vates of the 59th Depot, at Tralee, in collision with some of the lower order in that town, both contending for the ball, and glass has been dashed from the windows near the barracks. It is charged that soldiers drew their bayonets; but no soldier off duty wears a bayonet, and therefore this is not admissible. The Magistrates have offered a reward for the real offenders in the affray.

Messrs. Foot and son, law agents to the Board of Ordnance for 50 years, are dismissed from that lucrative office, for having supported the conservative candidate, Mr. Dawson, Sir R. Peel's brother-in-law, at the Devonport election.

Constable Leahy and party, stationed at Croom, succeeded in arresting James Harden, Wm. Hanley, Wm. Madden, Michael Ryan, and Michael Donovan, for conspiring to take away the life of Charles Alexander, Mr. Maxwell's steward, of Islanmore, Croom. They are committed to the County Gaol by James D. Lyons, and James Barry, Esqrs.

The committee of the Asylum Chapel have unanimously continued, to the widow of Alderman D. F. G.
Mahony, the pew in that edifice held for his life by her lamented partner, who had been a liberal contributor to the above house of worship.

A man of the name of English, is reported to have been killed by his relatives near Kilfrush, in this County, for marrying a wife disagreeable to the family.

Wednesday an inquest was held upon the body of John Eyres, who died in hospital of wounds in the head, said to have been caused by fall from a horse at Bird-hill, but suspected to have been inflicted by his own brother, Daniel Eyres, with a tongs. The evidence was so conflicting and unsatisfactory, that the jury could only find a verdict that the wounds caused his death, but, how or when, they could not ascertain.

The County Grand Jury will have to pay £50 for re-setting the iron pallsades of the Courthouse, prostrated by the crowds which besieged Father Mathew, on his first visit to this city, last winter.

Wednesday Mr. Massy Ryves hooked a fish upon the Newgarden water, at Murreagh, certainly one of the best holes on the Shannon; he played him for 35 minutes, and after a hard fought battle, succeeded in killing him, when he proved to be a splendid salmon, of 34lb. weight. The fly was a purple body, with blue head, tied by Mr. Massy Ryves' eldest son, who is only 14 years old.

We are glad to perceive by our advertising columns, that Messrs. Marshall are appointed by Christopher St. George, Esq., to sell his property at Tyrone, county Galway. Some months ago they had a large sale on the same estate for Arthur F. St. George.
Mr. Joseph Marshall is also engaged to hold an extensive sale of stock of every description at Listowel, the day of the next Kerry Agricultural exhibition.
