

Thomas Driscoll,
John Keating, jun.
Patt Keating,
William Walsh,
Patrick Dowling,

ANSWER.

don Scott, Esq. Cahircon, the surrounding neighbour-with gratitude the eulogium ence on my conduct. Deep of thankfulness to Almighty the divine assistance I was an esteemed friend from a thanks. Believe me the having been instrumental in and noble minded parent quoting your own words) ected friend," is rendered bation. It will prove a ure hours of sorrow, and eward.

rs of the Royal Western this, returned my warm r public meeting for the confer on me.

myself with sincere good happiness of you all, your

KER SMYTH, Ballylin.

directing attention to the ntific gentleman, the testi-any allusions here to his tions, or to his surpassing quite unnecessary. In im-the absolute necessity of order to derive the advanvery few days still afford press our sincere wishes for fidence that his superior secure for him that esteem servedly regarded.

ed to receive subscriptions ate Mrs. Dr. Townley, beg wing additional subscrip-5; Mr. James Deacon, £1 £1 1; Mr. Richard Gar-Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, each; Miss Rose, Mrs.
nd Mr. John Garvey, 10s.
en Garvey, 5s. each.

lope Richards, daughter of the late John Rogers, Esq. of Antrim Lodge, Helston, Cornwall.

Captain Lautour, Grenadier Gaards, to Elizabeth, daughter of William Turton, of East Sheen, Surrey.

At Charlton Kings, the Rev. George Royds Birch, of Paris, to Sophia, fourth daughter of Sir William Russell, Bart. of Charlton Park, Gloucestershire.

At Malta, A. J. L. Peebles, Lieut. and Adjutant of the 59th Regt. to Eliza, eldest daughter of the late John Mackay, Esq.

At St. David's, Jamaica, on the 4th July, Thomas Baynes, Esq. of Deadham Lodge, Gloucestershire, Deputy Lieutenant for the County, to Maria, daughter of the late Constantine M'Turner, Esq. of Rockfield, Ireland.

DEATHS.

At Cove, on Sunday last, in the 15th year of her age, Helena, youngest daughter of Admiral Butcher.

At Moonaraha Cottage, aged 29 years, James Smithwick, Esq. son of the late Robert Smithwick, of Caher, merchant.

On Thursday, at Market-street, Cork, Mrs. Catherine Ford.

At Glenamore, the residence of her mother, Lucy, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Hoare, Rector of Castletownroche, Cork.

Of consumption, at Cove, Samuel Coulter, Esq. M. D. late of Dublin.

In Boyle, Frances Emily, only daughter of Captain Lawrell, of the 64th Depot.

Deborah Harriet, eldest daughter of Charles Bagot, Esq. J. P.
Kilcoursey House, King's County.

On Friday, the 9th inst. at Bideford, Devon, at the house of her brother-in-law, Doctor Harding, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Blanche, relict of the late Captain A. C. Stanton, R. N. and eldest daughter of the late Captain J. B. Westropp, of this City. The premature death of this amiable lady has cast a gloom over a numerous circle of sorrowing relatives and friends.

At Waltham-terrace, Blackrock, Michael Monks, Esq. in the 70th year of his age, of the Royal Engineer service.

At Leitrim-street, Cork, Mr. James Raleigh.

At Bannhill, near Rathfriland, Mrs. Capstain, relict of the late Matthew Capstain, Esq.

Mrs. John Smyth, of Granby-row.

At the seat of T.M. Gresham, Esq. Raheny Park, Mr. Robson.

At Havering Grange, Essex, Isabella, wife of Major Anderson.

At Portland-terrace, Regent's Park, Theodore Henry, son of Lieut. Henry Broadhead, R. N.

Bourchier William Wrey, brother to the late Sir Bourchier Wrey, Bart. and Rector of the parishes of Tavistock and Coombeinteignshead, Devon.

At Arborfield, Berks, the Rev. Henry Hodgkinson, 40 years Rector of that parish, aged 87.

At his residence, Fountain Dale, Notts, Lieut.-General Samuel Need, Colonel of the 9th Lancers, in the 74th year of his age.

John Corrie, Esq. one of the Vice-Presidents elect of the British Association, and President of the Birmingham Philosophical Institution.

At Clifton, near Bristol, Miss Buxton, Northrepps-cottage, Norfolk, the daughter of the late Thomas Fowell Buxton, Esq.

At his residence, Springmount, near Blackburn, aged 73, James Barlow, Esq. a celebrated and talented Surgeon.

At Castletown, Isle of Man, Lieut.-Gen. James Cuming.

At Tyr-y-Fron, Denbighshire, James Ferguson, Esq. late Capt. in the 90th Regt.

At Carlton, near Pontefract, Richard Wilson, Esq. of Ackworth Grange, formerly Captain in the Queen's Royal Regiment.

At Brighton, after giving birth to a daughter, Jessie Anna, wife of E. S. De la Main, Esq. late of the 67th Regt.

At Garail Cottage, near Dunoon, Miss Collier, eldest daughter of Capt. Collier, late Barrack-master at Glasgow.

At Greenock, Isabella, daughter of John Ker, Esq.

Mr. J. C. Parker, box-keeper of the Theatres-Royal Liverpool and Manchester.

At Sion-cottage, Bath, Rear-Admiral Master, aged 69.

such adaptation is bastance with the laws of derangement in the fo-ations in vision, the cumstances in which
and the nerves of visi-glasses are necessary certain, from Mr. So-with these condition apply such means of It is of vast importanc assistance, to disting experienced optician vender. The one is scarcely fails to do ha

W.

" Surgeon Oculist t

" From my convict

Mr. SOLOMONS' Spect
and preservation affor not hesitate to recom
rence to any other med and to offer a favou Conductors'—their mi ingenious constructio rence to the instrume same time, it appear their superior efficacy with any of those un and have been compl I may also observe (an ration,) that, having knowledge of the An
of the Eye, &c. he is his high professional c

" J. S. THWAIT

" Mr. E. SOLOMON
to possess paramount in use, displaying g scientific talent. By of the Ear, they ad trifling sound, and by the Seat of Hearing, the aural defect. His fectly obvious, and re professional pre-emin

" J. KNIGHT C

" I have examined LOMONS' Spectacles, an this, my unqualified o superiority over every

" JOHN GE