ajority of 40, he has suffered it to remain a dead tter. The dispensing of such a large sum would be vast advantage to "Old Ireland," and it is certain Lord Stanley's party had the reins of Government, e works would now be in operation.

"Last April, you may recollect, the Whigs and ories had a grand trial of strength, consequent upon ord Roden's committee in the Lords upon the Marhis of Normanby's government of Ireland, which so moyed Lord John Russell that he moved a resoluon claiming the confidence of the House of Comons and the country in the measures of his Cabinet. Robert Peel moved an amendment, upon which th parties divided—318 to 296, giving a majority of to the Whig Ministry—one less than their majority Saturday morning. INTERESTING MINING CASE. omas Maguire, of Nenagh, v. Richard O'Meara, of Shallee.

Messrs, Blackburne and Brooke appeared for the intiff. The case was concerning valuable lead nes in the neighbourhood of Nenagh. The bill ayed that the defendant (O'Meara) might be decreed perform his agreement with plaintiff, and that he ould execute a lease of the right to enter and work mines to plaintiff according to his agreement.

Messrs. Brewster and Keating appeared for defennt, and resisted the decree, on the grounds that intiff had not sufficiently worked the mine. aring Messrs. Hartley and Rollestone, and the positions of witnesses, the Lord Chancellor prounced a decree for the plaintiff, with costs.
