

be called to the House of d, as Chancellor of the Ex-ring; Mr. Charles Wood to the Admiralty for a higher ceeded by Mr. E. J. Stanley, ames of the new Graduates sity of Edinburgh:—Robert e, Edward R. Cardew, Cor-owling, Arthur Fant, George ing, Charles Hart, Pierce am Knox, William Major, ilson, Thomas M. Philson, White, Joseph D. White.

ty of Mr. Pat. Fitzgerald, of were swept away by the g about the country selling santry for the sum of three ted at Longford Assizes, for aged 80, was executed on gaol.

s appointed Valuator for the ckbeg, at 4d. per house.
oners have selected a site at r the Work-horse.

ngarvan Board of Guardians sq. was elected valuator of £1 15s. per 1000 acres.

Vignolles, Resident Stipen-yfeale, have taken a resion.

ssars at Longford, Belturbet, for Dundalk, head-quarters, for Liverpool, en route to

LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
Limerick, August 7, 1839.
tements have been made, pressions erroneous and pre-l, respecting the Affidavit of to, and sworn before me in Affidavit was subsequently of Deponent, Anne Dodd's robation and consent, I beg, ate, that said Affidavit was efore me by Anne Dodd on e true, that it was in every idavit as ever I took, and as he first instance read in my obedient servant,

G. H. FITZGERALD,
Mayor of Limerick.

Jebb, of Walton-lodge, Derbyshire, Esq. to Charlotte, daughter of the late Richard Dann, Esq.

In the parish Church of St. Mary Abbots, Kensington, Alfred Waddilove, D. C. L. of Trinity College, Oxford, to Mary Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Harrison G. Codd, Esq.

At Rothsay, Wm. Gregory, Esq. M. D. of Aberdeen, to Lisette, daughter of the late John Scott, Esq. Prince of Wales's Island.

At Belleville, Canada, on the 1st July, Baron de Rottenburg, Lieut.-Colonel Commanding the District, to Louisa Mary, eldest daughter of George Neville Ridley, Esq. of Belleville, formerly of Kimbolton, Huntingdonshire, England.

At Cobourg, J. E. Tremain, Esq. to Jessie, second daughter of Lieut.-Col. Brown.

DEATHS.

On Friday, the 2d of August, at Ballinamona Castle, the seat of her father, Helen, fourth daughter of Garrett Nagle, Esq. an amiable and interesting young lady, whose loss will be long felt by her numerous relatives and friends.

On Monday, at Riverstown, in the 76th year of her age, Sarah, the beloved wife of Simpson Hackett, Esq. In her removal from this earthly habitation a large circle of relatives will have cause to deplore the loss of a sincere and benevolent friend, and the poor of her vicinity to lament their kind and charitable benefactor.

At Ocean View, county Clare, Charles O'Dwyer, Esq. of Ennis.

At his house in Killmore, Kerry, much regretted, at the advanced age of 85 years, Oliver Mason, Esq. for many years a magistrate of that County.

At Dunmanway, after a few hours' illness, aged 86, Arthur Lemuel Shuldham, formerly Colonel of the East Devon Yeomanry Cavalry, and Deputy-Lieutenant for the county of Devon.

In Charleville, at an advanced age, Bridget, relict of the late Garrett Hooper, of Maiden Hall, county Cork, Esq.

At Hevensfort, county Tipperary, after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian resignation, Maria, the beloved wife of William Charles Massy, Esq. sincerely and deservedly regretted.

At Moy, near Armagh, in the 79th year of her age, Hannah, relict of the late Rev. Doctor Richardson, many years rector of Clonfeacle, and formerly a Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin.

At Swinford, the Lady of L. D. Fitzgerald, Esq. M.D.

In Westport, George Hildebrand, Esq.

At Lakefield, county Meath, John Battersby, Esq.

At Cheltenham, Margaret, relict of Daniel Beere, Esq. of Mount Annville, county Dublin, and sister of the late Major-General Sir Edward Butler.

At Tramore, Mr. Richard Shanahan, Proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, Waterford.

At Cashel, William B. L'Hunt M'Craith, Esq. only son of Col.
Robert M'Craith, of the East India Company's Service.

Mrs. Thompson, aged 86 years, relict of the Rev. William Thompson, Dean of Killala.

At Arran-quay, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Deborah Long, in the 70th year of her age.

At Magherafelt, of fever, Matilda, wife of William Baith Sea-wright, Esq.

In Dundalk, Mr. John Martin.

At Clover-hill, county of Roscommon, in his 76th year, John Hurst, Esq.

At Western House, Brighton, Hugh Aldborough Bowen, Esq.
of Court Wood, Queen's County.

Accidentally drowned, at Maidenhead, Emma, daughter of Mr.
Chadwick, of Southwark.

In Berner's-street, London, Richard Gregory, Esq. of Coole, county of Galway, aged 78 years, by whose death a large fortune reverts to his brother, the Right Hon. William Gregory, late Secretary at Dublin Castle.

Mr. John Brodie, hair-dresser, Renshaw-street, Liverpool.

The Rev. Mr. Harper, Roman Catholic Missionary to the Indians, at St. Maurice, Canada.

At Montreal, Mrs. John Conway, a native of Trinity Island, Kilmore, Ireland.

At Montreal, Mr. Patrick Kenny, a native of Newry, county Louth, Ireland.

At Jamaica, Joseph Rawlins Thomas, Esq. Lieut. R.N. Special Magistrate.

arranged in the Alp
names, and in sepa
respective Baronies.

Civil Bills will b Registry of Voters, in

At Newcastle—K
Upper Connelloe, thi

At Rathkeale—Ke Connelloe, third; an

At Limerick—Cost
Coshma, third; Clan

fifth; Owneybeg, six City and Liberties, la

Ejectments, Replev
be heard without dist

Bills, in the Alpha Names, in their respe

Ejectments cannot first day of the Sessio

Applicants for Re
Ten o'Clock in the M

Sessions in each town their Notices the r

intend to apply.

CROW

The Grand Jury w easily, on Friday, O

Friday, October 18th, October 31st, at Lime

The Petit Jury will in the morning, on Sa castle; at the same h at Rathkeale, and at 31st at Limerick.

Both Grand and Pe
and Warrants forthwi attend.

Applications for Sp Arms, will be heard in has been sworn.

Appeals from Mag
will be heard immedi

Petit Jury in each tow

CLERKS C

Are required to retu tions, and Recogniz

within fourteen days bound to do pursuant

cap. 34, sec. 7.

Clerks of Petty Ses
this regulation, are su

in each case.

(By c

County Limerick P
August 10, 183