On Sunday last, in Tipperary, Thomas Lloyd, Esq. of Castle Lloyd, in this county. Whether we regard the career of this rouch regretted gentleman, as an offeer who eminently distinguished himself in the service of his country as Captain in the gallant Tyth, or Queen's Germans, having commanded the Light. Infantry of that crack Regiment in almost every actions of the Peninsul War; or whether we consider him subsequently as a Magistrate and Grand Juror, in his native Country, the proprietor of an hospitable mansion, the munificent dissipance of a large fortune, the friend and patron of the industrous poor, the delight of his friends, and the idol of his femanty, so many excellent qualities tell beyond the flattery of panegyric the intrinsic worth of a man whose high nonor was never questioned, whose benevolence was inexhaustible, and heavings of the national Bank in this City, in the prime of hie, of severe fever, occasioned, there is too much reason to believe, by unremitted and over-anxious exertion in the discharge of the duties of his office, Ebenezer Wallace, Esq. greatly beloved and universally regretted by all that knew him and were able to appreciate his worth. As a man of business, it must be acknowledged on all hands, he was "not slothful in business;" as a Christian, "fervent in spirit, serving the Lord," and seeking to diffuse the ideasings of temperance and true religion amongst his fellow men of every creed and persuasion. Possessed of a clear and vigorous intellect, and guided in all his transactions by a high sense of moral feeling and integrity, his loss will be most acutely felt. After a ferthinght's illness, during which his head was so much sitelled and integrity and the wisdom of being in a constant state of preparation for their summons to an eternal world of glory, through faith in that Bessed Saviour, who hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel. SUPERANNUATED PREACHERS AND WIDOWS OF THE PRIMITIVE WESLEYAN METHODIST

PRIMITIVE WESLEY AN METHODIST SOCIETY.

FIGHE ANNUAL SERMON in add of the Fund for the support of the Superannuary Preachers and Widows of this Connexion, will be Preached on SUNDAY EVENING next, the 2th Inst. in the Methodist Chapel, Bedford-Row, by Mr. Robert Connolly, Resident Preacher. CONNOLLY, Resident Preacher.

The object of this appeal is to provide a small provision for those PREACHERS who have been worn out in the service of their Lord and Master, as well as for the WIDOWS of such as have been removed by the Great Head of the Church to their eternal reward. Heretofore, the Annual Collections have been by no means equal to the demands upon this Fund, so that each of the Travelling Preachers, out of his small allowance, has had to subscribe annually One Pound. Under these circumstances, it is hoped that the sympathies of the Protestant public will be excited in favour of the Claimants on this Fund. Independently of Superannuated Preachers, there are at present several Widows dependent upon its resources. Contributions will be thankfully received by SAMUEL CASWELL, Esq. Bank-place; JOSEPH JONES

Esq. Clino; or by the Preacher.
