November 13. Boarding and Day School, BEDFORD-ROW, LIMERICK, MR. THOS. ELMES, A. B. T. C. D. PRINCIPAL.

Under the superintendance, and with the co-operation of his Brother, The Rev. JOHN ELMES, Vicar of St. John's.

THE extensive and highly respectable patronage which Mr. ELMES has experienced since his Establishment commenced, has been so universal and flattering, as to call for his grateful acknowledgments, and whilst he pledges himself that no diligence or labour shall be spared, which may give complete satisfaction to Parents and Guardians, he deems it necessary to state the peculiar characteristics of his School.

THE following are the most prominent:— SCRIPTURAL EDUCATION, under the direction of his brother, constitutes a portion of the regular school business.

THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT, including Writing and Arithmetic, is especially attended to, under his own inspection.

Composition in English, French, Greek, and Latin, shall receive the attention which its importance and the improved mode of education require.

ENGINEERING, BOOK-KEEPING, and PRACTICAL SCIENCE shall be taught, not merely from the routine of School Books, but by clear exposition and illustration of principles and practice.

Adequate labour shall be bestowed on all young Gentlemen designed for the NAVAL and MILITARY ACADEMIES.

THE COLLEGE COURSE shall be taught with as much expedition as is consistent with sound Scholarship. On this head, Mr. ELMES can refer both to his own Collegiate Course, and the honors obtained by his Pupils.

The Boarders, whose number is limited, are under the constant and unremitting care of Mr. ELMES, who has permission to refer to the Hon. and Rev. Charles B. Bernard, Castle-Bernard; the Rev. H. T. Newman, Rector of Killorgan; the Rev. H. F. McClinton, Rector of Ballymodan; the Rev. Joseph Jervis, Rector of Aghagh; the Rev. Somers Payne, Treasurer of the Diocese of Cork; the Rev. T. Walker, Rector of Kilmalooda; the Rev. Allyn Evanson, Four-mile-waters. And in Limerick, to the Venerable Archdeacon Forster, the Rev. T. Westropp, the Rev. G. Massy, the Rev. Wm. Willis, the Rev. Henry Gubbins, the Rev. Thos. Willis, the Rev. M. L. Apjohn; also, to J. D. Jackson, Esq. M. P., Capt. the Hon. Wm. S. Bernard, Arthur Beamish Bernard, Palace Anne; Capt. Samuel Beamish, Kilcoleman; John Nash, Esq. Brinny House; Abraham Evanson, Esq. Burren; Col. St. John Clarke, Overton; Capt. Belcher, J. T. Wheeler, Esq. and Edward Doherty, Esq. Bandon.

Messrs. QUINLAN & SON, intending to retire from business, offer the entire of their Stock for Sale (at a considerable reduction on the usual Prices)—It comprises a variety of Carriages, too numerous to name, as, also, a quantity of best quality Timber, varying in age from five to fifteen years, with every other Article necessary for Coach-building purposes.

All persons indebted to the above Firm, will please pay the amount of their Accounts forthwith, and any demands on them are requested to be furnished for payment. Nov. 16.

BOISTON, Tailor and Woollen Draper, 52, THOMAS-STREET, LIMERICK, From Stultz and Co. Clifford-street, London.

BOISTON respectfully informs his Friends, and the Public in general, that he has received his WINTER ASSORTMENT of Cloths, Cassimeres, Pilots, Beavers, Harringtons, Waistcoatings, &c. which he has purchased for Ready Money, and is determined to give the benefit to those Gentlemen who may favor him with their orders as when once a Gentleman leaves his measure with J. BOISTON, he can always have his Clothes carefully forwarded, without any risk of disappointment, or misfit, wherein it so frequently occurs to those dealing in the old system of purchasing their Cloth in one establishment, and looking for another to have it made up, are frequently at a great loss by getting misfit, whereas those Gentlemen who chose to favour J. BOISTON'S Establishment with their orders, will always be secured from such disappointments, as he never requires a Gentleman to take his Clothes, without being perfectly satisfied in every respect.

J. B., as usual, pays most particular attention to all orders he receives in the MILITARY department of his Trade, which he feels confident he will execute in a style not inferior to London or Dublin Houses.

J. B. also gives a liberal credit to Officers on home service, and as a proof of his abilities, he has had the honor of being patronized by the Officers of the following Regiments, viz.

- 1st Do. 2nd Do. 3rd Do. 4th Do. 5th Do. 6th Do. 7th Do. 8th Do. 9th Do. 10th Do. 11th Do. 12th Do. 13th Do. 14th Do. 15th Do. 16th Do. 17th Do. 18th Do. 19th Do. 20th Do. 21st Do. 22nd Do. 23rd Do. 24th Do. 25th Do. 26th Do. 27th Do. 28th Do. 29th Do. 30th Do. 31st Do. 32nd Do. 33rd Do. 34th Do. 35th Do. 36th Do. 37th Do. 38th Do. 39th Do. 40th Do. 41st Do. 42nd Do. 43rd Do. 44th Do. 45th Do. 46th Do. 47th Do. 48th Do. 49th Do. 50th Do.

