of the Earl of Yarborough, Commander of H.M.S. Wasp, to Madelina, daughter of Capt. Sir John Gordon Sinclair, of Stevenson, Haddingtonshire, Bart.

DEATHS.

At her residence, on Monday evening last, to the inexpressible grief of her famlly and friends, Frances, the beloved wife of Richard Phillips, of Mount Rivers, county Tipperary, Esq. She bore a painful and protracted illness with that piety and resignation so becoming the true Christian believer. Her last words were directed to her Redeemer, and she meekly resigned her immortal spirit to his hands, hoping through his great love and merits to inherit a crown of eternal bliss. It may be truly said of this inestimable lady, that she was the attached and dutiful child, the affectionate and best of wives, the tender and fond mother, the sincere and warm-hearted friend, and her loss will be long deplored by those best acquainted with her many virtues. At his residence, Mackney, Ballinasloe, of typhus fever, imbibed at the sick bed of a parishioner, the Hon. and Venerable Charles Le Poer Trench, Archdeacon of Ardagh, brother of the late Archbishop of Tuam, and uncle to the present Earl of Clancarthy. In Catherine-street, of fever, Mr. Beale, of the Society of
