SOLICITORS.
London—Robert Ellis, Esq. 2, Corbet-court, Grace-church-street. Limerick—Robert Potter, Esq. George's-st. Lime-rick.
SECRETARY—James Griffin.

THE Directors stand pledged to the Subscribers that no trading shall be commenced, nor liability incurred, beyond the expense of obtaining a Patent under the Act of 1 Victoria, limiting the responsibility of the Shareholders to the amount of their respective subscriptions, and other incidental charges, until such non-liability Patent shall have been obtained.

The Company is established for the purpose of affording to the West of Ireland the benefits of Steam Communication with England, there not being at present a single Steam Vessel plying from thence to any port in England. It is intended that the first vessels shall ply between Limerick and London, touching at Tarbert and Kilrush, and having a branch Steam Vessel to Tralee. The Company propose subsequently to avail themselves of the trade of Galway, and other places on the Western Coast.

This Company having the advantage of co-operation with the Peninsular Steam Navigation Company, (some of whose directors have been extensively engaged in the coasting trade of Ireland) from their experience in the business of Steam Navigation, the Public may feel assured that the Directors, who have undertaken a portion of the management of the West of Ireland Steam Navigation Company, would not have done so except under a full conviction of its practicability and success.

Application for Shares to be made in London to Robert Ellis, Esq. 2, Corbet-court, Gracechurch-street; Messrs. Willcox and Anderson, Peninsular Steam Packet office, 51, St. Mary Axe; James Hartley, Esq. 16, John-street, Crutched Friars, and 44, Regent Circus, Piccadilly. IRELAND—Robert Potter, Esq. 23, Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin, or George-street, Limerick; Francis John O'Neill, Esq. Shannon-street, Limerick; and also at the office of the Peninsular Steam Company, 3, Burgh-quay, Dublin.

CONDITIONS.
That a Joint Stock Company be formed, to be called "the West of Ireland Steam Navigation Company."
That the Capital Stock be £250,000, divided into 25,000 shares of £10 each.
On allotment of Shares, a deposit of £1 per Share to be lodged to the credit of the Trustees, with any of the Company's Bankers, who will give the necessary Receipt for the same.
That the Funds and Property of the said Company be vested in the name of the Trustees selected from and by the Board of Directors.

That the affairs and business of the Company be managed by a Board of Directors, who shall hold weekly meetings at the Company's Offices in London for that purpose, and that the Directors resident in Ireland shall have the power of voting by proxy on the London Board.
That the Directors have the appointment and removal of all Officers and Agents, and the power of chartering, purchasing, building, and equipment of the respective Steam Vessels.

That the Proprietor of Twenty Shares be entitled to a free passage by the Company's Vessels, and such Discount off the regulated Freights as the Directors may hereafter judge advisable.
That the directors have power to make a reduction on the regulated Freights to persons not Shareholders, whose business, from its extent, is necessary to the welfare of the Company.

General Meetings to be held yearly. At these and other meetings of the Company, if a ballot be demanded, Proprietors holding Four Shares shall have One Vote; Ten Shares, Two Votes; Twenty Shares, Three Votes; Thirty Shares, Four Votes; and Forty Shares, Five Votes. No Proprietor to have more than Five Votes. Proxies allowed.
At the General Meetings, a statement of the affairs of the Company and the accounts duly audited will be laid before the Proprietors, and such division of the Profits declared as they may justify.

Instalments to be called for at intervals of not less than one month, and not exceeding £2 per Share. Nor more than three calls on each Share in any one year until the whole Capital is paid up.
Fifty Shares of £10 each will constitute the qualification for a director.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR THE UNAPPROPRIATED SHARES.
West of Ireland Steam Navigation Company.
SIR—I request to become a Subscriber, and agree to take such number of Shares as may be allotted to me in the West of Ireland Steam Navigation Company, not exceeding _____, and to pay the Deposit of £1 per Share, agreeably to the conditions stated in the printed Prospectus annexed.—I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

AT A MEETING HELD ON FRIDAY, THE 15TH NOVEMBER, 1839.
FOR the purpose of considering the best means of alleviating the misery and supplying the temporal wants of Sick and Indigent Room-keepers, resident in the City of Limerick, the following Resolutions were adopted:
The LORD BISHOP of LIMERICK in the Chair.
That while we acknowledge it to be a Scriptural obligation, "to distribute and to do good unto all men," we deem it a duty peculiarly incumbent on us, to provide for the necessities of the poorer classes of our Protestant brethren, numbers of whom are laboring under severe privations in every quarter of our City.
That for the accomplishment of this object, a Society be now formed, to be denominated "The Limerick Association for the Relief of Distressed Protestants."
That the Lord Bishop be requested to accept the office of Patron of the Institution, and the following persons to act on the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to add to the number:—
The Lord Bishop of Limerick, Patron,
Rev. Benjamin Jacob, Rev. Thomas Willis, Rev. Henry H. Rose, Rev. Richard Moore, The Ven. Archdeacon Forster, The Ven. Archdeacon Keating, Rev. Richard Dickson, Rev. John Duddle, Rev. John Elmes, Rev. Henry Gubbins, Rev. William Newcombe Willis, Sec.
Rev. William Lewis, Rev. Robert Knox, Rev. Thomas Westropp, Jun.
Rev. Pryce Peacock, Rev. Joseph Gabbett, Treasurer,
Rev. Benjamin Jacob, Rev. Thomas Willis, Rev. Henry H. Rose, Rev. Richard Moore, The Right Worshipful Richard Franklin, Mayor, Hon. John Massy, Hon. George E. Massy, Alderman Watson, Samuel Maunsell, Esq. Tres. Henry Maunsell, Esq. James Macmahon, Esq. Mr. Robert Connolly, William Piercy, Esq. John Browne, Esq. Edward Bernard, Esq. Arthur Sayers, Esq. Amos Vereker, M.D. Surgeon Stevenson, Rev. Richard Tracy, Edward Galway, Esq. Sec.

That the appropriation of the funds entrusted to our charge be confided to a sub-Committee of Management, who shall meet on Thursday in each week, to select proper objects for relief, and determine on the mode of distribution.
That Visitors be chosen for the several Districts, who shall investigate the claims for relief, and from personal inspection and enquiry, report on the merits of each case.
That the Visitors be instructed to obtain satisfactory information relative to every applicant, and to put the following queries:—
1. Do they attend Divine Service, and where, and if not, from what cause?
2. Are they of cleanly, sober, quiet, and industrious habits?
3. Can any thing be done for applicant's permanent relief, and what?
4. Is there any thing peculiar in applicant's distress, and what?
5. In case of sickness, what is the nature of the disorder, and what are the best means of administering assistance?

That the minutes of the proceedings of each Meeting be entered in a book to be provided for the purpose; that a regular account be kept of the disbursements, and that the names of all persons, to whom aid is granted, be inserted in a register, with the particulars of the case.
That an Annual Report of the progress of the Society be drawn up the Committee, and presented to a General Meeting of the Subscribers, to be held on the first Thursday in December in each year, together with a detailed statement of the income and expenditure.
That the Rev. Joseph Gabbett and Henry Maunsell, Esq. be elected Treasurers, and the Rev. William Newcombe Willis, and Edward Galway, Esq. Secretaries of this Society.

That the foregoing Resolutions be published, and that our Secretaries be directed to forward copies to such benevolent persons as may be expected to cooperate by pecuniary aid, in promoting this work of mercy and labour of love.
Donations and Subscriptions will be thankfully received by the Members of the Committee, the Treasurers and Secretaries.