J. BOISTON also returns his most grateful Thanks to the Officers at present in the garrison, and surrounding district. Nov. 16.

Askeaton Dispensary. AT A Meeting of the Subscribers to the ASKEATON DISPENSARY, held at the Petty Sessions House, ASKEATON, on TUESDAY, the 12th Inst.

CARROL NAISH, of Ballycullen, Esq. in the Chair.

Proposed by the Rev. George Maxwell, and seconded by William Hewson, Esq. and unanimously adopted, "That in accepting the Resignation of Dr. George Langford, as Physician to our Dispensary, we beg unanimously to assure him of the regret we feel at his departure from amongst us, and to record our opinions not only of his general successful practice, but also of the humane and assiduous attention with which he at all times treated the poor of this district whilst in charge of the Askeaton Dispensary, but more especially during the awful visitation of Cholera."

CARROL NAISH, Chairman. Ballycullen, Nov. 12, 1839.

MY DEAR DOCTOR—As Chairman to a Meeting of the Subscribers to the Askeaton Dispensary, held this day, I beg to forward you the accompanying resolution, which (you will observe) was unanimously adopted, and to assure you how gratified I feel at being the medium of communicating to you this well-deserved tribute. Believe me, no one joins more sincerely than I do, in the general regret that is evinced amongst all classes at your departure from among us.

I remain, my dear Doctor, ever your's faithfully, GEORGE LANGFORD, Esq. M.D. &c. Adare.

Adare, Nov. 14th.

DEAR MR. NAISH—Permit me, through you, to return my most sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Supporters of the Askeaton Dispensary for the very flattering terms in which they have commended my services, whilst Physician to that Institution, and also for the handsome manner in which they have alluded to my departure from amongst them.

To you I feel grateful, indeed, for the kind expressions of regard and (I fear ill-merited) approbation contained in the note accompanying the Resolution. Believe me, dear Mr. Naish, none will apply whose establishment will not exactly suit the present advertisement, as the usual proper reference will be given and required.

Yours very sincerely, GEORGE LANGFORD. To Carrol Naish, Esq. Ballycullen.

Dated this 13th day of November, 1839. WILLIAM HENN, Robert Maunsell, Plaintiff's Solicitor, 11, Merrion-square. Nov. 16.

NORWICH UNION Insurance Society. THE Capital of this Society is invested partly in the Public Funds, and partly on approved real security, every investment being made in trust for the Society, and the whole Capital being under the sole control of the Board of Directors.

This Society is founded on the equitable principle of mutual guarantee; its premiums (under 45 years of age) are nearly Ten per Cent. below the usual rates; and the whole of the surplus premium is added at stated periods to the Policies of the Members, in proportion to the sums they have respectively contributed.

By this plan the NORWICH UNION OFFICE affords a certain and immediate advantage, in the reduction of the rates, besides the future benefits arising from the divisions of the surplus Capital.

The Members of the Society are those who insure for the whole of Life, and are exclusively entitled to the division of the surplus Capital.

The present accumulated surplus exceeds ONE MILLION SIX HUNDRED & FIFTY THOUSAND POUNDS.

RATES are calculated for the payment of the Premium during a certain number of years, when the Annual Payment will cease, but the Policy remain in force. The confidence and support the NORWICH UNION SOCIETY has obtained during the last 30 years, will at once appear by the following statement of the progressive increase of its Capital:—

Table with 2 columns: Amount in 1815, 1822, 1829, 1836. Values range from £102,486 to £1,604,696.

Since the establishment of the Society a Million and a Half of Money has been paid, without dispute or litigation, upon Policies which have determined by the decease of the lives insured. Only three cases have occurred in which the Directors found it necessary to take the opinion of a Court of Law.

Three Septennial Bonuses have been declared at General Meetings of the Members duly convened by public advertisement, and held at Norwich, in the years 1816, 1823, and 1830.

The following claims, recently paid in Dublin, will give some idea of the value and importance of Life Insurances, and of the advantages to be derived from effecting such with the NORWICH UNION SOCIETY:—

Table with 3 columns: No. of Policy, Sum Insured, Amount paid including Bonuses. Values range from £4356 18 0 to £2578 15 0.

The full value of Policies is given to Members wishing to discontinue their Insurances.

Prospectus and further information respecting Insurances on Single and Joint Lives, Survivorships, and for Granting Annuities, may be had by applying at the OFFICE, THOMAS-STREET, and No. 1, CATHERINE-STREET, to
