

er, and Lieut.-Colonel Claude Company's service, as Baronets, late campaign in India.

urn has accepted the invitation to the Metropolitan Conservative and requesting to be admitted a ety. Though a sincere friend to rm, he thinks the time is come to nservatism and destruction.

death of Captain Patrick Pottrell, ne papers, is contradicted by that ley, R.N. succeeds the late Major governor of Gambia.

were charged at Newcastle Petty alting a teetotaller in that town, al, and denouncing the society. rule, but preferred reporting it leaves Mount Shannon in a on, to attend a special general servative Peers at Apsley House, ke of Wellington, preparatory to jament, and his Lordship is to on the 16th.

RY—Mr. Bassett, Steward of the begs leave, on behalf of nearly rs of that Institution, to express titude to a humane public, thro' d they have been abundantly sup-nd new milk for breakfast, and ton, and soup, with good porter er on Christmas-day. It was he visitors and benefactors of eive such joyful demonstrations ted in the countenances of the l delighted with having such dversity, and who offered to the d thanksgivings on behalf of their ns, who thus contributed to make n the anniversary of Christmas. ne balance on hands, with some ions from those who have not will enable the Steward to pro-cheer on New Year's day. It is stance that 140 of these poor ome tee-totallers, refused to taste dinner.

s have been received by Alder-dition to those acknowledged in effry Browning, Pierce Shannon, wborough; Hon. John Massy, e, James Cree, Esqrs. £1 each; £3; Mr. P. Gorman, Mr. Edw. and J. W. 5s. each; Edmond man, per W. C. 5s.; quarter of Bishop, barrel of porter from C.
33 loaves of bread from Mr.

Kilrush distillery is greatly ad-flavour, strength, and purity.

Junior Freshmen in Science. Catechetical Examination will be held:—For Senior Freshmen, on Saturday, February 1; Junior Freshmen, on Wednesday, Feb.
5. Examinations for Entrance will be held in Jan, on Saturday, 18th.

The Lord Lieutenant visited Trinity College on Christmas Eve, and inspected the library.

John Smith, a collector at the Methodist Chapel, Whitefriar-street, Dublin, was detected, last week, abstracting 30s. off the plate.

This morning nine convicts from the City Gaol, and four from Tralee, left this under a Police escort for the Richmond Penitentiary, Dublin, preparatory to transportation to Botany Bay.

John Finn, employed at Tuthill's brewery, returning from work on Thursday night, fell into the Canal and was drowned.

Michael Scully was arrested on Saturday night at Dunnman, near Croom, charged with stealing two pigs, value £6, from James Hanrahan, of Ballingarry; Scully sold the pigs to James M'Cormack, of Roxbo-rough, at whose house Acting Constable Cornelius found the pigs. He also proceeded to the house of Scully, and there found two other pigs which Scully could not give a satisfactory account of. Informations are ordered against Scully.

Michael Madden, committed to the county gaol on the verdict of the Coroner's inquest for the murder of his uncle, James Madden, at Garryspillane, is the son of a man for some years deranged in mind.

Mr. Sergeant Greene on the part of the Shannon Improvement Commissioners, announced their awards at Carrick-on-Shannon, to the several claimants. The works will be commenced early next year.

M. T. Vesey Nugent presides at Roscommon Quarter Sessions, Mr. Forde, the Barrister, being sick.

There are sixty registry notices entered for Kilrush sessions, the 10th prox.

A Sessions house is to be erected at Castlerea, Roscommon, next year.

Mr. Pierce B. Stafford's appointment, as a Stipendiary Magistrate, is not yet ratified.

The cigar divans and fruit shops of Cork, have been prosecuted for selling ale, &c. without license, and the Magistrates are determined to enforce the penalty.

Archdeacon Warburton gratefully acknowledges the receipt of £40 from Lord V. Southwell, his Lordship's donation towards providing clothing, &c. for the poor of the Union of Rathkeale, at this inclement season; also, £5, from Col. St. Leger, for the same benevolent purpose; £3 from Dowager Lady O'Brien, for the Rathkeale Protestant School, and £1 from W.
S. O'Brien, Esq. M. P.

Henry Maunsell, Esq. Treasurer to the Association for relief of distressed Protestants, has received £4 from a Lady in Killarney for that charity.

We have to apologise to our fair correspondent for the omission last post of the beautiful lines "The Father's Love" to which the reader's attention is now directed.

cerned in the is transmitted to Waterford apprehended i

The address
Esq. of this ci occasion of his shall appear in

The fifth g
David Bannaty
on Wednesday

TO CORRESPOND
also the letter of O'Brien, Esq. M

FOR SUC
THE HOUSE
PLACE,
O'BRIEN, Esq.
Application
Esq. 104, Bags

Meta
TWO SUP
Application
Limerick, or street, CORK.
Time would money. The

Life A
RECEIVED
ASSURAN
M. USBORNE,
No. 1092.

Limerick, D
I think that my claim
Agent in this C of readiness to me with the gr

Shannon-str

OR
THE HOUSE
taining ov situated on the nearly opposit mile and a half quality.
Application
MOORE, Fairy-
The HOUSE