

regards the management of every honest and well empire, capable of enter-the subject, must give to the Right Hon. Gentle-and carrying through the improving the Shannon, beneficial to Ireland, and conducing to the benefit of the whole Empire, Parliament. In the executions designed by the bill, proper precaution will be taken to prevent the possibility of jobbing ;
 and may be fairly and usefully employed on an undertaking which will be of benefit to hundreds of the people, and innumerable advantages to the

and family have arrived in season.
 on the 37th have arrived at New

appointed Edmond South-Second Lieutenant in the Byrd, resigned.
 Quin, were on Wednesday under the Poor Law, for the compensation of £2 for every of all other rateable property.
 killed by lightning near Kan-

Wednesday, a considerable fall of black cattle. New milch would have readily brought removed off slowly on Wed-

Dispensary.
 COMMITTEE, it was ordered should receive Proposals for with MEDICINES.
 (paid) to be forwarded to
 Esq. Riversfield, Kilmallock,
 on the 10th Instant.

August 14.

COMMITTEE.
 RELIEF COMMITTEE
 subscribers who have not as yet made their contributions will do so with as the paid list is about to be published.

Limerick August 13.

neral to Lord Lake's Army, to Euphemia, eldest daughter of Sir John Robinson.
 At Clerkenwell, G. C. Searle, Esq. of Pentonville, to Emma, daughter of J. Campbell, Esq. General Post Office.
 At Kensington, W. B. Pickering, Esq. of Hammersmith, to Harriett, daughter of the late T. Woolley, Esq. Gloucester.
 At Mansfield, Elizabeth, daughter of F. Wakefield, Esq. Mansfield, to C. Talbot, Esq. of Kidderminster.
 At Strasburg, Edmond Scherer, Esq. of Paris, to Maria, the youngest daughter of Major-General Nisbett.
 At Marylebone Church, Major G. A. Ramsay, K. H. 77th Regt. son of the late Lieut.-General Ramsay, Governor of Antigua, to Elizabeth Anne, only daughter of the late Richard Robinson, Esq.
 of Great Stanmore, Middlesex.
 At St. George's, R. H. G. F. Pigott, Esq. son of the late Col.
 G. F. Pigott, M. P. for Kinross, to Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Col. Ogle, of Brixtable Lodge, Surrey.
 At Rosebank, Wick, Capt. A. R. Rose Rynie, 50th Reg. Madras
 Army, to Christina, widow of the late Lieut. R. T. Coxe, 12th Madras Infantry.
 At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Dr. Wahab, Surgeon of the 37th Regt. to Miss Mary Heffernan, of that town.

DEATHS.

At Moate Park, on the 6th inst. the infant son of Eyre Evans, jun. Esq. of Ash-hill Towers.
 In Dingle, Mrs. Dudley, relict of Mr. Dudley, Excise Officer, and daughter of Mr. Jeffcott, proprietor of the Dingle Hotel.
 In Killarney, Mr. Francis Conihan.
 At Kennett Pans, Mrs. Kellett, wife of Counsellor Richard Kellett, of Clonmel, and daughter of John Jameson, Esq. of Dublin.
 At Cove, Mr. James O'Brien, late of Clonmel.
 At the residence of William Cary, Esq. Carlow, Mary, sister of the late Annsley Cary, Esq. Portarlington.
 In this City, Mr. Cornelius M'Carthy, cork-factor.
 Eliza Jane, wife of Mr. Robert Ridd, Superintendent of the Ulster line of Railway.
 At Youghal, John Graves, Esq. late C. C. Police.
 At Clontarf, in her 86th year, Mrs. Thompson, relict of the Rev.
 Thomas Thompson, Dean of Killala at the eventful period of the French invasion, in 1798.
 At Greenhill, county Donegal, the Rev. William Gamble, Reformed Presbyterian Minister.
 In Waterford, Arabella, daughter of Surgeon Milten, late 29th Regt.
 In the Dominican Convent, at Portumna, the Rev. John Albert Gavin, D. D. of the Dominican community of St. Saviour, Denmark-street, Dublin.
 At Carysfort Avenue, Blackrock, William Henry Gilpin, son of Alexander Johnston, jun. Esq.
 In Dorset-street, Mary Anne, relict of William Hamilton, Esq.
 formerly Editor of the Dublin Evening Post.
 At Exeter, Sir Christopher Sidney Smith, Bart. of Eardiston, near Worcester.
 At Notting-hill, Clara, eldest daughter of W. J. Keene, Esq. &
 Margaret, relict of Edward Carolan, Esq. of Carrickmacross.
 At Milan, on her return from Rome, Louisa, Lady Carden, aged 39 years.
 At Pellipar House, Robert Ogilby, Esq. aged 79.
 At Kirkdale, of apoplexy, R. W. Lloyd, Esq. late of Chester.
 Mr. John Kyffin, engineer, Parliament-street.
 Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Ellis Roberts, late 23d Regt.
 At Glasgow, Colonel Alexander Wedderburn, Inveresk Lodge, Musselburgh, late of the Coldstream Guards.
 At Clackmannon, W. Stevenson, Esq.
 At Lybster, Cathiness, Adam Forbes, of the old 71st Highlanders.
 At Ostend, in her 15th year, Jemina Bryan, eldest daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Bryan, and grand-daughter of George Bryan, Esq. of Jenkinstown, county of Kilkenny.
 Lieut.-Colonel Thomas, 31st N. I. whilst in command of a party escorting treasure for the advance Army.

[Here follows the desc
 situate at , and £ . per annum
 FORM B [1]
 To the Return
 day
 I, of appoint a Proxy, in after described, the
 the Electoral Divisi appoint of appointment is revo
 wherein he may law
 sions of the 1st and property in respect to vote
 [Here follows the desc
 situate at amounts to £

FORM B [2]
 To the Return

I, of
 of to vote as of the 1st and 2d Vic be entitled to vote as to you such my appo
 or signed by the said
 of my appointment,
 handwriting of, or si
 and the property situ
 and in re
 be entitled to vote, a by claim to be entitle follows: viz. [Here
 House, Farm, &c.] si
 the said
 £ per annum

FORM F
 To the Return

Name of the Perso
 Persons proposed
 Guardian or Guard

I nominate the a [or Guardians,] of the
 the Union.