

Major-General Sir William Bagwell, of Marlfield, and visit at Ballyneguard, the Croker, Esq. of Sanders-Park, Charles 88th Regt. a few months in this county devolved to Esq. indignantly denounced the newspaper, that the Tamworth, which recently escorted on Manor, had refused to colonel, the Earl of Lichfield expresses himself highly of Serjeant Young, Lance Poter and Lewell, place, when called upon the Chartists. was fined 20s. at Kilkenny breaking in that city knockers is also amongst the of 1825, got promotion on service. ht Dragoons, Lieut. Gibson, sold out of the service of Serjeant Major Sheppard upon the Woolwich parade the Rector and inhabitants of Bloomfield. ce functionary to the rank now resident in this county during the Viceroyalty of the duties for a salary of for office, we take it, was for promotion, as not another force would either suggest the death of Chief Constable the Kingscourt district, the has devolved upon Head- successor to Mr. Roslewin Ryan, of the Constabulary, rank of second, to first class oned at Tralee.

in farms in the Liberties, a mutilated state, almost age of frequent occurrence, arrival of Henry Maunsell, visit to his brother-in-law Towers, he was received own and vicinity with ess evinced by him in his workhouse in that union the most beneficial, having employment to Thomas Williams, mate of the Governor, merchant vessel of this port, was robbed of £10 on Saturday night, by a cyprian, who escaped with her booty. Daniel Durgan was held to bail at the Police-office, Monday, for disturbing the congregation at St. John's Church, last Sabbath.

Richard White, of Abbeyville, in this County, Esq. has been served with a Rock Notice, to prepare his affidavit.

Daniel Shaughnessy, a labouring man, dropped dead yesterday at Carey's Road, without any previous indication of sickness. Alderman FitzGerald, locum tenens for the Mayor, held an inquest on his remains. Verdict—Died by the visitation of God.

The subscribers to the Crookhaven Dispensary presented a piece of plate to Dr. C. Armstrong, on recognizing the superintendence of that Charity.

Middleton Sessions, commenced yesterday before Mr. O'Shaughnessy, who is occupied with 300 registry notices for the county, and 260 for the city of Cork, of which latter number seven only are in the liberal interest. The sessions will be adjourned to Youghal to accommodate the electors for registry in that district. Two Conservatives and five Liberals registered for Kinsale borough, at Middleton Sessions, on Monday, while for the County Cork the Conservatives registered—Liberals only four!

At the County at Large Road Sessions on Saturday, Ennis, the presentment for a new Court-house, to cost £12,000, was adopted after a long discussion. Seven rate-payers with two magistrates voted against, and ten magistrates with the Chairman, Sir Lucius O'Brien, voted for the presentment. An application for £200 to improve the quay at Kildysart, approved at the Road Sessions at Knock, was rejected. A traverse to the presentment for the remuneration of the Inspector of Weights and Measures, was entered with the Secretary.

The Magistrates of Ennis have taken informations against a number of working shoe-makers in that town, for assault and combination.

Mr. Bull, the banker, acquires a valuable property in the Fergus, by the death of Lieutenant Roslewin Chief Constable of Police.

A new trial has been ordered in the case of Lord Morton against the widow Murphy, and the verdict obtained by her set aside. This is the case that the liberal prints made such a noise about, and so liberally censured his Lordship for his acts of oppression against his tenant.

Mr. Tully, son of Lieut. Tully, R. N. has been appointed Clerk of Works by the Commissioners, to superintend the erection of the Workhouse in this city, which is going forward rapidly, and Mr. Thomas Butler, Superintendant, under the Contractors, Sir Thomas Deane and Company.

The Ennis Poor Law Guardians have approved the plan for a Union Work-house at Lifford, on the estate of Francis Gore, Esq. at £25 per annum. The appointment of Mr. Ralph Cullinan, as valuator of the

The following appeared in part Nov. 20.—His Grace the passed a good night, and is con Lord Fitzroy Somerset arrived Castle, with Sir Astley Cooper Dr. Hume.

This day a Special Sessions Court, to revise the Jury List following Magistrates attended:—Michael Furnell, John Wall Vokes, Samuel Vignoles, W Mathew Singleton. Upwards of on the list, and one only came James Corneille, of Patrick's being over 60 years of age.

This afternoon, Alderman FitzGerald, locum tenens for the upon the body of an infant a still born, from premature con Mary Meade, which the Jury violence and ill usage received. The unfortunate parent lies da

The Lords Justices have appointed 3d Class Sub-Inspectors being of 2d Class Sub-Inspectors of Thomas Armstrong, H. B. B. Thomas Blakeney, Thomas R. John Clements, W. Fitzgibbon Hayden, William Little, Thomas Meredith, P. Morgan, Thomas

A farmer, of the name of Fi fire-arms on Thursday night, near to Lord Dunraven's deer-park two Police stations, half a mile

The last arch of new Thornton completed yesterday.

A situation in the Constabulary death of Lieut. Roslewin.

Geo. W. Leake, Esq. Barrister at Law, a member of Mr. O'Connell's Association.

THE REV. THEOBALD MATHEW

The Rev. Theobald Mathew of his brother-in-law, (Wm. D. Esq.) next Friday evening, promising the intended charity sermon, on the ensuing Sunday. of respect and regard is due by the various parochial Temples, to this most revered clergyman of all moral and social reform, unostentation of this pious and mission, that he will, notwithstanding of the thousands whose vicious has been the happy means of contemplated invitation to a advertised in our columns. In this reverend gentleman is contained his eminent virtues; and his