

have been received by Alder-ion to those acknowledged in y Browning, Pierce Shannon,
 orough; Hon. John Massy, James Cree, Esqrs. £1 each;
 B; Mr. P. Gorman, Mr. Edw.
 and J. W. 5s. each; Edmond 1, per W. C. 5s.; quarter of hop, barrel of porter from C.
 3 loaves of bread from Mr.

Insurance and Company,
 LIAM-STREET, MANSION HOUSE.
 £500,000.

DIRECTORS.
 Duke, M.P. Chairman.
 Esq. Deputy Chairman.
 John Knill, Esq.
 Benjamin Lancaster, Esq.
 Thomas Nesbitt, Esq.
 Major General Robertson,
 Daniel Sutton, jun. Esq.
 O'Bryan Bellingham
 Woolsey, Esq.

AUDITORS.
 Edward Greenaway, Esq
 Robert Pearson, Esq.

BANKERS.
 ard, Dimsdale, and Co.

PHYSICIANS.
 M. D., T. W. Jones, M.D.

SURGEONS.
 Esq. John Dalrymple, Esq.

LEGAL COUNSEL.
 Gurney, Esq.

SOLICITORS.
 Lake and Curtis.

ACTUARY.
 ard Baylis, Esq.

Offered by this Office:
 low as £50.

months after death.
 mitted in the Policy.

ted daily.
 d at the Office of WESTROPP & SON,
 spect-Row.

Westropp, Agent.
 Medical Attendant.

Wade, Royal Artillery, to Sarah Thomazine, eldest daughter of Major Armstrong, Cape Mounted Riflemen.

DEATHS.

At Youghal, on Christmas eve, Captain Edward Mandeville, late 64th Regiment.
 Suddenly, in Rutland-street, Mr. Bartholomew Madigan, late of George-street, woollen-draper.
 At Borriskane, on the 25th ult. Mr. Robert Nelson, Grocer and Wine Merchant, a respectable member of society, universally and deservedly regretted. He has left a widow and three children to lament his loss.
 At Tralee Barrack, Thomas Stratford Manners, second son of Brevet Major Manners, 59th Regiment.
 In Roches-street, Teresa, widow of Mr. Richard Weekes.
Mr. Hugh Hogan, of Ennis.
 In Galway, Lawrence B. Burke, Esq.
 Of fever, at his father's house, Morrison's Island, Frederick Wynne Hall, Surgeon, son of Mr. Frederick Hall, of Cork.
 At Midleton, James Smyth, Esq. of Rathcoursy.
 At Grange, Wexford, Samuel Boyse, Esq. aged 85.
 On Saturday, at Bushfield Avenue, Dublin, sincerely and deservedly lamented, John Moore, Esq. late of Glasgow.
 On Christmas Eve, the Rev. Jonas Jones, Vicar of Kilmacabea.
 At Dunkerrin, King's County, aged 104 years, Mr. Patrick M'Loughlin. His death was hastened by the fatigue he underwent in walking to Limerick, to visit the Apostle of Temperance, whence he walked back the next day—in all, a distance of sixty-four miles.
 Frances wife of the Rev. James Shields. of Newry.
 In Henrietta-street, Rebecca, second daughter of the late Rev.
 Singleton Harpur, Incumbent of Monkstown.
 John Hughes Kennedy, Esq. late of the 14th Light Dragoons, eldest son of Hugh Kennedy, of Cultra, county Down, Esq.
 At Tinraheen, Philip Redmond, Esq.
 George Putland Skellern, Esq, Bishop-street, aged 85.
 At his house in Eccles-street, Gordon MacNeill, Esq.
 At Mountjoy-square, North, aged 68, John Deering, Esq. Q.C.
 Deputy Lieutenant county Fermanagh.
 At Merrion-square, Mrs. Frances Stapleton, relict of the late Michael Stapleton, Esq. Mountjoy-place.
 Lieut.-Colonel Calder, 11th Madras Infantry.
 At Tramore, Miss Cantwell.
 In Waterford, Miss Torpy.
 In Clonmel, Henry Joyce, Esq.
 At Great Brunswick-street, Christina Ada, daughter of George Nairn, Esq.
 At Eastbourne, Davies Gilbert, D. C. L., late President of the Royal Society, and many years M.P. for Bodmin.
 Lady Warren, widow of Admiral the Right Hon. Sir Borlace Warren, G.C.B. Her Ladyship is succeeded in her extensive estates by her grandson, Lord Vernon, now at Rome.
 At Atholl-crescent, Edinburgh, Dr. Rogerson, Deputy Inspector of Hospitals.
 At Cheltenham, Lady Catherine C. Brecknell, daughter of the Earl of Portmore. relict of Joseph Brecknell, Esq. formerly of the Life Guards, and Lady of the Bedchamber to Queen Charlotte.
 In Brunswick-square, James Kinloch, Esq.
 At Paris, Major James Browne Horner, of Charlton Kent, formerly of the 84th Regiment; and within a few hours, his wife, Helen C. Horner.
 At Barton-upon-Humber, in the 78th year of his age, Mr. John Maloney, a Greenwich out-pensioner. He was a native of Cork, and served under Rodney, Howe, Duncan, and Nelson.
 In Grosvenor-square, Lady Emily Egerton, youngest daughter of the Earl and Countess of Wilton.
 Benjamin Saddler, Esq. of Manchester, late of Belfast, and the Rev. Alfred Saddler, M.A., brother of the above.
 Mr Thomas Roydon, pilot of Liverpool.
 At Redruth, Cornwall, at an advanced age, Mary, relict of the late Samuel Vincent Pryce, Esq. M.D.
 In St. Thomas, Exeter, Lieut. John Niess, late 3d R.V.B.
 At Coatbridge, Miss Jessie Harvie, of Armadale, and the original of that beautiful and popular ballad, "Sweet Jessie of Armadale."
 At Vieuxfort, St. Lucia, Emma, wife of Charles Bennett, Esq.
 M. D., stipendiary magistrate, and eldest daughter of Robert Ward, Esq. of Brighton.
 Of yellow fever, on board her Majesty's ship Satellite, off the Isle of St. Domingo, W. Chetwynd Plowden Wood, Esq. (mid-shipman) aged 18 years, second son of General John Sullivan Wood, Lieut. of the Tower of London.
 At Cabool, Capt. Henry Timings, Bengal Horse Artillery.

Public, got up with
 to the Country De in the Kingdom, a Superior Article.
 MOORE feels it
 blishment to requ purchasing what t
 MOORE'S BLACKIN
 STREET, is on th
 of other descriptio
 All Order and dispatch.

WEST
FIR
INSURA
Capit

Right
 Right
 Right
 Sir Th
 Edwar
 Samue

Codrington P
 The R
 Sir Th
 Samue
 Willia

FIR
 Premium be paid on or befo PERSONS In extent of £3
 share of One-Hal Insurances at the No expense is in Policies from oth

LIF
 Are effected on t
 those Insured, a p be added as a Bo at the decease of made in the future the Insured.

ENDOW
 Effected either
ANNUITIES AF
 In case of FIR is always ready fo
 Company's Engin Prospectuses n
 tion given at the David

Jan. 1.