

in this beautiful science. Rooms presented a gorgeous and lovely assemblage in a garden of sweets, perfumed the air.

There were not so numerous as those of the Marquis of Waterford, Lord Dunraven, &c. who on various occasions, having failed to do the best work interfering with it; yet the specimens exhibited were a falling off in the marked and decided improvement of specimens, which clearly showed the advantage of such a valuable and vegetables were, Michael and Henry O'Grady, Esqrs.—Miss Waller.

In the fruit department were Mr. Spaight's gardener; Tuthill's gardener; to Mr. O'Grady's gardener; to Mr. John O'Grady's gardener; to Mr. Heafy, to Mr. Berry, Rev. Wm. M'Cormick, Hon. J. P. There was a quantity of other nearly came up to the above. The vegetables exceeded, in quantity, those of any former prizes in the vegetable and the property of the above Mr. Flynn's, Mr. Fitt's gardener,

DEATHS

At Kerry, Lady Blennerhassett, of the Lady of William Downes Griffith, the Lady of Alderman Hyndman, of a daughter, the Lady of William J. Wicklow, of a daughter. The Lady of the Rev. R. W. Burton, of the Rev. Samuel Twigg, of a daughter. The Lady of R. G. Campion, Esq. of a son. Mrs. M'Corkle, Presbyterian Minister, of a daughter. Mrs. M'Cheane, Esq. of a son. Mrs. Wick Willis, of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. of Longford, of a son. Mrs. Esq. Royal Engineers, of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. late Chief Constable of her eight child. Mrs. Esq. of Godfrey Shaw, of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. of George P. Pigott, of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. of the Countess of Hillsborough, of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. of Captain Robert Moresby, of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. of the Rev. Robert Morris, of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. of J. Bellew, Esq. of a daughter. Mrs. Esq. of W. Bruce, Esq. of a daughter. Mrs. C. Hancock, of a daughter.

lain in Ordinary to her Majesty, Prebendary of Gloucester and Bristol, and Rector of Corfe Castle, Dorsetshire, to Maria Rice, daughter of the Hon. and Very Rev. the Dean of Gloucester, and niece to Lord Dynevor.

DEATHS.

