THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2.

Lieutenant-General Sir Richard Bourke, High Sheriff, left this day for Dublin.

Viscount and Viscountess Adare are staying at Llanover.

Sir Richard De Burgho, Bart. left Castle-Connell on Thursday, for Prior Park, Bath, to complete his studies.

The Right Hon. Thomas Lefroy and family have arrived at Rockingham, the seat of Viscount Lorton.

Sir W. Brabazon, M. P. was entertained to dinner by his constituents at Swinford, on Thursday.

R. Oliver Gascoigne, Esq. has instructed D. Barrington, Esq. his agent, to expend £50 in fuel for the poor at Castle Oliver, in this county.

Crown trials at the County Quarter Sessions Court, will not be taken up until Tuesday next.

The total number placed at these Sessions on the electors' roll for the City and Liberties is 650, of which nine-tenths are re-registries. So that of 2600 notices served on the Clerk of the Peace, the bona fide addition to the registry list does not make seventy-five, including Liberals and Conservatives. This fact is ascertained at the proper office, by analysis of the duplicate notices served by the Liberal party—one class for general registry, the other for re-registry, exclusive of the notices singly served by individuals.

A bank parcel containing bills of Irish and English mercantile houses to a large amount, addressed to the Bank of Ireland, in this city, was alleged to have been found yesterday in the streets, but it is ascertained the parcel had been stolen.

The dress of Mrs. Spillane, a nursetender, took fire on Monday night, while attending a patient in fever, at Newcastle, and her person was so dreadfully burned that she expired in great agony, on Wednesday last.

Ellen Carr, an orphan girl, between 13 and 14 years, whose parents died of cholera, was effectually cured of total paralysis of the hand and arm, by the application of a Mathew medal, on Sunday last, at Castle Lloyd in this county. Unhappy poor creatures struggling in the worst paroxysms of epilepsy, in our streets, have been immediately restored by the same remedy. The former circumstance is vouched to us by a clergyman of the establishment, the other is known to hundreds in this city.

Mr. Burke, of Patrick-street, glover to her Majesty, has received an order from Windsor Castle, per Sir Gore Ouseley, for 12 dozen pair of the celebrated Limerick gloves for her Majesty's own use. The order, when completed, is to be forwarded by Miss Ouseley, of the Crescent.

Constable Connor, of Castle Lloyd station, arrested on Saturday night, Edmund Brereton near Tipperary, with fire-arms in his possession. This fellow has been some time "on the run" had been convicted, and went under the fictitious name of Dunn.

The new Union Workhouse at Rathkeale is being roofed. This is the most forward in Ireland.
