed by James D. Lyons, Esq.

John Nihill, a quack doctor, while in a state of intoxication, fell down a flight of stairs in his own house, in Peter's-cell, yesterday evening, and his head coming against a stone, was killed.

The Directors have got possession of their new house in George's-street, opposite the Wesleyan Chapel, for a Chamber of Commerce, having surrendered their premises at the Commercial Buildings.

The butter merchants of Limerick have elected Mr. Bryan Egan, of Cork, to the office of Butter Inspector, in room of the late Mr. William Wheeler. Mr. Egan, with three other candidates, went through a strict ordeal, in which he has shown himself quite conversant with the business, and we have no doubt his appointment will give general satisfaction.

The great fair of Clonroad, on Thursday, was one of the best attended for the last five years, and stock sold briskly. Thomas Arthur, Esq. Glenomera, Hugh Kenny, Wm. Kenny, Anthony Cox and Thos. Studdert, Esqrs. sold lots of store heifers at an average of £9 5s. to £12 5s. Sir Wm. Fitz-Gerald sold ten uncommon prime heifers at £15 15s. to Mr. P. Lyddy; Mr. John Coffey ten, at £14 each. For the Galway Market, several small lots of three and four year-old, sold at £2 8s. sinking offal. Fat sheep, in good demand, at from 5½d. to 6d. sinking offal. Store sheep in good demand. Lambs for 18s. to 25s. each, rather in advance. Springers and Milch Cows in good demand, from £10 to £12. Horses, very indifferent description. Good beasts not to be had.

Such is the competition of rival companies, that all the steamers on the Lower Shannon have this week reduced their fares to and from Limerick and Kilrush, a distance of 48 miles to 1s. cabin, and 6d. deck passengers. No charge for luggage.

Lord Courtenay has returned to the Castle, Newcastle, from Mountshannon, the seat of the Earl of Clare, where he had been to meet and take leave of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed the Hon. Cornelius O'Callaghan, M. P.; Sir John Nugent Humble, Bart., and Capt. Henry Parker, Royal Navy, to be Justices of the Peace for the county of Waterford.

ing down the coast, proceeded to New York, and finally, in June, under the banner of King George the Third, the Boyne. The result was a deserved encouragement. "Peninsular V.

The Lord Lieutenant is pleased to appoint Mr. Franklin, Esq. Thomas Fitzgibbon, Esq. Smyth, Esq. Town Clerk of the County of Cork for the year. The appointment is for the year.

CORK ASSIZES.—This week the Assizes were held at Cork. The possession of the town of Lissavornia, and Lissavornia thereon, during the Assizes of the year.

Listowell v. Green.—This week the Assizes were held at Cork. The possession of the town of Lissavornia, and Lissavornia thereon, during the Assizes of the year.

for the recovery of the town of Lissavornia, and Lissavornia thereon, during the Assizes of the year. The possession of the town of Lissavornia, and Lissavornia thereon, during the Assizes of the year.

The Mayor of Cork, the Judges, the Jury, the Lord Lieutenant, the Colonels, Wm. Macbean 84th, Jackson, M. On Saturday, the Burgesses of Cork, Voules, &c. d.

The bill of exchange, getting the name printed, last week, Grand Jury of Cork.

At Enniskillen, the Mayor, Brown, and the Burgesses of Cork, abduction of a farmer's only son, whose appeal is before the Court. They are to be tried.

The civil bill of exchange, the Mayor of Navan, men, who are to be tried in town, to receive the law, having a point of law, Assizes.

Judge Ball, as a light case, his learned counsel, The Judge, the clerics as