At Belmont, Miltown Malbay, after a few days illness, Francis FitzGerald, Esq.
At Ballycasheen, near Killarney, the son of Richard Walter Agar, Esq.
On Thursday last, at his daughter's, at Bohermore, Mr. George Scott, late of Kishquirk, in this County.
At his house, Clifton, Bristol, aged 84 years, John Louis Auriol, Esq. step-father of Capt. Whyte, of this City.
At Tipperary, of fever, Mr. Patrick Rogers, tobacconist.
In Ennis, Mrs. O'Dea, wife of Mr. James O'Dea, corn-buyer.
At Galway, Roderick Brown, of Mounthazale, Esq.
At Patrick-street, Cork, at an advanced age, Thos. Austen, Esq. Suddenly, at Rathcormac, Walter Evans, Esq. son of the late Nicholas Green Evans, Esq. of Carker, county Cork.
At Mallow, on the 3d inst. Eliza, wife of Robert Haines, Esq.
At Kiltorcan, aged 31 years, Mr. James Murphy, father of the Rev. Michael Murphy, R. C. C. of Glenmore, county Kilkenny.
At Kinsale, of malignant typhut fever, Miss Susanna Cox Baldwin, daughter of the late William Baldwin, Esq.
At Glebe-hill, Kanturk, Frances, wife of the Rev. J. E. Orpent
In Sligo, Mr. Terence O'Donnell.
At Kilkenny, Mr. John Carrigan, late Gardener to the Marquis of Ormonde.
G. F. Atkinson, second son of the late Captain Atkinson, 20th Light Dragoons, at Artane, county Dublin.
In Dublin, Mr. P. Boyton.
At Bonny Glen, Derry, Murray Babington, Esq.
At Westport, Rebecca, wife of Mr. Sinclair Stewart.
In Wexford, Isabella, daughter of the late Patrick Isdell, of Rockbrook, county Westmeath.
At the advanced age of 87 years, at the residence of her son, James Peed, Esq. of Harbor-hill, Kinsale, Helena, relict of the late Richard Peed, of Ballinling, county Cork, Esq.
At his cottage, Cabra Road, Mr. Bernard Sheehy.
At Lavagh Cottage, Mrs. Allan Hanly, relict of the late Allan Hanly, Esq. and daughter of the late Wm. Hogg, Esq. of Gilstown, Roscommon.
At Windsor Avenue, Mary, relict of the late Robert Mayne, Esq. Solicitor.
Mrs. Anne Stack, of Anne Field, Booterstown Avenue.
At Balbriggan, Anne Eliza, wife of the Rev. John James Disney, Rector of Slone.
Aged 16 months, Gregor, son of the Rev. T. D. Gregg.
At Portarlinton, Eliza, youngest daughter of Mr. John Moore.
John, son of Michael Warren, Esq. Sandford's Court, Kilkenny.
Mr. John Douglas, saddler, of Great Britain-street.
At Kimmage, county Dublin, Michael E. Byrne, Esq.
In consequence of an accident she received at Spa, Mrs. Whyte Baker, of Ballaghtobin, county Kilkenny.
At Rathmines, the infant son of H. M. Miller, Esq.
At the residence of her son, in Monivea, county Galway, Mrs. Margaret Cowen, aged 77 years.
Mrs. Rosanna Murray, of Stewartstown, county Tyrone.
At Moygannon Cottage, Mrs. Pettigrew, aged 50, relict of the late William Pettigrew, of Crilley, county Tyrone, Esq. Also, her aunt, Miss M'Creight, formerly of Tandragee, at the advanced age of 83.
Joseph Hargrave, Esq. of the Ordnance-office, Tower.
At the Royal Ordnance Hospital, Devonport, of consumption, Huntley George Hooper, Esq. Lieut. Royal Artillery.
Mr. William Cullen, pilot, Liverpool.
Mrs. Charlotte Morgan, wife of Mr. Anthony Morgan, Liverpool, and formerly of Sackville-street, Dublin.
Solomon Polack, Esq. Exhibitor in the Royal Academy during half a century, aged 78.
At Gourock, Mr. Ephraim Lockhart Patterson, of Glasgow.
Mary Ann Steuart, relict of the late Lieut. Dickson, Royal Durham Militia.
At Hampstead, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. M'Shane, Foley-place.
Martha, wife of David D. Inglis, Esq. of Devonshire-place.
At Coopersale-hall, Essex, Joseph Price St. George, Esq. of Nottingham-square, Kensington.
At Cambridge-street, Connaught-square, Cecil Fitzroy, son of Colonel Cecil Bishopp, C. B., of the 11th Regiment.
At Montpelier, Lieut. M. S. Forbes, half-pay 33d Regt. son of the late Lieut.-Colonel T. Forbes, 45th Regt.

proposed by Joseph T. conded by William Pop of this meeting are due Doherty, Esq., our Pro dignified conduct in the THOMAS JOSEPH

ADDRESS OF THE I TO THOMAS EL

DEAR SIR—Your in being determined on, without expressing our mination of your profes

Having been success this your native town, f in bearing testimony to the excellence of your upright moral conduct

By example and prece to the cause of educatio beneficial to the rising by your zeal in diffusin you have set an exam anything which human

We beg your accep token of our regard: a dant success and the highest esteem for you remain, Dear Sir, your

(Signed by t

Bandon, September 3

MR. PROVOST, AN

My regret, at leavi considerably increased towards me, so gener townsmen, on learning all, by the sentiments c tained in the address v sented me.

I feel this to be the it is unnecessary to approbation, and will valuable accompanime marks of the attachme also as memorials by v virtually belong to the

I will not attempt to vering myself from the and esteem—but I ass kindness, the affection my native town.

Accept, then, my w your approbation, and entertain a grateful re have received from my

I have the ho

Mr. Pro

Mo

September 3, 1839.