

bank, free of all expense, and stamps heretofore is sentenced to a fortnight to pay the costs of the Mr. O'Driscoll, editor of the publication was the publication of the traverser. of business in Belfast, Northern Bank Stock, the £25 sold for £60 5s. in the Iron trade.

of our last impression authority in the proper for the outrages committed were offered by Government. Michael Apjohn's violently assaulting him Maurice Noonan with Ballycahane. 26th— at Kilmurry; £50 for at Ballingarry. 12th property of Maurice Walsh 13 sheep, the property for maliciously killing a sheep Ditto, a sheep of 2d Jan.—£40, for house at Glengary, and Ellen, against her Ballinvirick house, and ns. Dec. 31—£10, for at Crean, near Bruff. and eleven o'clock, a farm of a man named nessed the horses from k, turned them out on d have the life of the and at their next visit. their mandate, and has

of the Diocese, held by the Lord Bishop, the Archdeacon Warburton, was elected Economic improved state of the exertions of the late Gabbett, Prebendary

At St. James's Church, Westminster, Alfred Hole, Esq. Cornet 13th Light Dragoons, to Elizabeth, daughter of John Mercer, Esq. Maidstone.
 At St. Martin's Church, Mr. Carte, to Eliza, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Jones, of Enfield.
 At Stoke Damerel, Devonport, W. F. Nelson, Surgeon, Royal Artillery, to Emma, youngest daughter of the late R. Bigg, Esq. solicitor, of Belfast.
 At Edinburgh, Robert A. Macfie, Esq. to Caroline, daughter of John Easton, Esq. M.D. of Courance-hill, Dumfriesshire.

DEATHS.

At Carhue, Cork, the seat of his grandson, Henry Thorne Coppinger, Esq. Thomas John Coppinger, Esq. aged 87 years. Suddenly, in Tralee, of apoplexy, Mr. Stephen Walsh, auctioneer and cabinet-maker.
 At Castlebar, Mr. Thomas D. Mockler, Civil Engineer.
 Mr. Michael Ryan, Librarian to the Institution, George-street. At Newcastle, on the 6th inst. Mr. John Murphy, eldest son of Mr. Daniel Murphy, dyer, of a decline, aged 23 years.
 Mrs. Cahill, wife of Mr. P. Cahill, Tralee.
 Dora, daughter of the late Mr. Humphry Haines, Grand Parade, Cork.
 In Sunday's Well, Cork, Mrs. Fitzgerald.
 At Factory-hill, Cork, Elizabeth North, eldest daughter of Wm. Lichfield, Esq.
 At her residence, Summerhill Parade, Mary, relict of the late Rev. James Moore.
 Aylmer Wrixon Allen, of Garryduff, Esq. near Cork.
 The Rev. James Dixon, P. P. of Crossabegs, Wexford, aged 90. In the rebellion of 1798 he would have been hanged but for the Rev. F. Draffin, Rector of Castlebridge.
 Frances, only daughter of the late John Mansfield, Esq. of Yeomanstown, county Kildare.
 In Edenderry, Frances, relict of Thomas Grattan, Esq. M. D. and mother of the late John Grattan, Esq. M. D.
 Mrs. Colman, Lady of John Colman, Esq. Rathory, Louth.
 In Bride-street, Richard Lestock, son of John Theophilus Boileau, Esq.
 On Wednesday, at Sir Harry's Mall, Mr. Michael Madden, Master of the guild of masons and bricklayers, aged 60 years.
 At Giltown, county Kildare, the Rev. Joseph Borrowes, fifth son of the late Sir Kildare Dixon Burrowes, Bart.
 In Camden-street, Catherine, relict of the late Joseph Medicott, Esq. of Woodford, county Meath.
 In his 81st year, James Blacker, Esq. one of the Stipendiary Magistrates.
 Mrs. Hart, widow of Daniel Hart, of Hartville, Cork, Esq.
 At Cheltenham, in the 80th year of her age, Eliza, wife of H. Hill, Esq. Deputy Commissary General, and daughter of the late Richard Kirwan, Esq. of Cregg, county Galway.
 At Bath, Lady Doherty, relict of Colonel Sir Patrick Doherty, of the 13th Light Dragoons.
 In Sackville-street, Colonel William Gordon Macgregor, Inspecting Field Officer of the London district.
 In Beaumont-street, St. Marylebone, Elizabeth, wife of William Theobald, Esq. barrister.
 In James-street, Adelphi, Robert Quin, Esq. one of the Pages in Waiting to the Queen Dowager.
 At Kensington, the Rev. Dominique Le Houx, pastor of the Catholic congregation there.
 At Dundee, Mr. James Miln, architect, in his 94th year.
 At Crookhaven, on Friday, Mr. Keady Donovan, aged 107.
 At Heath, near Halifax, the Rev. Robert Wilkinson, B. A. Master of the Heath School.
 At Sydney, on the 7th August last, Mary, eldest daughter of Timothy Lane, Esq. of Cork.

Studdert (G.) 11, Buntor 9, Sheppard (J.) 7, Mere 6, Carey (B.) 2, Carey (Wrixon 5, Kerin (E.) 2, Cullinan (D.) 5, Harton 4, Ryan (D.) 4, Dubourdieu 4, Knox 6, Goode 3, St. Scott (B.) 5, Bagley 2, M. (Tim.) 6, Witham 7, E. Vickers (K.) 7, Barry 6 (J. F.) 8, Vandeleur 6, Hogreve 2, Mahon (W. F. Shortt (F.) 1, Brown (F.) (G.) 4, Cullinan (C.) 3, C.  Vacation terminated business is resumed on the

MERCHANT TAILOR Further Win

NOR
 No. 126, GEORGE (four doors from

DANIEL NORMAN
 Public of his having Assortment of CLOTHS unnecessary to appeal to Gentlemen, who have allment. The advantage are daily evidenced by insage, which it shall be at a deserve; but he would ta upon those, who have no LOWNESS of his RATES-purchased for the money other house in the trade.

His supply of WATER for Hunting Coats, RIBB sers, EGLINGTON and B ing Frocks, will, he is con WAISTCOATING in g The kind support whi from the Military Gentl expression of deep and la  To suit the conve NORMAN has on sale an Silk Handkerchiefs, Glove Shirts, Braces, Travelling which he offers at the mo