

succeeds Col. Campbell
the Liverpool Recruit-
who has retired from the y Campbell, Quarter
He was formerly Captain

motion, took the com-ublin, yesterday. Major
e, when Captain Sir W.
get the Majority and

Mallow are to be given
uld troops be required
will be given up to the

ve arrived at Bourdeaux.
e that Mr. Dunbar has impulse to the trade of t for Jamaica, upon a Jim Crow, of Cork, a athis concerns in this city.
nspector, held an inquiry
of Mr. Gibbs, of Cove, drunken fellow to bride-

have received a commu-Board, directing them to
that sum, and charge it
the Union—1,222*l.* being of the Workhouse, and
building and fitting it out.
rdians at Clonmel, have als after paying Father

perary have added another
erson of Andrew Bourke,
th of the present month,
urderous attack made on ome tenants, to whom he gent landlord and kind
as experienced no small
a he moved will not easily pleasing disposition. Mr.
grave on the shoulders of e opinion acquit, as not his funeral was attended
le in the neighbourhood,
a good man and a sincere
ssins, there is little doubt, nd the conspirators on the
to the rest of Ireland, by
to whom, it is hoped, the assistance.

d, county Galway, worth
e death of the Rev. John e newly created Bishop of
ron a plate at Naas races,

the 38th Regt.
In Mullabrack Church, county of Armagh, the Rev. W. R. Williams, to Elizabeth Mary, daughter of Charles M'Anally; Esq. half-pay 90th Regt.
At Prestbury, near Cheltenham, Capt. Franks, 10th Regt. to Matilda, widow of the Rev. W. Fletcher, of Sutton, Derbyshire.
At the British Embassy, Paris, by the Right Rev. Bishop Luscombe, Mr. Theodore Adolphe Barrot, Consul-General of France for Indo China, to Georgina Manvers, daughter of the late Rear-Admiral Manby.
Benjamin Philips, Esq. of Bromley, to Mary, widow of Captain Windsor, of St. Vincent's.
In the Church of Holywood, Edmund John Armstrong, Esq. of Dublin, to Jane, daughter of the late Rev. Henry Savage, Glastry.
At Edinburgh, the Rev. J. H. Gurney, of Lutterworth, eldest son of the Hon. Baron Gurney, to Mary, eldest daughter of the Rev. Henry Grey, Minister of St. Mary's, Edinburgh.

DEATHS.

At Woodhill Terrace, Cork, after a protracted and painful illness, Elizabeth, wife of Archdeacon St. Lawrence.
In Shannon-street, on Thursday, Mr. James Ferguson.
At Carey's Road, on Sunday last, Agnes, wife of Mr. Charles Gordon.
At Swinford, in the 19th year of her age, of puerperal fever, Frances, wife of Blakeney Gubbins, Esq. Lieut. Revenue Police, and of Maidstown, in this County.
At Ennis, of fever, Mr. John Smithwick.
At Mountain View, Cork, of scarletina, William, son of Mr. Rowland Campion Long.
Mrs. Lydia Ann Kemp, of Sullivan's-quay, Cork.
Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Edm. Mildenhall, hotel-keeper, Kinsale.
At Kilkenny, after her confinement, the Lady of G. W. W. Roche, Esq. and widow of the late Mr. Wise, the distiller, of Cork, aged 30 years.
At Masteraguee, Colersine, aged 79 years, Mr. J. O'Doherty, father of the Rev. E. O'Doherty, R. C. Curate of Buncrana.
At Kingstown, county Dublin, Abraham R. Bond, son of Mr. Joseph Bond, Postmaster of that town.
At Derry, Mr. John M'Murray, Purser, R.N.
At Rathdrum, aged 77, the Rev. Alexander Moore, Wesleyan Preacher.
At Westmoreland-street, Henry Murphy, Esq. son of the late John Murphy, Esq. of Stacumni, county Kildare, and agent of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company.
Joseph Smith, Esq. of Townsend-street. merchant.
At Wexford, Mr. Richard Page, Mayor's Clerk and Petty Sessions Clerk.
After a short illness, Mr. Matthew Sullivan, Printer of the Waterford Chronicle.
At Charlotte-quay, Cork, Jane, wife of Robert Bennett, Esq. Frances, daughter of the late Wm. O'Donoghue, Esq.
In Fedamore, the wife of Mr. Laurence Scanlan.
At Seymour-street, Mrs. Margaret Masterman.
At Charlotte-street, Bedford-square, Lieut. J. Campbell, R. N.
At Westerfield, near Ipswich, Suffolk, in the 91st year of his age the Rev. Wm. Betham, Rector of Stoke Lacy, Herefordshire, and father of Sir W. Betham, Ulster King at Arms.
At Paris, Hugh O'Connor, Esq. of Mountjoy-square, Dublin.
Suddenly, at Earl's-court, Kensington, Miss Maria Morehead.
At Cheltenham, the Rev. John Meara, Rector of Headford, county Galway, brother of George Meara, Esq. of May Park, Waterford.
At Douglas, Isle of Man, Dr. Wade Shields, R. N.
At Paris, Richard Le Noir, the Arkwright of France, the first cotton manufacturer of that country.
At Bredon, Worcestershire, William Chapman Fowle, Esq. Lieut.-Colonel of the Herts Militia, and one of the Grooms of the Privy Chamber to her Majesty.
At St. Ann's Terrace, Mr. Stephen Tobin, of Dublin.
At Hastings, C. T. Lonsdale, Esq. late of King-street, Covent Garden.
At the Firs, near Derby, William Pim, Esq. of the Field-house, Market Drayton, aged 83.
At Lexden Mills, near Colchester, Elizabeth, wife of Jonathan Grubb, a member of the Society of Friends.
In Graham's Town, Cape of Good Hope, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Major Armstrong, Cape Mounted Rifles, the Rev. Henry Frazer, A. B. late Colonial Chaplain of Sinton's Town.

JOHN T. DEVLIN
GEORGE FOSBERG
HEFFERNAN C
WM

Nov. 2.

AT a numerous Meeting of the County of Limerick at the County Court-House, Limerick, on the 1st day of OCTOBER, 1839.
WM. S. O'BRIEN
Proposed by the Hon. J. J. O'Brien, seconded by the Rev. J. J. O'Brien.
That having seen a report of the conduct of the Barrister of this County, expressing our high opinion of his ability, integrity, and fidelity, as well as of the important duties which it is our unanimous opinion that he should perform in the County.—Carried unanimously.
Proposed by Sir David Ross, seconded by John Croker, Esq.
That our Chairman be authorized to propose this Resolution to the whole body of the Magistrates of the County.
The Earl of Dunraven, Chairman, by J. D. Lyons, Esq. Henry Royle, Esq. who seconded the motion, to Wm. S. O'Brien, Esq.

Depot 42
WANTED a MESSENGER for the 1st Regiment. Unexceptionable character and qualifications. Letters addressed to the MESS COMMITTEE, Tenby, Tenby.

ALL
BRITISH AND FOREIGN ASSURANCE
THIS is to give Notice that the ASSURANCE Company has appropriated to the Meeting of the Court at the Office, No. 10, and at the various Agencies on and after FRIDAY, the 11th of March, from Eleven to Three o'clock, entitled to participate in the 25th of March last, and to receive their respective annual payments on the date.
Parties applying to the Office should bring to the Office the Office for their premium.
1, Bartholomew-lane